

Printed Every Wednesday, by Times Printing Company, CHAS. NICKELL, Editor and Mgr.

TERMS: One Year, in advance, $1.50 Six Months, $1.00

Advertisements inserted at reasonable rates.

Entered at the Postoffice at Jacksonville, Ore., as Second Class Mail Matter

CHINESE PREASANTS cannot be shot anywhere in Oregon during the coming two years. This is one of the best acts of the special session of the Legislature.

WHEN the Republican national convention assembled in Chicago next June Senator Hanna will step down and out as chairman of the national executive committee. Ex-Gov. Crane has been selected as his successor.

AMONG other things the Legislature did, at its special session, it memorialized Congress in favor of the Brownlow road bill which, if passed, will bring an apportionment of $250,000 to Oregon, and also in favor of increasing salaries of rural mail carriers from $600 to $800 per year.

THE Williamsburg bridge, the second to be built across East river, New York, and which connects the boroughs of Manhattan and Brooklyn, is now to be traveled. This structure, construction on which was begun Oct. 28, 1902, is about a mile above the Brooklyn bridge, which greatly resembles in type and appearance, though its much larger.

ACCORDING to appearances the great lumbering of the Pacific Coast is practically a thing of the past. The concern that has made over $1,000,000 for its members of late was disrupted when the California members stated finally that they would not sign a new agreement.

JAMES D. RICHARDSON of Tennessee who was the Democratic leader of the House in the 56th and 57th Congresses, believes the year 1904 bright with hope for the Democratic party. In an interview at Washington he declared that with the financial question out of the way, and his party united as in years gone by on great doctrines, he can see no reason why the Democratic party should not sweep the country.

THERE is every prospect that the wages of hundreds of thousands of workmen will be cut more or less during the year 1904. Leading officials of the United States Steel Corporation say that beginning January 1st about 90 per cent of the employees of the corporation will suffer wage reductions ranging from 5 to 20 per cent.

CONGRESSMEN, as well as members of legislatures, find the mileage grant very profitable. It seems that they allowed themselves traveling expenses for both the extra and regular sessions of Congress, whereas only one trip was made to Washington for both of them.

Good for Children. The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and La Grippe, because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes sore throats, and by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.

ARMSTRONG MUST HANG.

Not the least important of the bills enacted by the Legislative Assembly was that which provides for the execution of Pleasant Armstrong, the convicted and condemned murderer of Minnie Ensminger, near Baker City, on Christmas night, 1902.

The passage of this bill was necessary under the peculiar conditions and circumstances of the case as they existed. The warrant of execution under which Armstrong was to have been hanged was issued under the law which was in effect when the crime was committed.

When the Republican national convention assembled in Chicago next June Senator Hanna will step down and out as chairman of the national executive committee. Ex-Gov. Crane has been selected as his successor.

AMONG other things the Legislature did, at its special session, it memorialized Congress in favor of the Brownlow road bill which, if passed, will bring an apportionment of $250,000 to Oregon, and also in favor of increasing salaries of rural mail carriers from $600 to $800 per year.

THE Williamsburg bridge, the second to be built across East river, New York, and which connects the boroughs of Manhattan and Brooklyn, is now to be traveled. This structure, construction on which was begun Oct. 28, 1902, is about a mile above the Brooklyn bridge, which greatly resembles in type and appearance, though its much larger.

ACCORDING to appearances the great lumbering of the Pacific Coast is practically a thing of the past. The concern that has made over $1,000,000 for its members of late was disrupted when the California members stated finally that they would not sign a new agreement.

JAMES D. RICHARDSON of Tennessee who was the Democratic leader of the House in the 56th and 57th Congresses, believes the year 1904 bright with hope for the Democratic party. In an interview at Washington he declared that with the financial question out of the way, and his party united as in years gone by on great doctrines, he can see no reason why the Democratic party should not sweep the country.

