

Oregon Sentinel.

Harper's Drawer.

Below we publish some good things from Harper for March:

The Rev. Mr. Peters, of Tennessee, was preaching, and having a large gift of continuance, was somewhat protracted in his discourse. Several of his hearers left in the midst of the sermon. One young man was on his way to the door, when Mr. Peters pointed his long finger at him, and said, "Brethren, that young man has just as good a right to go out as any one." It is needless to say that he was the last deserter.

At another time, while Mr. Peters was preaching, a young man started to leave the house, and making some noise as he went, Mr. Peters paused, and said, "I will finish my discourse when that young man gets out."

The fellow very coolly took his seat, and said, "Then it will be some time before you get through!"

The preacher, however, was up to him; and remarking, "A bad promise is better broken than kept," went on with his sermon.

Judge Dooly, of Georgia, was a man of undoubted bravery as well as wag-gery. Once he had the misfortune to offend Judge White, who wore a cork leg, and who challenged Judge Dooly to mortal combat. The two Judges met on the field at the appointed hour, but Dooly was alone. White sent to ask where his second was? To this Judge Dooly replied, "He has gone to the woods for a bit of a hollow tree to put one of my legs in, that we may be even." The answer was too much for his opponent; he turned on the only heel he had and left the field.

Another Judge Dooly was presiding at Court in Washington county, when Gen. Hanson, a great blower, seated himself by the side of the Judge and commenced giving him an account of his various pieces of property, to impress the Judge with an idea of his great wealth. "Stop a moment," said the Judge. "Mr. Sheriff, call in John Jones, the Receiver of Tax Returns."

Jones made his appearance. "Mr. Receiver," continued the Judge, "come up here and make an inventory of Gen. Hanson's property. He has mistaken me for you." The General reserved the remainder of his statement.

This is first-rate. Col. John Zenor was a very popular man in Harrison County, Indiana. He had been frequently elected to the Legislature by annually increasing majorities, and the conviction had become general that he was altogether invincible. At length Harmon H. Moore, Esq., a distinguished lawyer of the county, became the opposing candidate, and in his address to the people he showed, from the journals, that Col. Zenor always voted last. "Now, fellow-citizens," said he, "are you willing to be represented by a man who is never allowed to vote until every other member has voted? Will you submit to have your county thus insulted in the person of its representative?" The appeal was irresistible. The man whose name began with Z, and was of course called last, lost his election by a tremendous vote.

Gen. Falsdale was an officer in the Florida War, celebrated for his rigid adhesion to military discipline, and the scathing lectures he gave the soldiers caught neglecting their duty. Among those who had received severe tongue-lashings from the General was Tom Hicks, a wild, rattle-brained fellow, popular in the camp, and up to all manner of practical jokes. Proud withal, he was so unfortunate as to be found asleep while on his post as guard. He now had to take a withering reproof, and in his bitterness he took a big oath to be revenged on the General, if ever an opportunity offered.

One cold night, when the rain was pouring in torrents, Tom was on duty; but he had hardly settled his head in the collar of his coat for a nap or to shield his face from the storm, before he heard some one coming along splashing through the mud. Looking around and peering into the thick of the night, he soon discovered that it was the General himself. Now was the time! Leveling his musket at the advancing figure, he demanded, "Who goes there?"

"Your officer," replied the General, with great decision and dignity. "Advance and give the countersign!" roared Tom.

But the General just then remembered that he had neglected to get it before he set out on this exploring expedition, and so stated to the tenacious sentinel, who declined to receive any explanation.

"Mark time!" demanded Tom, as he clicked his musket and stepped forward, ready to fire into the heart of the trembling General in another instant, who now thought he would try the power of coaxing.

"Why, Hicks, you know it's nobody but me!"

"Can't help that—must obey orders; strict military discipline. Mark time, or I'll shoot you in a second!"

The General saw that he was fairly caught, and for two mortal long hours Hicks kept him standing there "marking time," up to his knees in mud and water, the rain pouring down in torrents. At last the relief guard came, and Tom was able to dismiss his prisoner. The General crept back to his quarters, drenched to the skin, tired to death, and heartily satisfied with camp duty. Tom was never subjected to any dressings-down after that.

I TAKE THIS METHOD OF INFORMING THE PUBLIC that I have fitted up, at my residence at Pleasant Grove, two miles east of Jacksonville, a suitable building for the reception and treatment of persons afflicted with any form of disease. Patients will be boarded and treated at this Infirmary at prices varying with their conditions and wants. Those who cannot remain in the Infirmary will be examined and provided with medicines and directions peculiar to this system—a mode of treatment by which thousands have been cured and are restored to health—at very moderate charges.

I have ample arrangements for the administration of the various kinds of Baths—medicated, vapor, warm, cold, &c. The distinguishing feature of the Physio-pathic Practice consists in the administration of an innocent medication. All agents, whether mineral or vegetable, that are known to act as poisons, are rejected from my practice. The Physio-pathic practice signifies the treatment of disease with agents that act in harmony with the recuperative powers of nature.

N. B.—No person will be received at the Infirmary who cannot furnish good guarantee of payment.

BATHS!

The public generally will be accommodated at any time with any of the above specified Baths. The Bathing-room and tubs are lined with zinc, and will be entirely free from rust.

Grand Medical and Surgical Institute.

Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

Established in 1854, for the Permanent Cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, and the Suppression of Quackery.

Attendant and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D.,

Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Surgeon to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, and the late lecturer on the Diseases of Women and Children.

