

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth, of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapse of the falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me, I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost forces and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily, and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through its use.—Mrs. FLORENCE DANFORTH, 1007 Miles Ave., St. Joseph, Mich.—If $5.00 profit is made, please forward your name to the publisher.

If the integrity of China's territory had been respected, the war in the Far East would not have occurred.

A striking example of mosebackism is illustrated in the following truthful paragraph. A well-known rancher recently killed ten hogs varying in weight from fifty-seven to sixty-nine pounds. No wonder fresh pork and bacon are cheap in Oregon.

Do women live longer than men? During the past year no fewer than fifty-six persons have died who were centenarians. In several cases they have been considerably over a hundred years of age, and it is remarkable that of these persons thirty-six were women. Men and women alike belonged to all stations of life, but it is noticeable that by far the greater proportion of the women were married.

After two days and nights of animated debate, at St. Louis, by national committees representing the Fusion and the Middle-of-the-Road wings of the Populist party, the two factions agreed to hold a joint convention the People's Party National Convention in Springfield, Ill., on July 4. Leaders assert that on party differences are now things of the past, and that the national convention would nominate a straight Populist ticket.

At the Crystal Palace, in London, may be seen the thrilling spectacle of a woman cyclist flying through space. The hero of this sensational feat is Milo. Datrieu. The cycle track on which she rides runs from a height of seventy feet down a long inclined plane. A short upward curve is then taken at lightning speed, after which the daring performer leaps into midair, rejoining the track forty-two feet from the "take off." The whole feat occupies only five seconds, but it is sufficiently exciting while it lasts.

Hervey Lindley is employing all the men he can get to work on the Klamath River R. R. The washouts and slides on the line are not serious, but they interfere with traffic. It seems that notwithstanding the newness of the road and the difficulties of some of the country it traverses, the heavy storms did less damage, relatively, to this line than was suffered by the Southern Pacific line in the same region, says the Ashland Tribune.

About Port Arthur.

Port Arthur, the scene of the opening skirmish of the war between Japan and Russia, is an oriental Gibraltar, situated on a peninsula that extends southward into the Gulf of Pecheili. It first attracted the attention of the world during the Chinese-Japanese war of 1894.

At that time, even though it was defended by the Chinese, it was deemed impregnable; but the Japanese knew their enemy, and by marching upon the town from two sides, storming the passes of the rocks one by one, carrying the hills that commanded the forts by driving ruses and dragging a hundred pieces of heavy cannon to the hills, they bombarded the city from land and sea. After a few hours of a storm of shot and shell the discouraged Chinese abandoned the fortifications. They ensued a massacre of inoffensive Chinese, provoked, it was claimed, by the torture of Japanese prisoners captured in skirmishes prior to the siege of the town.

Democratic Convention.

The Democratic State Central Committee met in Portland Feb. 23 and appointed Tuesday, April 19th, at 10 o'clock a. m., as the time, and Portland as the place for the next state convention. The Journal says there was a good attendance, and a number of prominent Democrats not members of the committee were present.

The committee decided that the apportionment should be in the ratio of one delegate for each 175 votes cast for Gov. Chamberlain, with one delegate at large from each county. The representation of the several counties will therefore be as follows: Baker, 13; Benton, 9; Clackamas, 11; Clatsop, 7; Columbia, 4; Coos, 6; Crook, 4; Curry, 2; Douglas, 12; Gilliam, 3; Grant, 6; Harney, 3; Jackson, 10; Josephine, 6; Klamath, 3; Lake, 3; Lane, 13; Lincoln, 3; Linn, 13; Malheur, 4; Marion, 17; Morrow, 3; Multnomah, 48; Polk, 7; Sherman, 3; Tillamook, 3; Umatilla, 13; Union, 11; Wallowa, 6; Wasco, 3; Washington, 9; Wheeler, 3; Yamhill, 8.

