Democratic State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR: G. E. CHAMBERLAIN of Multnomah FOR SECRETARY OF STATE: D. W. SEARS of Polk FOR STATE TREASURER: HENRY BLACKMAN of Morrow FOR SUPREME JUDGE: B. F. BONHAM of Marion FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL: J. H. RALEY of Umatilla FOR STATE PRINTER: JAS. E. GODFREY of Marion FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION: W. A. CARTER of Lane FOR CONGRESS, FIRST DISTRICT: J. K. WEATHERFORD of Linn

SMASH the third-term idea. It breeds a court-house ring; chronic office-seeking and other objectionable things. Four years of office-holding is enough for anybody.

A CHANGE in administration is what the people need and want. It will be productive of good. The Republican party has been in power too long, and has become reckless and extravagant.

THAT Robt. P. Neil will represent Jackson county in the State Senate is as certain as the sun will rise tomorrow. He is a man of the people, reliable and successful in business, and who always does his duty without fear or favor.

THE Democratic county canvass is progressing, and everywhere the speakers are being well received by good-sized audiences. The truth is the Democracy is united and confident, while the Republicans are half-hearted in the support of their ticket, which was put up in the interests of certain bosses and chronic office-seekers.

THE Republican managers are trying to bamboozle the public with a false presentation of the county debt question; but taxpayers are not to be caught with such chaff. They well know that the party in power is attempting to obscure the third-term issue, the great increase of taxation and other derelictions.

HON. J. K. WEATHERFORD, Democratic candidate for county congressman in this district, is in the valley at present. He has been in public life a long time, and holds the highest esteem of everybody who knows him or has heard of him. A man of much ability, of good appearance and a forcible, convincing speaker, Mr. Weatherford is pre-eminently the candidate who should be elected this time. He will poll a very large vote.

A GREAT FIGHT is being made against E. V. Carter, Republican candidate for state senator, inside of his own party. Especially is this the case in Ashland. He is being branded by Republicans as a trickster and a petty boss, making his personal interests superior to those of his constituents, even in public matters, and as not being a proper man for the place he seeks. Hundreds of his own party will vote against him, and his defeat is assured.

W. A. CARTER, the Republican candidate for representative, who seeks re-election, has been tried and found wanting. His record as a member of the last legislature is one that entitles him to defeat. He did nothing for his constituents, and proved himself a steadfast friend of the corporations, also casting his vote to the end for H. W. Corbett, when a very large majority of the people were opposed to such action and petitioned him to change it. Mr. Carter should be overwhelmingly beaten at the polls; and will be.

THERE is one plank in the Democratic platform the workmen are not likely to overlook, the one demanding that all trust-made goods be placed on the free list in competition with foreign goods. This means that when magnates combine to limit the supply and force up prices the consumer is afforded relief by being able to have the benefit of foreign-made goods. Competition is a more effective way of regulating trusts than even direct legislation. Legislation can be moulded to suit the views of the trusts; but competition is something they must meet squarely.

GOVERNMENT COSTS TOO MUCH.

State government is costing the people a great deal of money. The republicans responsible for it have spent money in many instances, squandered it, with a free hand. There is no reason for thinking that, if their power is renewed, there will be any abatement of the burden. The revenues required for the state during 1902 will reach $1,100,000, and probably the next legislature will be called on to meet a deficiency. The increase in the expenses of the state government has been something like $460,000 for one year. This is simply extravagance, a disregard of the advantages of good government economically administered. The republican party is alone responsible for this condition. Those of the party who have held the reins, in no particular have they considered the rights of the people, but have simply looked after the needs and demands of the "grafter." They have poured the money of the state into individual pockets. The people have been "worked," and there is no promise that the abuse is to be discontinued. Should then there be any surprise if the voters should decide to change servants at the polls in June? Surely the party in power deserves to be turned out and the "stables" they have occupied for so many years "cleaned out." It is not a bad thing to "clean up" now and then. A change could not increase the burden, and the possibilities are it would greatly reduce it. Those who pay the taxes are thinking about it from this standpoint. The East Oregonian has heard some of the burden carriers—those who really pay the taxes, though indirectly—talk. They say the republicans in state offices have not done what they should have done, have neglected public duties while looking out for selfish and private interests. There would not exist any cause for wonderment if the voters in all parts of the state decided not to stand for it any longer, and vote against the republican party. Its record in the state justifies the action. There are sure signs that portend this result."

