

Bright's Disease.

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription changed hands in San Francisco Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $112,500 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes thereto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by patting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physician or judges. Up to Aug. 25 eighty-seven per cent. of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent. of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free upon application. Address JOHN J. FELTON CO.

Why Not All the Facts?

If there is any good and sufficient reason why Major Gardener should not be summoned to give testimony on one question which "will not down," that of the Philippine situation, it certainly does not appeal to the general American public.

Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge and other Republican senators who seem to have followed the lead of Secretary Root and discouraged as "mischievous" any further publicity regarding certain doings and plannings are "making history" after a fashion which they are not likely to enjoy thoroughly a few weeks hence.

Why, indeed, should not Major Gardener's story of what has been going on in the Philippines be given to the senate and to the public in detail and un-abridged?—Boston Globe.

The Greatness of the Nation.

There is some pretty good material for Fourth of July orations in census bulletin No. 149, just issued, which is devoted to the discussion of the area and population of this great country.
According to this bulletin, the area of the United States, including Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, the Philippines, Guam and Samoa, is 3,680,822 square miles, or about one-fourteenth of the land surface of the earth.

The total population of the United States, including the possessions mentioned, on June 1, 1900, was calculated at $4,223,069, with a margin of a million for possible error, owing mainly to uncertainty as to the number of people in the Philippines.

Only three political systems in the world have a greater population than the United States. These are the British empire, the Chinese empire and the Russian empire. The British empire, however, is largely a name, and its practically independent colonies, like the Australian confederation and the Dominion of Canada, ought not to be taken into the count. They deserve to be considered by themselves as nations. Anyway, for a young nation, we are doing very well in the matter of size and can afford to tout our horn pretty loudly when we pause to contemplate our marvelous development in little more than a century.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by City Drug Store.

Prompt Justice in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia is sometimes spoken of as being slow. In one respect the Quaker City must be exonerated from that charge. Certainly there was nothing slow about the bringing to justice of Murderer Lane, the negro butler, who was sentenced to death within seventy-two hours after having committed a triple murder. He killed a woman and one of her daughters and fatally wounded another daughter on one day, was arrested on the same day, arraigned on the following day and convicted and sentenced to death on the third day.

The Philadelphia Press insists that there was no undue haste in the proceedings and that the negro was according all the rights and privileges to which a person accused of a capital crime is entitled. He had a fair trial, says the Press, and all the forms of law were strictly complied with. There was no element of doubt as to the commission of the crime, as the murderer admitted his guilt, and this unquestionably facilitated the proceedings.

The case furnishes a remarkable example of prompt justice under legal forms and is in striking contrast to a large majority of murder trials, which drag along months and even years before the ends of justice are reached.
Perhaps if there were less of the law's delay in flagrant and brutal murder cases where the identity of the mur-derer is reasonably apparent there would be less inclination on the part of people whose sense of justice has been outraged to resort to the jurisdiction of Judge Lynch. While it is not the desire of orderly and law abiding people that the conviction of criminals should be unduly hastened or procured without a deliberate compliance with the legal forms, there is no doubt that the technicalities imposed to retard justice bring not a little popular dis-repute upon our system of criminal jurisprudence.

Read It in His Newspaper.

George Schaub, a well-known citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung.
He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns; and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished, and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful, and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable Balm is for sale by City Drug Store.

First Discovery of Gold.

After careful investigation it has been determined that the date of the discovery of gold in California was January 28, 1848. About that same time there was another important discovery, which to thousands of people has been worth more than all the gold, because it restored them to health, and that is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This wonderful medicine continues to cure stomach and bowel complaints, the same today as in the past; and although many medicines have come and gone the Bitters still remain the people's favorite.
To those who suffer from dyspepsia, indigestion, headache, heartburn, constipation or biliousness, and have tried other medicines without obtaining relief, this remedy will prove a blessing, because it will surely cure them. Try a bottle and satisfy yourself.

A Gladstone Memorial.

The square in Edinburgh named after St. Andrew, the patron saint of Scotland, where the Gladstone monument is to be erected, was built late in the eighteenth century, says the London News. The spot was so sequestered that there, just before the square was laid out, Henry Mackenzie, author of "The Man of Feeling," shot woodcocks.
The memorial of the Grand Old Man will be permanently overshadowed by the statue of a minor light in the record of politics, though still a figure in Scottish history—namely, that of Henry Dundas, first Lord Melville. While secretary of the navy in 1806 he was found not guilty on a charge of "gross malversation and breach of duty." His edify stands on a tall column in the center of the square, which was erected to his memory eight years ago by the officers and seamen of the navy.

General Hampton's Last Wish.

General Wade Hampton expressed the wish that his people be allowed to look on his face and that he be buried in a plain pine coffin, says the Savannah News. The feeling of friendship for the negro deep in the heart of the old slaveholder was strikingly illustrated in the dying words of the great Carollian—"God bless my people, all-white and black."

Saved From An Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa. "I was so low after six months of severe sickness, caused by Hay Fever and Asthma, that few thought I could get well; but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, used it, and was completely cured." For desperate Throat and Lung Diseases it is

Is there now to be a German-Fran- cophile crisis?

So it would seem from the statements of the Cologne Gazette, which has taken the initiative in a campaign calling upon the German government to intervene for the protection of German headholders who have interests in the Minas railway in Brazil and of German settlers in the Brazilian state of Minas Geraes, which is the most important interior province of the republic. The German bondholders have long standing claims against the government of Minas Ge-raes, and The Gazette recommends that the imperial government adopt the method pursued by the French government, which when the province of Espirito Santo failed to fulfill its obligation to French capitalists made the federal government responsible for the debts. As to the grievances of German settlers, the majority of whose fathers bought allotments from Brazilian landowners, that is a matter for imperial investigation. Many of the land titles held by the Germans have lately been disputed, and in some cases the occupants have been ejected, while others have been forced to buy their land over again at a rate which takes into account the improvements they themselves effected. The victims at present, it is declared, are reckoned by hundreds, but many thousands feel themselves threatened, knowing that they are at the mercy of anti-German officials.

Reversed.

Tom—Do you think you'll have much trouble in popping the question?
Dick—No. I think I'll have more trouble questioning pop.—Chicago News.

A Real Friend.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W.
T. Sturdevant of Merry Oaks, N. C.
"After I had tried many doctors and medicine to no avail, one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now, and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol. Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food.
Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid." City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point.

Back came His Way.

"Yes, I play the races occasionally," said the man with the fur trimmed overcoat, "and of course I hit it occasionally. For instance, I came out way ahead in New Orleans the other week.
I had a hundred dollars up on a ten to one shot."
"And he came in ahead?" was asked.
"Oh, no; he was among the last."
"Then I don't see how you made a good thing."

Easy as Grease.

There were no less than seven friends of mine there who'd have wanted to borrow the thousand dollars if I had won it, and so I figure that I was $900 ahead by losing!"
