How Secretary Root Rests.

Secretary Root is generally recognized as one of the hardworking members of the cabinet. Indeed, some of his friends have felt called upon to warn him that his exertions in the interests of the war department often carry him past the line of prudence, but the secretary has been known, says the Washington Star, to rest his brain when the fact is entirely unsuspected. A short time ago a delegation from one of the southern states called upon him to urge the establishment of a large camp in a certain part of their state. Almost immediately after they had left the department a newspaper man saw the secretary and asked:

"Mr. Secretary, in what part of did they want the camp located?"

Mr. Root looked just the tiniest bit embarrassed. Then he came out with it: "Honestly, I do not know," he said.

They had talked it to him for nearly half an hour, and he had not heard it.

The Same Old Story.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States, and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions, and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks, when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well-known citizen of Henderson, N. C.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

Coattail Puller.

When the spellbinding begins in Pennsylvania this fall, says a Washington correspondent, Major Alexander McDowell will resume the office conferred upon him two years ago by Senator Quay. It is that of coattail puller.
The duties of that office in no way interfere with those of his other position, which is that of clerk of the house of representatives. The other office came into existence at Norristown in the fall of 1900, while Quay was making his memorable canvass for re-election to the senate. The colonel realized that the men in his party were talking too long, so he designated McDowell as the person to notify the man on his feet that he had spun his yarn to a suitable length. It was agreed that the major should pull the coattail of the speaker when he had consumed twenty minutes.

Quay was the first man to feel the tug that notified him that he must shut up, but the notice startled the "old man." He turned such a look of surprise at the major that he became the central figure in the hall. Then it dawned upon the senator that the major was only carrying out his duly appointed task.

"All right, major; I'll quit," said the senator. "You know your part all right." Turning to the crowd, the senator said "Good night" and left the stage without even a word of apology for the abruptness of his conclusion.

Saves a Woman's Life.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Craig of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was completely cured." Suffers from coughs, colds, throat and lung trouble need this remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by City Drug Store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

WOMEN OF ST. PIERRE.

Were Noted For Graceful Beauty and Picturisque Attire.

The women of St. Pierre, the fated city of Martinique, blotted out in an instant by Mont Pelee's fire, were noted for their picturesque beauty. Travelers say that for grace and stateliness of carriage they were unsurpassed.

Their love of color, too, was the passionate fondness for brightness of all

A ST. PIERRE WOMAN.

the races from which they sprung—French, Indian and negro. Fashion was unchanging in that once happy city.
Women of the lower classes wore a simple garment not unlike an empire gown, made with a great deal of fullness and drawn up under the girdle in such a way as to leave the limbs free.

Mother Always Keeps it Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health, due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once, and now at the age of seventy-six eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects, as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic.

There is food for thought in the fact that the money contributed by generous and sympathetic Americans for the release of Miss Stone made possible the massacre planned by the Albanian chief who was lately sent into Turkey by the Macedonian revolutionary committee. Of course this is no fault of Miss Stone. She is an estimable person, acting no doubt with the best of motives, but it might have saved some hundreds of lives, to say nothing of $70,000 of American money, if she had "never wandered from her own fireside."

The legislature of Iowa has voted to increase the salary of the governor of the state from $3,000 to $5,000. It would appear that $5,000 a year is not too much for a good governor of a bountiful and beautiful commonwealth like Iowa. This is $3,000 less than is paid by Massachusetts and Ohio and $5,000 less than New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Will Furnish is the name of one of the candidates for governor of Oregon.
If the officeholders have confidence that he will do what his name implies, he will doubtless receive their undivided and enthusiastic support.

If Santos-Dumont shall be able to demonstrate the advantages of the airship over the automobile in eluding the police, he will greatly popularize his machine in certain quarters.

The beef trust appears to be doing more toward the spread of vegetarian practices than all the diet reformers in the country.