FURNISH AND CHAMBERLAIN. What a contrast between the two men. Mr. Furnish, our Republican friend will tell you, is a business man, and for proof of what they say will point to his fortune. Is money everything? Is the time past when American citizens are measured by wealth instead of the sterling qualities of the man? We think not. Assuming for the sake of argument that Mr. Furnish is a conscientious business man does he not suffer in comparison with Mr. Chamberlain? The latter is not only a statesman and a polished gentleman, who will be an ornament to the office of governor, but is fully conversant with the laws of state. His record is so clean and sparkling with efficiency that even the most radical Republican newspapers cannot find fault with it. To see Chamberlain and Furnish in public, with no previous knowledge of their individual characteristics, is enough to tell which is the better man for the position.

It remains for Gus Newbury, the great and unrivaled mathematician, to show how the county debt can be reduced about $65,000 in one year, as he claims, when the total sum the county receives from the tax levied in the same time is less than $43,000, and hardly enough to pay the running expenses of the county and the accrued interest on the debt. Our resourceful county clerk has well earned his reputation as a juggler of figures. This time he has overreached himself, however. But he can't fool anybody who has any gumption at all.

PUBLIC MEETINGS. Judge Crowell will speak on the local issues at Gold Hill May 27th; at Central Point May 28th; at Medford May 29th; at Ashland May 30th. All will be evening meetings. Everybody is invited to attend.

Don't Start Wrong. Don't start the summer with a lingering cough or cold. We all know what a "summer cold" is. It's the hardest kind to cure. Often it "hangs on" through the entire season. Take it in hand right now. A few doses of One Minute Cough Cure will set you right. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "One Minute Cough Cure is the best medicine I ever used," says J. H. Bowles, Groveton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly." City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY ITEMS.

Some Matters of Interest Concerning our Neighbors.

Fred Rose of Williams has gone to California. Mrs. A. E. Voorhies has gone to Greenville, Wis., on a visit.

Nearly 2000 voters have registered, a larger number than usual.

Mr. Marshall of Grant's Pass was a visitor in the upper valley this week.

J. T. Buras has sold his hand of cattle to L. Huseman of Siskiyou county.

Mrs. Dr. Moore and her son and daughter have gone to Bar Harbor, Me., on a visit.

W. H. Massey of Merlin lost the sight of an eye, which was pierced by a piece of wood.

May Davidson has gone to Siskiyou county, Calif., to assume a responsible position in a hotel.

D. L. Greene's family is nicely domiciled in the Moore cottage on B street, Grant's Pass.

Mrs. E. S. Deputy of Fruitvale, Cal., is visiting R. L. and Miss Mary Coe, her brother and sister.

A type-setting machine, the only one south of Salem, has been installed in the Courier office, which is evidence of Bro. Voorhies' enterprise.

The annual social of the Grant's Pass (Choral) Union, held Friday evening, was a very pleasant one, greatly appreciated by those in attendance.

F. Pracht has his saw-mill, located near Woodville, running on full time with a large force. He is manufacturing a large quantity of superior lumber.

Rev. Mr. Daughters has arrived in Grant's Pass from Colfax, Wash., to assume charge of the Episcopal church. He is accompanied by his newly-wedded wife.

It is said three timber cruisers, named Ingram, Higgins and Brown, discovered a gold-bearing ledge assaying as high as $70 to the ton, and sold it for $6000 cash to Mendehall.