The convention will consist of 272 delegates. Under this apportionment Multnomah county will have 48 delegates, whereas in the conventions of 1900 and 1902 she had only 35 and 41.

The state central committee will meet on Monday, April 18, to recommend to the convention temporary officers and to pass on the claims of contesting delegations.

As to the proposition brought from California that the Pacific Coast delegates act as a unit at the National Presidential Convention, there was some distrust that the scheme was intended to be used in the interest of Hearst's candidacy, but the majority is reported to have coincided with Gov. Chamberlain, who is reported as having said: "While it is too early to decide the matter definitely, the idea seems to me a good one. I believe that the Pacific Coast states should act together, and indeed I would go further and advocate concerted action by all the Southern and Western states. Unification is the only method of accomplishing results. It is too early, however, to pledge our delegation to any course."

Anti-toxin Saves Many.

Proof that anti-toxin saves hundreds of lives each year in Chicago is offered by the health department in its weekly bulletin. The use of anti-toxin in the treatment of diphtheria was begun by the city nine years ago, and since that time the mortality has been 6088, while during the nine years before 11,488 persons died. The decrease has been 5400, or 47 per cent, while the population increased nearly 600,000, or 52 per cent. Considering population, the decrease in deaths is given as 63 per cent.

The recent action of manufacturers increasing the price of the serum to $1.33 for 1000 units led the department to ascertain the cost of manufacture, which, it declares, is less than 20 cents.

A Big Loan.

A mortgage has been executed by the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company to the United States Government, to cover the loan of $1,000,000 authorized by Congress to be made to the company. Secretary Shaw now has the mortgage in his possession. One million dollars will be paid over to the company in a few days, $2,000,000 will be paid in March, $1,000,000 in April and $600,000 in May. The loan covers the state receipts of the fair and repayment of the amount loaned will be made in June. The mortgage provides that in event of the failure of the Exposition Company to pay promptly the amount loaned the government shall take charge of the fair and run it.

LEWIS AND CLARK CENTENNIAL EXHIBIT.

An official invitation is extended to the County of Jackson to make a special exhibit, either in its own behalf or in connection with some other body, municipal or otherwise, at the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition to be held in Portland in 1905. It is the purpose of the Exposition to encourage comprehensive exhibits by counties and by chambers of commerce, boards of trade and other commercial organizations. For exhibits of this character, illustrating the resources, industries and progress of communities, the following regulations have been provided:

First. The preparing and installing of exhibits by counties or organizations will be left to the counties or organizations in whose name or under whose authority the exhibits are made. Counties or organizations may erect separate buildings, or may install their exhibits in the building of the State in which the county or organization is located. Space will be provided on the Exposition grounds for all buildings erected by counties and organizations and no charge will be made therefor. Plans and specifications for such buildings shall be submitted to the Director-general for his approval.

Second. All collective exhibits made by counties and trade organizations will be permitted to participate in the general competition; that is, be both collective and competitive. I desire to enlist your co-operation and support in this movement, and respectfully urge early consideration of this invitation, so that, if favorable action be taken, we may allot the necessary space and give you ample time to proceed with preparations for your exhibit. Whatever may be the decision upon our invitation, I am confident that we can shape our plans so as to harmonize all efforts to the end that your exhibit may be highly creditable, not only to your progressive community and State but to the Exposition as well.

We feel confident that the arrangements we propose will offer to counties an exceptional opportunity of demonstrating their progress in the Lewis and Clark Exposition of 1905, and that the result of exhibits made in this way will be beneficial to all.

Very respectfully,
HENRY E. REED,
Director of Exposition.

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriate to the nerves, blood and tissues, before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only food that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by all Druggists.

President and Sultan.

