Parents' Responsibility Great

It is the right of every child to be well born, and to the parents it must look for health and happiness. How inconceivably great is the parents' responsibility, and how important that no taint of disease is left in the blood to be transmitted to the helpless child, entailing the most pitiable suffering, and marking its little body with offensive sores and eruptions, catarrh of the nose and throat, weak eyes, glandular swellings, brittle bones, white swelling and deformity.

How can parents look upon such little sufferers and not reproach themselves for bringing so much misery into the world? If you have any disease lurking in your system, how can you expect well developed, healthy children? Cleanse your own blood and build up your health, and you have not only enlarged your capacity for the enjoyment of the pleasures of life, but have discharged a duty all parents owe to posterity, and made mankind healthier and happier.

There is no remedy that so surely reaches deep-seated, stubborn blood troubles as S. S. S. It searches out even hereditary poisons, and removes every taint from the blood, and builds up the general health. If weaklings are growing up around you, right the wrong by putting them on a course of S. S. S. at once. It is a purely vegetable medicine, harmless in its effects, and can be taken by both old and young without fear of any bad results.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A NEGRO won one of the most coveted prizes at Yale with an essay, in which he proves that the negro is incapable of self government in Hayti.

MISERY begets the largest part of humanity. Ignorance rears it. Humbug educates it. Tradition enslaves it. Fashion cripples it. Ambition governs it. Greed despoils it. Need kills it. Hypocrisy buries it.

SENATOR REED SMOOT of Utah hastens to commend the President's utterances regarding large families and race suicide, and incidentally points to the fact that President Smith, of the Mormon Church, now has 1,003 direct descendants.

We want a representative in every city and town in this state to present our business. Our proposition is an exceptional one, and offers to a good, reliable, honest party, with references, not less than $100 per month. No canvassing or appointing of agents—a bona-fide, legitimate business. Address with stamp, C. G. Pulsifer & Co., Lumber Exchange, Seattle.

UNCLE SAM often plays a lone hand in diplomacy and generally wins out; and it is noticeable that several others of the great powers are getting ready to follow suit when the hand with Russia has been played to a conclusion. What the United States does they will all do; but they will let us do it first.

THE London Daily Mail publishes the first series of letters from Percival Landon, its special correspondent at Manila, showing the American failure in the Philippines. He declares that the American campaign has made no impression in the islands; that the firing line is co-extensive with the coast line, and a feeling of utter insecurity prevails at headquarters. The correspondent also asserts that in a country depending entirely upon agriculture for its prosperity the land is being largely abandoned. He says it is time for the United States to decide whether there might be a reconsideration of its policy of the past four years.

THE Crescent City Record, in discussing railroad rumors, says that indications are that there will be some railroad building in Del Norte county, Cal., within the next year. A party of surveyors arrived at Crescent City from Eureka, and two other parties were due, when the article was written. The men are supposed to be in the employ of the Oregon Pacific R. R., and one crew is to survey to Grants Pass; another to Eureka, and the third is to work northward towards Coos Bay. These reports are doubtless born of the torrid atmosphere which Col. T. Waln Morgan-Draper, F. H. Osgood, Capt. Crawford and other titled gentlemen are dispensing in such reckless profusion.

DUN'S REVIEW of business conditions for the month of April lacks a good deal of showing as favorable conditions, generally speaking, as the same month last year. This year there were more than 100 fewer failures, but the aggregate liability is considerably heavier. This is accounted for in part by several exceptionally big failures. The figures indicate a gradual wiping out of competition. Last year the liabilities were smaller, but the total number of failures was larger. The small dealers were being destroyed. This year, with a larger liability total, the number of individual sufferers is smaller. That is, having overcome the little fellows, who are always the first sufferers, the trusts are encroaching on the domains of the larger corporations, either absorbing them or driving them out of business.