The Pacific Pine Needle Co. received a gold medal for the excellence of its exhibit at the Charleston fair. Oregon received 14 gold, 4 silver and 17 bronze medals, as also 82 honorable mentions.

Jas. Riley, a civil war veteran, who is evidently determined to die, made another attempt to drown himself in Rogue river a few days ago. He was fished out by Otto Walter, who was fishing near by.

J. T. Taylor, our efficient county treasurer, who has been very sick, is able to be about again, we are pleased to say. There is no doubt of his reelection, for he has made one of the best and most accommodating officials the county ever had.

The citizens of Crescent city are as much elated over the prospects of railroad connection with Grant's Pass as are the people of the latter city, and gave Col. Draper a royal reception on his recent visit there, accompanied by A. C. Hough. The Col. has gone to San Francisco on a short visit, but will return soon. Meanwhile a preliminary survey is being made.

The annual teachers' institute for Josephine county was held at Grant's Pass last week, and attracted an unusual amount of attention from the educators of Southern Oregon. Both the afternoon meetings and the evening entertainments are largely attended.

Among the educators who were present and assisted in the institute were J. H. Ackerman, state superintendent; J. H. Orcutt, president of Drain Normal school; P. L. Campbell, president State Normal School; Henry D. Sheldon, doctor of philosophy State University, and T. M. Jones, editor of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly. Supt. Savage is entitled to much credit for his earnest endeavors to make the institute a success, which it was in every sense of the term.

The corps of teachers employed in the Grant's Pass public schools have been engaged for the ensuing school year, to wit: E. E. Young, principal, Miss M. A. Goodin, assistant principal; Misses Florence Akin, Calla Heslin, Lillian Hegan, Mary E. Day, Ethel Hackett, Minnie L. Tuffs, Nora Sydow, Allie Pool, Mary E. Sutton, Mary E. Griffith, Edna Parker. There were but two changes, Misses Dora Colvig and Edna Harvey, who did not apply for re-employment, to be succeeded by Miss M. E. Griffith and Miss Edna Parker. The following scale of wages was adopted: All teachers except primary teachers and assistant principal will receive $35 per month for the first year. The assistant principal, $40 per month for the first year. After one year the salaries are increased $5 per month, and there is a similar increase after the fifth and tenth years of continuous service.

Farm for Sale. A good farm situated one mile northeast of Phoenix, lying alongside county road, containing 150 acres. There will be sold with it 100 acres of it under cultivation. The improvements consist of a dwelling-house, a large barn with sheds for stock, smoke, wood and poultry houses. There is a good well of water at the house and one near the barn; an orchard in good condition, containing about 60 fruit trees of assorted varieties, mostly apples, school-house near the north end of the farm. Terms, $3,000; $1,000 in cash, $1,000 in one year and $1,000 in two years, deferred payments to draw interest, or all cash at option of purchaser. Inquire of SILAS J. DAY, Real Estate Agent, Jacksonville, Oregon.

Salt Rheum It may become chronic. It may cover the body with large, inflamed, burning, itching, scaling patches and cause intense suffering. It has been known to do so. Do not delay treatment. Thoroughly cleanse the system of the humors on which this ailment depends and prevent their return.

The medicine taken by Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md., was Hood's Sarsaparilla. She writes: "I had a disagreeable itching on my arms which I concluded was salt rheum. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and in two days felt better. It was not long before I was cured, and I have never had any skin disease since."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Promises to cure and keeps the promise. It is positively unequalled for all cutaneous eruptions. Take it.

Stricken unto death the little one, with almost her last breath, exclaimed, "I want to be an angel, mamma, and I think I shall be." Under a floral mound in the village graveyard, all that was mortal of this cherished idol of her home, is resting now; but deep-graven on the hearts of those who knew her are the words of trust and hope. Though the fearful nature of her malady forbade a large attendance at the funeral, there were not wanting loving hands to heap above her resting place a wealth of springtime beauty to typify the love and esteem in which the little one was held by all who knew her.
