INDIAN OUTBREAK .- A correspondent of the Statesman, writing from Port Orford, March 15th, says-"I have but a moment to write to apprise you of the Indian outbreak in this neighborhood. The Cheteoes are up and in arms. About a hundred "bucks," all in fighting gear, have got together, and are raising the deuce. They have killed the Indian interpreter, Oliver Cantwell, and up to the present moment we are uncertain whether more lives have been lost or not, as some other men are missing, who may, however, have escaped.

CT L. Hensley, who has for some time been in California endeavoring to secure and bring back to Oregon the culprits Spanier and Edwards was unable to get them released from the secend writ of habeas corpus up to the time of the sailing of the Pacific. He writes that he strongly hopes to return with the prisoners on the Panama .-Standard, 25th ult.