The Sultan of Morocco has sent President Roosevelt six Arabian stallions. They arrived last week, in splendid condition, from the royal stables at Fez, accompanied by four men and two boys. One of the horses has been ridden by the Sultan himself. All of them are said to be very beautiful creatures. Saddles and bridles also, richly inlaid with gold and silver, are on the way to Washington for use with the Arabian horses. It is said that this gift to Mr. Roosevelt by the Sultan one horse, he has presented to the Sultan one horse, one male, five dogs and two goats. This presumably means that no gift has been received by the President; simply an exchange has been made.

Further it is said that, by reason of the horses' pedigrees, which extend back hundreds of years, they will not pay the duty of 20 per cent valorem, with the additional specific duty for all imported horses worth $150. The tier-ry of the law is that they are sent here to improve the breed of native horses.

For Good Reasons.

That the Rio Grande is the most popular one between the Pacific Coast and the East is evidenced by the fact that the greater per cent of trans-continental travelers use it.

FIRST, the scenic attractions in view from trains are unequalled in the world.

SECOND, the daily personally conducted tourist car excursions being especially adapted for ladies traveling alone or with children, affords a comfortable mode of travel at rates within reach of all.

THIRD, it is the only route over the East and West coast directly through Salt Lake City or across Zion.

FOURTH, the choice of two distinct routes through the heart of the Rocky Mountains.

FIFTH, free fast through trains daily between Ogden and Denver equipped with every modern convenience.

There are many other reasons why this route is the most comfortable and enjoyable in the whole country. You can learn a great deal on the subject of through travel, and receive some very beautiful and interesting booklets, by calling on or writing to the undersigned. W. C. McBride, General Agent of M. A Stately Opinion.

"Isn't that young Mr. Clerk a clever talker, Laura?"

"Do you think so, dear? I couldn't help overhearing a part of what he said last night, and it struck me as being idiotic."

"If you overheard what he was saying last night then you know that he was praiseworthy."

"Well, yes, dear, I gathered as much."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Given Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbina is a boon for sufferers from anemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color and vitality are restored. The languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity result. Mrs. Belle H. Shirel, Mid-dlebury, Vt., writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbina. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime."—Sole Sold by Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point, Ore.

The Scheme Was Successful

He had wooed her long and continuously, but hadn't spoken the momentous words.

"Again he called, and again they were seated on the same porch. They idly talked of commonplaces in the same old way. And while they chatted a popcorn vendor came up the street with his illuminated cart and pushed before the houses. They chatted on and the popcorn man still lingered. His popper was swaying above the flame, and the sound of the bursting kernels was pleasant to hear. The moments passed, and the was still there.

"The popcorn man seems to have come to stay," the youth remarked to the maiden.

"Yes," she shortly answered.

He looked down at the vendor and then he looked up at the maiden. He breathed hard.

"There seems to be an almost proverbial significance in his presence," he half stammered on. But the face of the maiden was averted.

The youth gazed slightly. Then he popped.

And when the maiden had said yes and everything was settled she waved her hand as if to shoo away a mosquito, and the vendor moved on.

But the youth never dreamed that it was all a prearranged scheme to urge him to a declaration by the happy association of ideas.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Wise Father. Every one knows of the college student who, when he was "hard up," scrounge a set of verses to which the governor replied in kind. The son pinner:

This was the reply:
The rose is red
The violet blue plink;
I'll send you fifty,
I don't think.

Another father was looking over his son's account when he discovered an item he did not quite understand.

"H'm," he said. "Thirty dollars for tennis; isn't that rather a large sum for such a game? How do you explain it?"

"Oh," replied the hopeful, carelessly waving his hand, "that was just for a couple of rackets."

"Why not call them bats?" asked the knowing father.—New York Times.

One Advantage.

"So you think it is an advantage to a boy to be reared in the country."

"To be sure," answered Farmer Corn-tassel. "A boy has a heap better chance in the country. For instance, when a boy is surrounded by orchards and melon patches he can have a stomach ache without the doctor jumpin' to the conclusion that he's got 'pendicitis.'"

Colds Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, degenerated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me and I have not had a cough since."
