

We learn that the Indians near Walla-Walla stole from W. R. Davis, a resident of that neighborhood, nine head of cattle. Lieut. Gaston, with a small company of horse, was sent in pursuit, and chased the red rascals as far as Snake river, without success.—Oregon Times, April 24th.

We are informed that the Williams Woollen Manufacturing Co. will be compelled to stop for awhile, owing to the scarcity of wool in the market.—Statesman.

CONVULSION GRATIS.—The extensive

practice which Dr. J. C. Young has acquired in California is to be attributed in a great measure not only to his skill and experience, but to his liberality. Persons afflicted with any disease cognizant in his branch of pharmacy, may consult him, at his office, any day, free of charge. When addressed by letter, where a written answer is required, the usual fee ($10) will be exacted. Office hours, from 10 o'clock a. m. to 6 p. m. Invalids placing themselves under the charge of Dr. Young can rely upon a speedy and permanent cure. The Doctor's uniform practice has been to take no pay unless a cure is effected. "No cure, no pay," is his motto. Letters and certificates innumerable, from those who have been cured of long standing and chronic diseases under his treatment, are always open to the inspection of the public at his rooms. His medical ability is able and thoroughly demonstrated in his numerous medical works, copies of which can be had at his office. Having been voted an honorary member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, the highest chiropractic body in existence, he feels confident that his services cannot fail to be appreciated in a discerning community. ### PHYSIO-MEDICAL INFIRMARY.

A. B. OVERBECK, M. D.
I TAKE THIS METHOD OF Informing the Public that I have fitted up, at my residence at Pleasant Grove, two miles east of Jacksonville, a suitable building for the reception and treatment of persons afflicted with any form of disease.
Patients will be boarded and treated at this Infirmary at prices varying with their conditions and wants. Those who cannot remain in the Infirmary will be examined and provided with medicines and directions peculiar to this system—a mode of treatment by which thousands have been cured and restored to health—at very moderate charges.

I have ample arrangements for the administration of the various kinds of Baths—medicated, vapor, warm, cold, &c.
The distinguishing feature of the Physio-pathectic Practice consists in the administration of an innocent medication. All agents, whether mineral or vegetable, that are known to act as poisons, are rejected from my practice. The Physio-pathectic practice unites the treatment of disease with agents that act in harmony with the recuperative powers of nature.

N. B.—No person will be received at the Infirmary who cannot furnish good guarantee of payment.

BATHS!

The public generally will be accommodated at any time with any of the above specified Baths. The Bathing-rooms and tubs are lined with zinc, and will be entirely free from taint.