THERE is every prospect that the wages of hundreds of thousands of workmen will be cut more or less during the year 1904. Leading officials of the United States Steel Corporation say that beginning January 1st about 90 per cent of the employees of the corporation will suffer wage reductions ranging from 5 to 20 per cent.

CONGRESSMEN, as well as members of legislatures, find the mileage grant very profitable. It seems that they allowed themselves traveling expenses for both the extra and regular sessions of Congress, whereas only one trip was made to Washington for both of them.

Good for Children. The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and La Grippe, because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble.

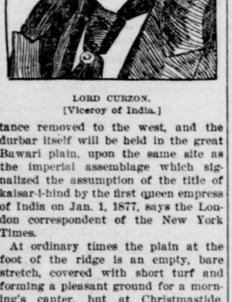

INDIA'S ROYAL PAGEANT

Plans for the Magnificent Delhi Coronation Durbar.

NOBLE CHIEFS WILL ALL ATTEND

Honour for King Edward to be tendered to His Majesty's Imperial Coronation Ceremony will be held near the scene of many deeds of British Valor.

The ground upon which the coronation durbar at Delhi, India, will take place is not only specially connected with the roll of honor of the British empire, for the famous ridge bounds it on the east, but is also specially associated with the assumption of imperial authority, as the Shahjahan gardens, which witnessed the coronation of the only great mogul emperor subsequent to the founder of the present city of Shahjahanabad—viz. Aurangzeb, the ornament to the throne—by a short distance.

ANCE removed to the west, and the durbar itself will be held in the great Bawari plain, upon the same site as the imperial assemblage which signified the assumption of the title of kaiser-i-hind by the first queen empress of India on Jan. 1, 1877, says the London correspondent of the New York Times.

At ordinary times the plain at the foot of the ridge is an empty, bare stretch, covered with short turf and forming a pleasant ground for a morning's canter, but at Christmas-tide, 1902, it will be covered with the snow camps of the viceroy of India and his principal lieutenants and adjutants and will be resplendent with the bright eastern surroundings by which such camps are always framed.

The viceroy will be in the center of all, flanked on the south by the camps of the governor of Bombay and of the commander in chief of India and the generals of the four commands, and on the north by those of the governor of Madras and the lieutenant governors, chief commissioners and agents to the governor general throughout India.

At the back of the central camp is being constructed a permanent residence for the viceroy's occupation. This will hereafter fill a much needed want at Delhi—viz. a guest-house for distinguished guests and visitors. The press camp will be on the left of the state camp and one visitors' camp on the right, while another will be outside the Kashmir gate of the city. All the camps and the durbar plain will be connected by the light railway which is being constructed for the convenience of visitors, and all will be illuminated by electric light.

Proceeding along the Grand Trunk road and beyond the central camp the plan is seen to the north, more low lying and more bare than the stretches of the old cantonment. This is the Bawari plain, and in the middle of it about two miles from the state camp, which will be the center of everything, and some four miles from the Kashmir gate, are the Imperial amphitheater and dais where the coronation durbar will be held.

At the Imperial amphitheater it will be the scene of a gorgeous ceremony, in which no element of oriental pomp will be lacking. The viceroy himself, the great chiefs in peace and war subordinated to him alone, the noble Indian feudatories of the crown, troops and guns, horses and elephants, splendid regiments and brightly clad, joyous crowds, all will be there and will make a picture of display and splendor such as has never been seen even in India.

Plunged Through Fire

Heroic Conduct of A Young Texas Girl

Glorious O'Shane of Marble Falls, Tex., recently distinguished herself by her heroic conduct in rescuing an aged and helpless woman from death in a forest fire.

The frightened people were flying through the fields with the rapidly approaching fire close upon them, when one happened to think of Mrs. Riners, an aged invalid, who was known to be in one of the cabins. O'Shane knew that the old woman was alone in her cabin, between Perry having gone into town with other timbermen early in the day.

