GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN, one of the most widely known of public men, died at New York Jan. 18th, aged 76 years. Only his eccentricity prevented him from taking rank among the very foremost, for he was an able and brilliant man. His lectures and writings attracted much attention, and he was always on the side of the oppressed and deserving. In the Chicago market Armour and wheat longs are pulling strings, assisted by the war scare in the Orient, and the nervous shorts are dancing. So far their gyrations have shaken profits averaging $300,000 a day for the Armour contingent, to say nothing of the other heavy holders. Every day that the war cloud hangs in the far East means fresh disaster for the shorts and immense profits for the wise ones who loaded up when the cereal was going begging at 82 cents or thereabouts.

In the northern parts of Luzon immense cigars, often a couple of feet long and as thick as the wrist, are used. Such a cigar is suspended from a rafter of the house by a string, and smoked during the day by all the members of the family as desir-
