VOTING CONTEST OPEN.

Four Candidates have been Entered for the Southern Oregonian's Free Vacation Contest.

The SOUTHERN OREGONIAN's free vacation contest is open. Mrs. O. Davis and Miss Carrie George of Medford, and Miss Jo Orth and Miss Mabel Prim of Jacksonville have been entered in the race by friends.

As briefly as possible the editor will attempt to answer some of the numerous inquiries received asking about the contest. The coupons do not necessarily have to be signed by the one sending them; but the name of the party to be voted for must be written thereon plainly, so that it can be made out. The coupons can be sent by mail or brought to the SOUTHERN OREGONIAN office in the Miles' block, over Miller's hardware store. The votes will be counted on each publication day and announced. It will close in time so that the successful candidate can visit Newport during the full-tide season, and the end will be announced soon enough so that the friends and their candidates will not be taken unawares.

All expenses of the candidate, both railroad fare and hotel bills, will be paid for a period of one month. The Medford Drug Co. will present the successful candidate with a costly present.

Every paid subscription will count for as many votes as there are issues of the paper for the term of subscription.

The contest opens as follows: Mrs. O. Davis, Medford.....112 Miss Carrie George.....25 Miss Mabel Prim, Jacksonville.....21 Miss Jo Orth,.....17
