Like a Drowning Man.
 "Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes Geo. S. Marsh, well-known attorney of N. Scott, Tex. "I took quantities of peppin and other medicines; but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw I grabbed at Kodol.
 I felt an improvement at once, and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices, and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. City Drug Store, Jackson-

Pingpong.
 The steamer's ropes were hardly down when I called up to Tourist Brown.
 "What's the news from London town?"
 And he answered with a frown
 "Pingpong! Pingpong!"
 "That," says I, "that's just a game (British, with a Chinese name).
 How's the court and peers of fame?"
 And he mumbled just the same:
 "Pingpong! Pingpong!"
 "How about the parliament?
 Are the Liberals content?
 Is Chamberlain as eloquent?"
 And he thundered (almost profane):
 "Pingpong! Pingpong!"
 "Tut, tut!" says I. "There's something more:
 News of more import, I'm sure How about the wily floor?"
 And the dock took up his row:
 "Pingpong! Pingpong!"

The name was ringing through my brain, But still I thought I'd try again.
 "How about King Edward's reign?"
 And he shrieked (almost profane):
 "Pingpong! Pingpong!"
 "That's all the news?" (he frowned severe)
 "From Kentish town to Wandsworth pier.
 It's all you see and all you hear."
 And then Brown whooped it in my ear:
 "Pingpong! Pingpong!"
 -Victor A. Hermann, in New York Herald.

Whooping Cough.
 A woman who has had experience with this disease tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it.
 She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest girl would call justly for cough syrup between woods.—JESSE PINKNEY HALL, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by City Drug Store.

MAGICIAN AMUSES SHA'Y.
Secretary of the Treasury Facetious- ly Orders the Vaults Locked.
 "Have all the vaults in the building locked and keep them locked until after this man leaves. Any person who can make $10 disappear from my hand without my knowledge has no right roaming around the treasury unwatched." This was what Secretary Shaw said the other day after witnessing in his private office one of the many tricks performed by a magician who has been entertaining society in Washington this season, says the Philadelphia Press. There were present besides Secretary and Mrs. Shaw Assistant Secretaries Altes, Spaulding and Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Horail.
 The magician, blindfolded, allowed six persons each to select a card and replace them in the pack, which was then shuffled and divided into three piles on the floor. The pack had been sent for by Secretary Shaw himself, and he broke the seal with his own hands. Five of the cards, with his eyes still covered, the performer presented on the blade of a penknife to the persons who had chosen them.
 "Where is my card?" asked Mr.
 Altes.
 "You could not have put it back in the pack, because it is not there," said the man.
 "Mr. Altes," he continued impressively, "you are an honorable gentleman, but sometimes honorable gentlemen do strange things without knowing it.
 Take some one with you and look among your papers in the desk in your private office, and you will find the card which you thought you replaced in the pack."
 Mr. Altes went and returned with the card—the five of diamonds—in his hand.
 A somewhat similar dispute with Secretary Shaw ended by the performer telling the cabinet officer that he could not do tricks successfully if he persisted in sitting on the cards. Thereupon Mr. Shaw arose, and, sure enough, the card about which there had been some question was revealed.
 "Young man," said Mr. Shaw paternally, "you are in the wrong business.
 What you want to do is to go into newspaper work and have your paper assign you to Washington. What you couldn't learn about the administration's policy wouldn't be worth learning."

Wants Others to Know.
 "I have used DeWitt's Little Ears for constipation and torpid liver, and they are all right. I am glad to endorse them, for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Heinze, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Safe, sure pills. City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J.
 Hinkle, Central Point.

The Commoner.
 [Mr. Bryan's Paper.]
 The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is a room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic and social problems. To the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his review of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.
 The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and THE WREK-LLY TIMES together for one year for $2.00. The regular subscription price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.50.

SUPERB ROLLING PALACE.
Handsomest of Private Cars For Steel Trust President Schwab.
 The finest car in the world is nearing completion in the shops of the Pullman Palace Car company at Pullman, near Chicago. The owner is Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel corporation. The cost of this magnificent coach will be $40,000.
 The Schwab traveling home is seventy feet of elegance, says the Philadelphia Times. The whole is in Louis XV. style. Every piece of furniture is of special and hand carved design.
 The brass bedsteads—one in Mr.
 Schwab's private room and the other in his wife's—cost nearly $1,000 each and are hand chased. The tapestries, damasks and velours used in the upholstering cover the finest curled white hair. Mr. Schwab's room is finished in red and his wife's in blue. The dining room tone is green.
 Mahogany is the wood chiefly used, but there is much inlaid work, which calls for maple, holly and birch. The wavy art glass is in the ventilating windows at the top of the car. An artist was imported from Boston to do the elaborate ceiling and panel hand painting decoration.
 Over the ceiling and the side and the panels above the windows garlands of roses and lilies twine. Architect J.
 Frank Johnson is satisfied that no private car as handsome ever rolled over rails. The beautiful dining room will seat sixteen. The kitchen and refrigerat-ing plant place every facility at the service of the chef. The observation end in this Louis XV. home is twenty feet long, and the window area is so great that the occupants will feel almost as if they were riding out of doors.

Won't Follow Advice After Paying for It.
 In a recent article a prominent physician says: "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation, as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by City Drug Store.