He did not know of her existence, but she felt quite sure that she should recognize him if ever they met in the street, whose noisy, busy life swept on far below their feet. She could always single him out among the mechanics working there in midday. No other workman trod the iron beams with such a sauntering, or squared his shoulders just as he did to the day's work. He did everything with an air of absolute confidence which thrilled and mastered her.

He was too far away for her to scrutinize in the favor of the fire, but she felt he had honest, clear blue eyes and brown curly hair, and his eyes could twinkle merrily. She knew by the joyful way in which he signaled his presence as he passed that he was a man of good nature and good heart. Not that she had much time to study his mannerisms, for Ellen Mulvihill was a designer in the factory of Johnson & Co., makers of ladies' shirt waists and neckwear, and a very busy woman.

When she looked into his eyes she started, and the color came and went prettily in her cheeks. Dennis Gallagher smiled. He had seen girls look like this before. But Ellen was utterly in love in spite of her twenty-five birthdays. He did not speak, and finally she said to him breathlessly: "I thought you would be blue, and they are brown—no, hazel."

So of course it came out. She didn't mean he should know all, and he didn't know all—just enough to make him smile through two dimples and set John Mulvihill's heart swelling with pride. A month later Ellen dropped into the quiet, shadowy church on her way to work. She was wearing a new "all halles" suit, which she had bought at the church. She was quite empty, so with clasped hands and eyes full of happy tears she looked into the benign face of the Woman of Many Sorrows and murmured: "Blessed Mother, do I deserve so much happiness? Is it all good enough for me? He is comin' every Wednesday 'n' Sunday night to see me, 'n' by an' by it will be every night. He said so. Every day 'n' every night we will be together so long as we live. You who have suffered much, teach me to be strong 'n' brave for him."

And all that day a man working far above the din of the mighty city looked across two dimples and set John Mulvihill's heart swelling with pride. A month later Ellen dropped into the quiet, shadowy church on her way to work. She was wearing a new "all halles" suit, which she had bought at the church. She was quite empty, so with clasped hands and eyes full of happy tears she looked into the benign face of the Woman of Many Sorrows and murmured: "Blessed Mother, do I deserve so much happiness? Is it all good enough for me? He is comin' every Wednesday 'n' Sunday night to see me, 'n' by an' by it will be every night. He said so. Every day 'n' every night we will be together so long as we live. You who have suffered much, teach me to be strong 'n' brave for him."

At last John Mulvihill pushed back his eye-tear and lighted his pipe. "Ellen, the Shamrock association are after givin' their annual ball a week this Tuesday night, and I'm afraid I'm missin' it. You'd best be goin' along."

Ellen raised startled eyes to her brother's face. "I'm no dancer, as you well know, John, 'n' crowds like that give me the blues. I'd rather stop at home with Trixie."

John Mulvihill's face darkened. "You're always stoppin' at home with the child, an' it's time you went out at night with the boys 'n' had steady company. You're the first Mulvihill girl that ever passed twenty-five without havin' her offers to marry. You'll never marry if you stay cooped up here night after night 'n' not even visitin' our friends on Sunday afternoon."

There is a way of getting that costs a heap of money. Neglect Lumbago and Sciatica and it may put you on crutches, with loss of time and money. St. Jacobs Oil will cure surely, promptly. Price, 25c. and 50c.

A MIDAIR ROMANCE

She would not wear those nasty high-heeled shoes, which were designed for other women, but dresses turned in at the neck and edged with soft lace, and he would tell her that she had the throat of a lily. Young husbands in novels always said that.

At night John led her the length of the hall with pride stamped on his face and his walk. Men were introduced to her and asked her to dance, but she became possessed of a strange terror and slipped back among the wallflowers. Mrs. Mulvihill watched her with rising anger. What was the use of worrying over a real satin dress for a stupid girl like Ellen?

She heard her brother say it was Dennis Gallagher, president of the Shamrock association. That was quite real to her. Of course he would be the president. Then John drifted away and Gallagher sat beside her. It was quite awful before she glanced up into his face. She was trying to realize the beautiful truth—that they were no longer parted in midair, but in the confusion one fact stood forth clearly. The man was just one man in the world who could stand like that, one man who had such a pair of shoulders, and he was the man who wrought every day in the skeleton of the skyscraper.

