for the governor of the state of Oregon. The house decided that matter by a vote of 26 to 24 when the appropriation of $14,500 for the purchase of the E. N. Cooke residence at Salem was strickes from the appropriation bill. This action was taken largely on the statement of Governor Chamberlain that he could and would not occupy the residence. Oregon is prob ably the only state in the Union which has no executive mansion.

SENATOR KUYKENDALL'S novel bill which is a copy of a law in force in several states, has passed the legislature. It provides for district school boards to furnish transportation fo pupils living more than two miles from the school building, when such decision shall be made by a majority vote at any legally called school meeting. When it may be done at lesser expense the board may pay the board of pupils instead of furnishing conveyance. The expense is to be met when necessary by a special levy.
