A Thrilling Scene.

Mr. Thos. Kingston, of Cincinnati, who for several years has followed the business of putting up lightning rods, which, of course, requires steady nerves and a firm brain, met with an accident recently, by which, but for the most singular presence of mind, or, rather, supernatural instinct, he would have fallen from a dizzy height, and been dashed to pieces. He is compelled to climb roofs, over chimneys, and up spires, and fix a rod with perfect coolness and precision, hundreds of feet above the level of the earth.

On the occasion of which we refer, says the Enquirer, Mr. K. had ascended St. Paul's Cathedral, whose spire is about 235 feet high, near the head of Broadway, and gone to the very top, where, having left his ladder below, he clung by his arms and legs, fastened the last foot of the rod, and attached the point—quite a heavy piece of metal—securely, as he supposed, to the cross surrounding the steeple. He had just completed this difficult and dangerous task, watched by a number of persons in the street below, and while looking at the work and experiencing that satisfaction which results from a hazard passed and labor accomplished, of a sudden something heavy struck him, and made his brain reel until he could hardly see. Instead of losing his hold at once, as would seem to have been the most natural and inevitable result, he clung with a power beyond himself, and a will superior to his own, closer and instinctively to the spire. He knew not what occurred, and to his confused senses it appeared that the steeple was tumbling, or that some strange cause was about to bring the vast structure to the ground.

Some forty seconds—an age to him—must have elapsed before he sufficiently collected his scattered thoughts and subverted consciousness to know that the entire upper part of the rod had fallen upon his head, causing the blood to trickle over his forehead, and nearly blind him. He was in a dreadful perplexity and most dangerous position. He feared, if he moved, he would go cleaving the air to a terrible death upon the stony street below, and at the same time he knew he could not, in the disordered state of his nerves, and his increasing weakness, retain his grasp, more the result of fate than of feeling, much longer. If he stirred, he might fall; if he remained, he certainly would; and so, determined to make at least an effort for his life, he put out one foot very cautiously, then his arms, and then moved the other foot; and after half a minute of exertion, and the greatest danger, he touched the top-most round of the ladder, and in a few seconds more was inside of the steeple, and safe.

Then it was that Mr. K.'s great courage and strength forsook him; his nerves and muscles relaxed; he grew sick unto death; his knees gave way; his vision swam, and he sank exhausted upon the platform motionless and insensible. He must have lain there half an hour before he could rise and walk, and he did not recover from the shock for more than an hour afterward.

The people gazing at him from the street describe the scene as painful and exciting in the extreme. When they observed the rod fall, a thrill of horror ran through their hearts, and two women swooned away, for they expected to behold him the next moment dashed at their feet. Destiny had ordered otherwise, and Mr. K. still pursued his dangerous avocation; but he says if he were to live a thousand years, he would never forget the intense horror of those century-like moments, when he seemed to hang upon the air more than two hundred feet above the earth, and to be momentarily descending to a dreadful death.

FARO.—Ned McGowan, who had been indicted by the Grand Jury for playing Faro, gave himself up, yesterday, at Justice Bidleman's Court. He then gave the necessary bond, $3,000, for his appearance for trial.—Sac. Mercury, 13th.

An Irishman wrote as follows to his friend, during the rebellion of '08:—"To give you some idea of the country, I shall only state that at this moment I am writing with a sword in one hand and a pistol in the other."

Great and rare heart offerings are found most exclusively among women; nearly all the happiness and most blessed moments in love are of their creating, and also is friendship, especially when it follows love.

A man that outlives his reputation soon becomes miserable.

Shaving a Note.

Old Skinfint was the most celebrated broker in Philadelphia, his "shaving" operations were famous, as he usually took not only beard and whiskers, but "one pound of flesh in addition." Young Harry Scarrow was one of those dashing chaps who love wine and horses, and who form a majority of the borrowers. Harry having many wants, on various occasions borrowed of Skinfint at three per cent. a month "off," and having at sundry periods made "raises," paid off his responsibilities. At last he got tired of such constant borrowing and repaying. It would be six years before his estate could be sold, under the terms of his father's will, who had prudently postponed that event until Harry should reach the age of "thirty," and Harry concluded it would be better to make a heavy operation at once, and be rid of the botheration of continual borrowing. Away to Skinfint's he hied, determined to procure a good round sum and so be done with it.

"I want ten thousand for six years." "Hem! what security will you give?" "Oh, you may have my bond—that will bind my property." "Hem! what discount will you give? You know my rule is always to take discount 'off,'—besides, you owe me one thousand, due to-day, and I lent you ten in the street the other day." "I won't pay what I have been paying; one and a quarter per cent. is enough. You take it 'out,' and take out what I owe you besides."