When she looked into his eyes she started, and the color came and went prettily in her cheeks. Dennis Gallagher smiled. He had seen girls look like this before. But Ellen was utterly in love in spite of her twenty-five birthdays. He did not speak, and finally she said to him breathlessly: "I thought you would be blue, and they are brown—no, hazel."

So of course it came out. She didn't mean he should know all, and he didn't know all—just enough to make him smile through two dimples and set John Mulvihill's heart swelling with pride. A month later Ellen dropped into the quiet, shadowy church on her way to work. She was wearing a new "all halles" suit, which she had bought at the church. She was quite empty, so with clasped hands and eyes full of happy tears she looked into the benign face of the Woman of Many Sorrows and murmured: "Blessed Mother, do I deserve so much happiness? Is it all good enough for me? He is comin' every Wednesday 'n' Sunday night to see me, 'n' by an' by it will be every night. He said so. Every day 'n' every night we will be together so long as we live. You who have suffered much, teach me to be strong 'n' brave for him."

And all that day a man working far above the din of the mighty city looked across two dimples and set John Mulvihill's heart swelling with pride. A month later Ellen dropped into the quiet, shadowy church on her way to work. She was wearing a new "all halles" suit, which she had bought at the church. She was quite empty, so with clasped hands and eyes full of happy tears she looked into the benign face of the Woman of Many Sorrows and murmured: "Blessed Mother, do I deserve so much happiness? Is it all good enough for me? He is comin' every Wednesday 'n' Sunday night to see me, 'n' by an' by it will be every night. He said so. Every day 'n' every night we will be together so long as we live. You who have suffered much, teach me to be strong 'n' brave for him."

At last John Mulvihill pushed back his eye-tear and lighted his pipe. "Ellen, the Shamrock association are after givin' their annual ball a week this Tuesday night, and I'm afraid I'm missin' it. You'd best be goin' along."

Ellen raised startled eyes to her brother's face. "I'm no dancer, as you well know, John, 'n' crowds like that give me the blues. I'd rather stop at home with Trixie."

WHEN MOTHER CANS.

I traveled to the village, Nell, and saw your mother, dear. Her arms were stained with jam and jelly, her sleeves rolled up to her. The cook-stove roared like it was mad, the room was full of heat.

At night John led her the length of the hall with pride stamped on his face and his walk. Men were introduced to her and asked her to dance, but she became possessed of a strange terror and slipped back among the wallflowers. Mrs. Mulvihill watched her with rising anger. What was the use of worrying over a real satin dress for a stupid girl like Ellen?

She heard her brother say it was Dennis Gallagher, president of the Shamrock association. That was quite real to her. Of course he would be the president. Then John drifted away and Gallagher sat beside her. It was quite awful before she glanced up into his face. She was trying to realize the beautiful truth—that they were no longer parted in midair, but in the confusion one fact stood forth clearly. The man was just one man in the world who could stand like that, one man who had such a pair of shoulders, and he was the man who wrought every day in the skeleton of the skyscraper.

When she looked into his eyes she started, and the color came and went prettily in her cheeks. Dennis Gallagher smiled. He had seen girls look like this before. But Ellen was utterly in love in spite of her twenty-five birthdays. He did not speak, and finally she said to him breathlessly: "I thought you would be blue, and they are brown—no, hazel."

So of course it came out. She didn't mean he should know all, and he didn't know all—just enough to make him smile through two dimples and set John Mulvihill's heart swelling with pride. A month later Ellen dropped into the quiet, shadowy church on her way to work. She was wearing a new "all halles" suit, which she had bought at the church. She was quite empty, so with clasped hands and eyes full of happy tears she looked into the benign face of the Woman of Many Sorrows and murmured: "Blessed Mother, do I deserve so much happiness? Is it all good enough for me? He is comin' every Wednesday 'n' Sunday night to see me, 'n' by an' by it will be every night. He said so. Every day 'n' every night we will be together so long as we live. You who have suffered much, teach me to be strong 'n' brave for him."

