A Boy.

The first six months that a boy earns his own money you can always find peanuts in his pockets.—Atchison Globe.

Anybody Could See.

Master of the House.
Mrs. Bacon—Why do you suppose they call the employment agencies burlaus?
Mr. Bacon—Because a fellow can never find what he wants in one, I suppose.—Yonkers Statesman.

Justifiable.
Biggs—I see your friend Cutting has engaged in a new business. He advertises himself as a man milliner.

Diggs—Well, what of it? You certainly would not expect him to pose as a woman milliner, with some vexation. "Can't you see 'em'?"—New York World.

"Do you see specks before your eyes?" inquired the oculist.

"Why, I wear 'em right along, you dodged chump!" answered Uncle Nehemiah, with some vexation. "Can't you see 'em'?"—New York World.

Whoooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—JESSE PINKEY HALL, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by City Drug Store.

Some of the Best of this.

Blobs—Bones has a suit of clothes for every day in the week.

Slobbs—So have I. I've got it on now.

—Philadelphia Press.

Anticipated.

"When Charlie asked you to marry him, how did he end his proposal?"

"He was not obliged to end it."

Something Left to Stand On.

Bardon—I understand your interview with the father of your inamorata was not altogether satisfactory?

Tison—Oh, I don't know. True, I didn't get his consent to my marrying the girl, but I have had very tempting offers to appear upon the lecture platform to tell how it feels to be kicked down stairs.—Boston Transcript.

Putting Him to the Test.

Marie—Join, before we were married you said you would die for me if need be, didn't you?

John (hesitatingly)—Yes, I believe so.

Marie—Well, I wish you would go down stairs and discharge the cook.—Chelsea (Mass.) Gazette.

Unquestionable Proof.

Mrs. Youngwife (tearfully)—What have you done to show that you love me?

Mr. Youngwife—Darling, I've contracted a lovely case of chronic dyspepsia.—New York Journal.

A Lame Argument.

May—I don't believe pingpong will be fashionable much longer.

Hattie—Why not?

May—It gives the young men lame arms.—Town Topics.

Wants Others to Know.

"I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers for constipation and torpid liver, and they are all right. I am glad to endorse them, for I think when we find a good thing we ought to let others know it," writes Alfred Heine, Quincy, Ill. They never gripe or distress. Safe, sure pills. City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point.

The Commoner.

(Mr. Bryan's Paper.)

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equalled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic and social problems. To the columns of the Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best effort; his review of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions. The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and THIS WEEKLY TIMES together for one year for $2.00. The regular subscription price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.50.

CLEAN "SLIPT" HIS MIND.

Sam Was Absentminded, but Ready to Marry When Reminded.

A colored man about thirty years of age drove up to the depot with a load of baled cotton, and he had just begun to unload when an old gray-headed negro with a bad limp came down the street and shouted at him:

"Say, yo' pesson dere!"

"Hello, Uncle Joe!" saluted the other.

"Now, den, what sorter man be yo'?" demanded the old man as he reached the wagon.

"Hu! What yo' mean by dat?"

"I mean, sah, is yo' a man of honab or not?"

"Of co'se I ar'. Why, ole man, yo's all excited dis mawnin'. What's de matter?"

"Sam Johnson, I've got a darter Linda!" replied Uncle Joe as he straightened up and waved his arms about.

"Yes, of co'se. Yes, sah, yo's got a darter Linda, an' she's a powerful fine gal."

"Last Sunday night, Sam Johnson, yo' axed dat gal to marry yo'!"

"Hu, hu! Sunday night? Lemme see. Say, I reckon I did!"

"Of co'se yo' did! She said she'd do it, an' de marriage was sot fur dis mawnin' at 10 o'clock."

"Hu! Sho! Ten o'clock dis mawnin'! I reckon it was, Uncle Joe. Yes, we was ter be married dis mawnin'."

"But yo' ain't dar, sah!"

"Dat's a fact. Jist clean slipt my mind."

"But what yo' gwine ter do, sah—what yo' gwine ter do?" shouted the old man as he danced around.

"What I gwine ter do? Am Linda all ready an' de preacher dar?"

"Yes, sah."

"Den yo' cum around heah an' hang on to dat old mawl an' hold him stiddy, an' I'll run ober an' marry Linda an' be back heah in ten minits. If Mahaj Jones cum's 'long an' wants to know why dis cotton hain't dun unloaded, yo' tell him dat owing to a discockleekshun of a matrimonial disemembrance I've had to procrastinate fur a few minits."

Won't Follow Advice After Paying for it.

In a recent article a prominent physician says: "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation, as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by City Drug Store.

The Old Time Dancing.

I can't exactly understand the way they dance today; Somehow it's kinder different from the good old fashion way.

They've got these high-falutin names An' all that sort of thing, An' they never do a backstep Or cut the pigeon wing.

Away back in the backwoods in the time that used to be There seemed to be more music an' More grace an' melody

An' sum' hair an' sparklin' eyes An' all that sort of thing, An' I used to do the backstep An' cut the pigeon wing.

I guess I'll never feel again Jus' like I used to feel While prancing through the fingers of The old Virginia reel. Jus' swingin' my old sweetheart of The dear old long ago— An' I wore jeans an' cottons, An' she wore calico.

But her skirts jus' kep' on rustlin' An' all that sort of thing, When I used to do the backstep An' cut the pigeon wing.

Few of Mr. Carnegie's gifts have been more wisely and thoughtfully bestowed than his offer of $250,000 for a public library for Havana. The prompt compliance by the Havana authorities with the conditions of the gift shows that they appreciate the benefits which public libraries bring.

Probably when Prince Henry and his friends were arrested the other day for "scorching" on the footpath he was only giving them an object lesson of what he saw in America.
