

Preston Pardoned.

J. F. Bogard, a young man calling himself Preston, who was sent to the penitentiary from Jackson county some time ago, for holding up J. L. Yadin, the mail contractor, and others, on the Ashland-Klamath Falls road, under very peculiar circumstances, has been pardoned by Gov. Geer. He was once an inmate of an insane asylum in California, and no doubt was not in his right mind when he committed the crime. The petition for his pardon was signed by many prominent citizens. Bogard's parents, who reside in Foo's creek precinct, will watch their son more closely hereafter.

A Sad Affair.

A lamentable accident occurred at the residence of Lewis Dorane, in Climax precinct, Sunday, which resulted in the death of his youngest child, an interesting girl aged about four years. It seems that her brother, who is 17 years old, was handling a gun, which he had just taken out of its case, when it discharged, striking the little one in the head, causing instant death. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, the remains being buried in the Medford cemetery.

MR. CLARK'S ENDORSEMENT

Will Doubtless Have Strong Influence in the Right Direction.

Of particular interest at this time is the publication of an interview with Mr. W. H. Clark, a brother of Secretary of State George A. Clark, of Topeka, Kansas, in whose office he is employed. In the course of the interview Mr. Clark said:

"Along in 1890, I was living in Junction City, Kansas, and working at my trade of printer on the Republican. I had a bad attack of rheumatism and could not seem to get over it. All sorts of medicines failed to do me any good and my trouble kept getting worse. My feet were so swollen that I could not wear shoes and I had to go on crutches. The pain was terrible.

"One day I was setting the type of an article for the paper telling what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People had done for a man afflicted as I was and I was so impressed with it that I determined to give the medicine a trial. For a year my rheumatism had been growing worse, but after taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a short time I began to improve. I bought four boxes in all, but I did not need to finish the last one. Before the last box was half taken the pain and the swelling had all disappeared. That was ten years ago and rheumatism has never troubled me since. I am 44 years old now; I weigh 191 pounds and can truthfully say that I haven't felt better in the past twenty years than I do right now."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People go directly to the seat of the disorder, purifying and enriching the blood by eliminating poisonous elements and renewing health-giving forces. They are a positive specific not only for rheumatism, but for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, and fever and of other acute diseases, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, and all forms of weakness either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents a box; six boxes, two dollars and fifty cents; by addressing Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Be sure to get the genuine; substitutes never cured anybody.

Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning that it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs.

They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despondency.

"I had pains in my back, could not sleep and when I got up in the morning felt worse than the night before. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and now I can sleep and get up feeling rested and able to do my work. I attribute my cure entirely to Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. J. N. Fenwick, 112 S. Commercial, Toledo, Ohio.

Kodol does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or over-loaded. Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. CONGRESSMAN TONGUE DIES SUDDENLY

At Washington—His Death Proves a Great Shock—He was Finishing His Third Term.

A special dispatch to the Portland Journal gives the details of the death of Congressman Tongue, which occurred at his hotel in Washington, Sunday.

In the prime of his life and in the midst of his usefulness Thos. H. Tongue, representative in congress from the First District of Oregon, passed from earthly scenes without warning. Death came without suffering and so suddenly that there was hardly time to notify even his most intimate friends.

The indirect cause, indigestion having caused paralysis of the heart. Thomas Tongue, Jr., did not arrive until after his father had passed away.

Saturday morning Congressman Tongue felt as well as usual. During the forenoon he received a call from friends and conversed cheerfully. Just as they were taking their departure he complained of slight pains in the stomach, and his daughter brought him some simple household remedy that had always proved effective in the past. He drank the medicine and said he would be "all right in a little while."

After discussing his morning mail Mr. Tongue sat down on a sofa in his suite at the Hotel Irvington. His daughter, Miss Bortha, left the room for a moment, and when she returned found her father struggling and breathing heavily. She was only slightly alarmed. Going to a telephone she called for a physician; but before help could reach him Congressman Tongue died. Miss Raune, secretary to Mr. Tongue, was the only one present at the death scene beside the bereaved daughter.

No funeral services were held at Washington. The remains left the city Monday evening, escorted by a committee composed of Congressmen Moody, Barton, Payne, Bishop, Davidson, McLaughlin, Ramsdell, Bellamy, Needham, Sutherland and Babes. The funeral will take place at the Tongue home at Hillsboro, Washington county, and the remains will be laid to rest at that place.

News of the death of Mr. Tongue came as a great shock to official circles and his many friends. He was recognized as an able speaker and competent legislator.

Mr. Tongue was born in England in 1844; and was therefore in his 59th year. He came to this country when fifteen years old, going direct to Washington county, Oregon. He graduated from the Pacific University at Forest Grove in 1868, and then studied law with Hon. W. D. Hare, being admitted to the bar in 1870. Mr. Tongue was long a prominent member of the Republican party. He served one term as state senator, and would have commenced his fourth term as a congressman March 4th next.

The Improved "Home Comfort" Family and Hotel Ranges

From those Who Have Used Home Comfort Ranges.

We have used a Home Comfort 14 years with perfect satisfaction in every particular, and we recommend same to general public as one of the best and cheapest in the long run on the market.

A SEVERE TEST

Came Through Fire Without Serious Injury

For a number of years the Wrought Iron Range Co., of St. Louis, Mo., have been manufacturing a range known as the Home Comfort, which has been guaranteed to be as nearly indestructible as human hands and brains could make them. This was amply demonstrated on April 26th last, when the great fire swept over Hull. Eight of these ranges were in the burnt district; but although they were for many hours subjected to the terrible heat, the falling walls and chimneys, the water which was thrown upon the buildings, they were each found in tact among the ruins. In one case, however, a cast iron pot, which had been left on the range, was found to have been melted and run over the top. The copper reservoirs were naturally melted by the terrible heat, and some of the lighter bracket work was bent by falling roofs and walls; but so far as the main body of the range was concerned, not a piece was warped, not a cover bent or a single plate cracked or broken.

It is the material employed and the method of making which gives the Home Comfort Ranges this wonderful tenacity and strength. The material used is malleable iron, wrought steel and asbestos. Malleable iron has been shown by chemical and mechanical tests to have a heat-resisting power twice and one-half times greater than that of cast iron. The frames, doors and all parts liable to strain or breakage, are made of the material. The end flues and every vital part are all carefully lined with protecting asbestos, thus making as durable, strong and as nearly perfect a range as has yet been made by man or capable of being made.

The following testimony from owners of the ranges in question carries with it complete confirmation and conviction: "We, the undersigned citizens of Hull, purchased Home Comfort ranges of the Wrought Iron Range Co., of St. Louis, Mo., and we supposed they were totally destroyed; but upon examination we found the body of the ranges unharmed, not a piece warped or out of place. In one instance a cast iron kettle was melted on the malleable top. We have heard of no other ranges which survived our terrible visitation, and beyond question the Home Comfort range, so far as we are concerned, stands pre-eminent."