And all that day a man working far above the din of the mighty city looked across two dimples and set John Mulvihill's heart swelling with pride. A month later Ellen dropped into the quiet, shadowy church on her way to work. She was wearing a new "all halles" suit, which she had bought at the church. She was quite empty, so with clasped hands and eyes full of happy tears she looked into the benign face of the Woman of Many Sorrows and murmured: "Blessed Mother, do I deserve so much happiness? Is it all good enough for me? He is comin' every Wednesday 'n' Sunday night to see me, 'n' by an' by it will be every night. He said so. Every day 'n' every night we will be together so long as we live. You who have suffered much, teach me to be strong 'n' brave for him."

At last John Mulvihill pushed back his eye-tear and lighted his pipe. "Ellen, the Shamrock association are after givin' their annual ball a week this Tuesday night, and I'm afraid I'm missin' it. You'd best be goin' along."

Ellen raised startled eyes to her brother's face. "I'm no dancer, as you well know, John, 'n' crowds like that give me the blues. I'd rather stop at home with Trixie."

John Mulvihill's face darkened. "You're always stoppin' at home with the child, an' it's time you went out at night with the boys 'n' had steady company. You're the first Mulvihill girl that ever passed twenty-five without havin' her offers to marry. You'll never marry if you stay cooped up here night after night 'n' not even visitin' our friends on Sunday afternoon."

Ellen raised startled eyes to her brother's face. "I'm no dancer, as you well know, John, 'n' crowds like that give me the blues. I'd rather stop at home with Trixie."

Hair Falls. "I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor to stop my hair from falling. One-half a bottle cured me." J. C. Baxter, Braidwood, Ill. Ayer's Hair Vigor is certainly the most economical preparation of its kind on the market. A little of it goes a long way. It doesn't take much of it to stop falling of the hair, make the hair grow, and restore color to gray hair.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS. R. G. GALE, M. D. Office in Orth's Building. Hours—2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m. Jacksonville, Oregon.

A. E. REAMES, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Jacksonville, Oregon. Office in Red Men's Building.

ROBT. G. SMITH, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW. Grant's Pass, Oregon. Practices all the courts. Office in Hans building up stairs.

J. M. KEENE, D. D. S. PERIAPIC DENTISTRY A SPECIALTY. Offices in the Adkins Deuel block Medford, Oregon.

P. P. PRIM & SON, ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW. Jacksonville, Oregon. Will practice in all courts of the State. Office in the Court House last door on the right from entrance.

A. C. HOUGH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Grant's Pass, Oregon. Office over Hair-Eddie Hardware Store.

H. D. NORTON, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW. Grant's Pass, Oregon. Office above S. P. D. & L. Co.'s Store.

Silas J. Day, Notary Public, Real Estate Agent and U. S. Commissioner for Jackson County. Abstracts made to Titles of Lands. LEGAL DOCUMENTS, all kind drawn up especially pertaining to the settlement of estates. Accounts Solicited, Prompt Remittance. MONEY LOANED.

THE PIONEER LIMITED. The excellence of equipment is in a class by itself. From Minneapolis and St. Paul to Chicago it is The Train of Trains. It runs via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. R.

DEVERS' GOLDEN WEST SPICES. It's the best to be found from coast to coast. "The Train for Comfort" every night in the year between Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago.

H. L. SISLER, General Agent, 248 Alcega St., Portland, Ore.

T. W. TEASDALE, G.P. Press, Art. St. Paul, Minn.

Greatest Strength Finest Flavor and Absolute Purity Guaranteed. ROBERT DEVERS, PORTLAND, ORE.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller one of his trips East to buy goods said to a friend who was with him in the palace car there, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning, feeling good.

Down in Texas at Yoakum, is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Hall