Communications strictly confidential. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, free. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco, Cal.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. L. J.

Czapkay returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his office, for the cure of Chronic diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, digestive and genito-urinary organs, and all private diseases, viz: Syphilitic ulcers, gonorrhea, gleet, stricture, seminal weakness and all the horrid consequences of self-abuse, and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice of many years will continue to ensure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, and during the Hungarian war and campaigns, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He uses no mercury—charges moderate—treats his patients in a correct and honorable way—has references of unquestionable veracity from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him, by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment, and implicit secrecy.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS

guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases, such as: Syphilitic, nervous debility, syphilis in all its stages, stricture, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidney and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as: Nervous tremor, loss of memory, loss of power, general debility, dimness of vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver disease, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even when the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice, in Europe, the Atlantic States, and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest diseases to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of an incompetent person, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption.

But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-Abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, saps the vitality, wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. Address: DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento st., below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S PRIVATE Medical and Surgical Institute is on Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco. The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. Office hours, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Dr. Young.

DR. J. C. YOUNG'S

PRIVATE MEDICAL ROOMS,

N. E. Corner California and Montgomery

streets, SAN FRANCISCO.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Read the following RECOMMENDATORY LETTERS and then judge between Dr. Young and those vipers that malign his motives. Avoid such men as you would a pestilence. All afflicted with Diseases of a Private Nature, should call on Dr. J. C. Young, and they would then avoid imputation and assist the Doctor in his herculean labor of suppressing quackery and empiricism. Dr. Young's charges are moderate and within the reach of the most humble.

IMPORTANT.—Dr. J. C. Young wishes to call the attention of invalids to his course of practice. The Dr. has long since abandoned the mercurial treatment, and has strictly followed the Vegetable Practice. Patients under treatment will find him not confined to the house, nor taken from their business, but can go about and act as usual. The Dr.'s mode of treatment of cases of debility, both general and sexual, is not surpassed by any physician, and always results in a perfect removal of their troubles. Dr. Y. has discovered a new mode of treating affections of the Liver, which after a fair trial has been submitted to the Professors of several of the medical institutions of the States, and pronounced by them, as perfectly successful, and has been adopted by them in their practice. In the treatment of incipient consumption, and diseases of the blood, the Dr. stands pre-eminent in his profession, and will warrant a cure in all cases. The following testimonial speaks for itself:

Dr. J. C. Young.—Sir: Your mode of treating affections of the Liver and diseases of the Blood, has proved by repeated trials, to be the best yet offered to the faculty, and has been adopted by the board. Continue to study the human system as you have done, and you will yet stand at the head of your profession.

W. R. HORNER,

Prof. of Anatomy, University, Penn.

HAVE CONFIDENCE.—Dr. Young

will guarantee a perfect and permanent cure in the following cases, or charge nothing for his services: Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Stricture of the Urethra, Affections of the Rostrate Gland, Weakness of the Genital Organs, Impotency, Sterility, both in male and female, Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Fever and Ague, Incipient Consumption, and all irregularities in Females, together with all diseases of Women and Children; also Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, &c.

Persons afflicted with symptoms after being treated, should consult Dr. Young at once, as no disease is cured unless the patient feels perfectly well. If there is a particle of disease left in the system, it will break out at some future time, when least expected, or be handed to an innocent offspring. Persons who have been treated with mercury should be very cautious in believing that they are well, for it is a scientific fact that the mercury will mingle with the venereal, and form disease of a most deal worse character than the original one. All those who have reason to think, by bad feelings, that they have been treated thus, should consult Dr. Young, and he should examine their cases and tell them at once how they stand.

VOLUNTARY CERTIFICATE.—TO

ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—This is to certify that J. B. F. Luning, applied to Dr. J. C. Young, to be treated for a general debility, brought on by hard work at mining in the water, and a pneumatic affection in my limbs, which almost deprived me of the use of my limbs, and which had troubled me for a long time—one of them for several years, and the other about eighteen months. Overcome by the pain and anxiety occasioned by them, I had given up all hopes of ever again enjoying good health. In this condition, I called upon Dr. J. C. Young, and after the lapse of five months, I am perfectly well and feel nearly as strong as I ever did. I can recommend every one affected to his care, for he cured me, and has cured several of my friends that I recommended to his care, afflicted with different diseases, some of them had cases, of a very bad and dangerous nature.

Given this my voluntary testimony in favor of Dr. J. C. Young, in hopes that it may induce all those afflicted, to call on him, and avoid the impostors who have robbed me, not only of money, but to a certain extent of my health.

B. F. LUNING.

GREEN HORN GULCH, Kern River,

September 2, 1856.

DEAR SIR: It is with pleasure that I

hasten to answer your letter, enquiring

how I get along. I have entirely recovered from the complaints for which your medical skill was required, and I assure you I feel grateful to you for the health I now enjoy. Snatched as I was from the very jaws of death, and saved from an un-timed amount of suffering. Were I in the city where I could do it, this would have the solemnity of an oath, but I am in a mining camp, there is no Justice of the Peace within several miles of me, and so you must publish without it. I do not like to name my disease, and I suppose it is not requisite, as you treat all kinds of disease.

Yours,

To Dr. J. C. Young.

G. LANGDON

Marysville, Sept. 27th, 1856.

DR. J. C. YOUNG.—Sir: In answer to your question, I would state that I am getting along. I would state that I am
