Won't Follow Advice After Paying for It.

In a recent article a prominent physician says: "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation, as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by City Drug Store.

DON'T "BUTT IN."

There was a warm time at a political meeting held in Medford last week. It was a Democratic meeting, with Judge Crowell as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Crowell directed some of his remarks about the figures given out by Gus Newbury. The latter was present and asked leave to reply. This the Judge refused. Mr. Newbury started to talk anyway; but the crowd made so much noise and turned out the lights that he was forced to desist.

Gray Hair

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for over thirty years. It has kept my scalp free from dandruff and has prevented my hair from turning gray." Mrs. F. A. Soule, Billings, Mont.

There is this peculiar thing about Ayer's Hair Vigor—it is a hair food, not a dye. Your hair does not suddenly turn black, look dead and lifeless. But gradually the old color comes back,—all the rich, dark color it used to have. The hair stops falling, too. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

CENTRAL POINT NOTES

James A. Tate delivered a very able address on Prohibition to a large congregation at the M. E. church last Sunday. J. J. Carson, who has been doing carpenter work on the Lake creek ditch, returned home one day last week. L. E. VanVleet is building a fine dwelling for Mr. Byrum, on his farm in Sam's valley precinct. Miss Martha Cardwell, who has been visiting relatives and friends here, returned to Klamath county one day this week. Fred Peninger and family left for Nampa, Idaho, last Tuesday, where they go to make their future home. Dr. Hinkle, who has been quite ill, is convalescing, we are glad to say. Memorial exercises were held at the Baptist church May 30th. Prof. A. J. Hanby delivered the memorial oration after the exercises at the Baptist church. A procession was then formed, which proceeded to the cemetery, where they decorated the graves of the departed. Mrs. Susan Evans died at the home of her son-in-law, A. C. Chittenden, in Willow Springs precinct, May 24th, aged 80 years. The remains were laid to rest in the Jacksonville cemetery, Rev. E. B. Lockhart officiating. Ferris & Ringer are putting a new coat of paint on the A. O. U. W. hall, which improves its appearance. I. C. Robinett and wife were Medford visitors last Sunday, and attended church while there. Rev. Hollcraft of Medford preached the memorial sermon here last Sunday to a large and appreciative audience. All agree that the sermon was one of the best ever delivered here. J. L. Downing of Ashland spent a day here last week visiting friends and relatives. I. J. Purkeypile and wife spent last Sunday with relatives at Gold Hill. J. W. Mee of Applegate spent a couple of days here last week.

RAG TIME SERMONS

Foreign Mission work. Every year thousands of dollars go to support foreign missionary societies. People who subscribe to the cause forget the passage in the Bible which says "Charity at Home." How much better it would be to try and rescue some of the people who need attention at home instead of sending missionaries to stir up strife and bloodshed in foreign countries, the same as was done in China. In the large cities and in the smaller places, too, for that matter, there is plenty of work for those who think they have a mission to perform. Suppose, for instance, the money spent in trying to convert the heathen was spent to provide a home for working girls in large cities. Thousands of lives would be saved from sin. And surely the morality of a man's daughter is more precious to him than those of a hundred savages. How blindly people work. Then they pat each other on the back and boast about the high order of their civilization. Suppose, as another instance, that a small part of foreign missionary money was spent to establish reading rooms and places of amusement to young men; what a marked difference it would make in the ranks of those who fill the jails, people who live off the wages of sin and men who tramp about the country without occupation or ambition. Truly, we repeat, charity begins at home. The average country boy or girl stand about as much show of leading pure, honest lives in a large city where they have no friends or relatives as if thrown among a pack of hungry wolves. If foreign missionary money would be applied to removing some of these evil influences, it would cause rejoicing in heaven. Even when surrounded by relatives, it is no easy matter to combat the conditions that exist in cities. Human nature is weak at the best, and it is easier to go with the tide than swim up the stream. Next time you are tempted to denounce to foreign missionaries think of the influences that surround your daughters and sons at home.