THE homeseekers' rate, which was to have expired on June 15, will be continued until August or September. The Great Northern has already announced that it intends to continue the reduced fare in effect, and the other northern lines will be compelled to make a similar rate. The settlers' rate, a low one-way fare, will probably be abandoned after June 15, the date upon which it was intended the rate should be discontinued. There is apparently no demand for a continuation of this quotation, and unless railroad men alter their plans it will be given up. The homeseekers' rate is only offered twice a month, and is quoted at one fare plus $2 for the round trip. This rate is intended to induce easterners who are anxious to locate in a new field to make a trip to the coast to investigate conditions here. Liberal stopover privileges are provided, and the rate has been found to work satisfactorily. The settlers' rate, a reduced one-way fare, has succeeded in drawing thousands of persons westward. These people have determined, before leaving the east, to settle on the coast, and it is merely a question with them of picking out the best location.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of wornout tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions the strength lets down, health gives way and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold by City Drug Store.

A Seedless Watermelon.

S. P. Peake, writing to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat from Rosendale, Minn., says: "Will you please say these few words for me about seedless watermelons: After the vine has runners about eight inches long cover them with dirt and keep wet until this place take root; then cut them off the vine. Be sure they have good roots first, and keep all buds pinched off the runners till out from the vine. If this don't make seedless melons I am badly mistaken."

Jim Dumps had tried some time in vain
To ease an after-dinner pain
Which gnawed at him his belt below,
And filled his world with indigo.
Dyspepsia now can't bother him,
For "Force" has made him "Sunny Jim."

A Foe to Indigestion.

"Every summer I have had to take tonics, but now I use 'Force.' I am enjoying excellent health; it has built me up. I eat 'Force' at night and it gives me a restful sleep. It builds up, satisfies and is pleasant to eat and a foe to indigestion.

HE REFUSED TO SELL.

Turner and His Great Picture, "The Building of Carthage."

When Turner exhibited his great picture, "The Building of Carthage," he was disappointed because it had not been sold at once at the private view and angry with the press for criticising it severely. Sir Robert Peel called upon him.

"Mr. Turner," said he, "I admire your 'Carthage' so much that I want to buy it. I am told you want 500 guineas for it."

"Yes," said Turner; "it was 500 guineas, but today it's 600."

"Well," said Sir Robert, "I did not come prepared to give 600, and I must think it over. At the same time it seems to me that the change is an extraordinary piece of business on your part."

"Do as you please," said Turner. "Do as you please."

After a few days Sir Robert called again upon the great painter. "Mr. Turner," he began, "although I thought it a very extraordinary thing for you to raise your price, I shall be proud to buy that picture, and I am prepared to give you the 600 guineas."

"Ah!" said Turner. "It was 600 guineas, but today it's 700."

Sir Robert grew angry, and Turner laughed. "I was only in fun," he said. "I don't intend to sell the picture at all. It shall be my winding sheet."

For years he kept it in his cellar. Then it was brought up and hung in his gallery, where it remained as long as he lived. When he died, he left it to the nation.—Youth's Companion.

Forcing the Pace.

George Gordon, an old Scotchman of miserly habits, was dying. A neighbor who was on friendly terms with the old man's relatives agreed to call on the minister and beg him to try to induce the old fellow to make a will. The minister consented and at length persuaded the miser to allow a lawyer to be sent for.

By the time he arrived the old man was rapidly sinking, but the will was smartly drawn up and duly awaited his signature. He was propped up in bed and managed to write "George Gor—." Then he fell back exhausted.

An eager relative who stood by seized the pen and stuck it in the dying man's hand.

"'D,' Geordie, 'd,'" referring to the next letter of the signature.

The old man glared up wrathfully.

"Dee?" he snapped. "I'll dee when I'm ready, ye avaricious wratch!"

Little Early Riser.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely; and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by all druggists.

Bright's Disease.

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription changed hands in San Francisco Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $312,500 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also go physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physician or judges. Up to Aug. 25 eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent. of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address JOHN J. FULTON CO.
