To the Public!

IN the year 1854, I bought a black Cow from Dennis McFeely, and in the Fall and Winter of 1854, I lost said Cow. James Hamlin was driving cattle from Butte Creek and drove a black Cow answering the description of the one I lost. I took possession of said Cow, believing her to be mine. This is to notify the public that I claim said Cow, and if any person claiming said Cow, not making better proof than I can, I will deliver her to such person, otherwise I will retain possession of said Cow and take her with me to California, leaving on the 3d of May, 1858.

AMOS T. JOHNSON,
April 24th, 1858.

CONSULTATION GRATIS.—The extensive practice which Dr. J. C. Young has acquired in California is to be attributed in a great measure not only to his skill and experience, but to his liberality. Persons afflicted with any disease cognizant in his branch of pharmacy, may consult him, at his office, any day, free of charge. When addressed by letter, where a written answer is required, the usual fee ($10) will be exacted. Office hours, from 10 o'clock a. m., to 8 p. m. Invalids placing themselves under the charge of Dr. Young can rely upon a speedy and permanent cure. The Doctor's uniform practice has been to take no pay unless a cure is effected. "No cure, no pay," is his motto. Letters and certificates innumerable, from those who have been cured of long standing and chronic diseases under his treatment, are always open to the inspection of the public at his rooms. His medical ability is able and thoroughly demonstrated in his numerous medical works, copies of which can be had at his office. Having been voted an honorary member of the Royal College of Surgeons in London, the highest surgical body in existence, he feels confident that his services cannot fail to be appreciated in a discerning community. PHYSIO-MEDICAL INFIRMARY.

A. B. OVERBECK, M. D.

I TAKE THIS METHOD of informing the Public that I have fitted up, at my residence at Pleasant Grove, two miles east of Jacksonville, a suitable building for the reception and treatment of persons afflicted with any form of disease. Patients will be boarded and treated at this Infirmary at prices varying with their conditions and wants. Those who cannot remain in the Infirmary will be examined and provided with medicines and directions peculiar to this system—a mode of treatment by which thousands have been cured and restored to health—at very moderate charges. I have ample arrangements for the administration of the various kinds of Baths—medicated, vapor, warm, cold, &c. The distinguishing feature of the Physio-pathic Practice consists in the administration of an innocuous medication. All agents, whether mineral or vegetable, that are known to act as poisons, are rejected from my practice. The Physio-pathic practice signifies the treatment of disease with agents that act in harmony with the recuperative powers of nature. N. B.—No person will be received at the Infirmary who cannot furnish good guarantee of payment.

BATHS!

The public generally will be accommodated at any time with any of the above specified Baths. The Bathing-room and tubs are lined with zinc, and will be entirely free from taint. A. B. OVERBECK, M. D.,
