Consultation Guarts. - The extensive practice which Dr. J. C. Young has acquired in California is to be attributed in a great measure not only to his skill and experience, but to his liberality. Persons afflicted with any disease cognizant in his branch of pharany disease cognizant in his branch of pharmacy, may consult him, at his office, any day, free of charge. When addressed by letter, where a written answer is required, the usual fee ($10) will be exacted. Office hours, from 10 o'clock A. M., to S. P. M. Invalids placing themselves under the charge of Dr. Young can rely upon a speedy and permanent cure. The Doctor's uniform practice has been to take no pay unless a cure is effected. "No cure, no pay," is his motto. Letters and certificates innumerable, from those who have been cured of lone standing those who have been cured of long standing and chronic diseases under his treatment, are always open to the inspection of the public at his rooms. His medical ability is ably and thoroughly demonstrated in his numerous medical works, copies of which can be had at his office. Having been voted an honorary member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, the highest chirurgical body in existence, he feels confident that his body in existence, he reers connect that his services cannot fail to be appreciated in a discerning community. PHYSO-MEDICAL INFIRMARY. A. B. OVERBECK, M. D.

TAKE THIS METHOD OF IN-I forming the Public that I have fitted up, at my residence at Pleasant Grove, miles east of Jacksonville, a suitable building for the reception and treatment of persons afflicted with any form of disease. Patients will be boarded and treated at this Infirmary at prices varying with their conditions and wants. Those who can-not remain in the Infirmary will be exam-ined and provided with medicines and directions peculiar to this system—a mode of treatment by which thousands have been cured and and restored to health—a:

very moderate charges.

I have ample arrangements for the administration of the various kinds of Baths medicated, vapor, warm, sold, &c.

The distinguishing feature of the Physepathte Practice consists in the administration of an innocent medication. All agents, whether mineral or vegetable, that are known to act as poisons, are rejected from my practice. The Ppyso-pathic prac-tice signifies the treatment of disease with agents that act in harmony with the recuporative powers of nature.

N. B.—No person will be received at the Infirmery who cannot furnish good guarantee of payment.

BATHS!

The public generally will be accommodated at any time with any of the above specified Baths. The Bathing-room and tubs are lined with zink, and will be entirely free from taint. A. B OVERBECK, M. D. Pleasant Grove, Sept. 19, 1857. 36tf