"Hem! well, here's a bond for ten thousand dollars at six years; sign it, and it'll be all right."

No sooner said than done. Harry affixed his autograph, and hummed a tune while Skinfint got his check book and made a calculation.

"Have you got ten dollars about you?" asked Skinfint in a moment; "if so, let me have it."

"All right, old boy," said Harry, supposing he wanted it to make change, "here it is."

"Hem! hem!" said Skinfint, locking up his desk and making preparation "to shoot."

"Stop, old fellow," said Harry.—"Your money! you've got it!"

"Got it? what do you mean?"

"Why, I was to take 'off' the discount, wasn't I, and the thousand?"

"Yes; I want my money!"

"Why, my dear fellow, you've got it. Ten thousand at one and a quarter per cent. for six years, is nine thousand—a thousand you owe me—and just paid me the ten—it's all right, my dear boy—a fair business transaction!"

These letters are deeply interesting, and of a pure, high-toned character.

Grand Medical and Surgical Institute.

Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

Established in 1854, for the Permanent Cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, and the Suppression of Quackery.

Attendant and Resident Physician,
L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D.,
Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Surgeon to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, and the late lecturer on the Diseases of Women and Children.

Communications strictly confidential. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, free. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco, Cal.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Dr. L. J. Czapkay returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to conduct his Institute for the cure of Chronic Diseases, viz: Syphilitic ulcers, gonorrhoea, gleet, strictures, seminal weakness and all the horrid consequences of self-abuse, and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice of many years will continue to ensure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, and during the Hungarian war and campaigns, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies for all the above mentioned diseases. He uses no mercury—charges moderate—treats his patients in a correct and honorable way—has references of unquestionable veracity from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him, by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment, and implicit secrecy.

SUFFER NOT WHEN A CURE IS GUARANTEED! All stages of secret diseases, such as, syphilitic debility, syphilis in all its stages, stricture, gleet, gravel, diabetes, diseases of the kidney, and bladder, mercurial rheumatism, scrofula, pains in the bones and ankles, diseases of the lungs, throat, nose and eyes, ulcers upon the body or limbs, dropsy, epileptic fits, St. Vitus' dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as nervous trembling, loss of memory, loss of power, general weakness, dimness of vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, loss of sight, wakefulness, dyspepsia, liver disease, eruptions upon the face, pain in the back and head, female irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or bismuth. During fifteen years of practice, in Europe, the Atlantic States, and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, and retaining all their means of cure, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption.

But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self Abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territories, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento st., below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Dr. Young.

DR. J. C. YOUNG'S

PRIVATE MEDICAL ROOMS,
N. E. Corner California and Montgomery streets, SAN FRANCISCO.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—Read the following RECOMMENDATORY LETTERS and then judge that malign his motives. Avoid such men as you would a pestilence, for YOUNG IS DEATH in their treatment. All afflicted with Diseases of a Private or any other nature should call upon Dr. J. C. Young, and they would then avoid imposition and assist the Doctor in his herculean labor of suppressing quackery and empyricism. Dr. Young's charges are moderate and within the reach of the most humble.

IMPORTANT.—Dr. J. C. Young wishes to call the attention of invalids to his course of practice. The Dr. has long since abandoned the mercurial treatment, and has strictly followed the Vegetable Practice. Patients under treatment with him are not confined to the house, nor taken from their business, but can go about and eat as usual. The Dr.'s mode of treatment of cases of debility, both general and sexual, is not surpassed by any physician, and always results in a perfect removal of their troubles. Dr. Y. has discovered a new mode of treating affections of the Liver, which after a fair trial has been submitted to the Professors of several of the medical institutions of the States, and pronounced by them, as perfectly successful, and has been adopted by them in their practice. In the treatment of incipient consumption, and disease of the blood, the Dr. stands pre-eminent in his profession, and will warrant a cure in all cases. The following testimonial speaks for itself:

DR. J. C. YOUNG.—Sir: Your mode of treating affections of the Liver and disease of the Blood, has proved by repeated trials, to be the best yet offered to the faculty, and has been adopted by the board. Continue to study the human system as you have done, and you will yet stand at the head of your profession.

W. R. HORNER,
Prof. of Anatomy, University, Penn.

HAVE CONFIDENCE.—Dr. YOUNG will guarantee a perfect and permanent cure in the following cases, or charge nothing for his services: Syphilis, Gonorrhoea, Stricture of the Urethra, Affection of the Prostate Gland, Weakness of the Genital Organs, Impotency, Sterility, both in male and female, Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Fever and Ague, Incipient Consumption, and all irregularities in Females, together with all diseases of Women and Children, also Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, &c. Persons afflicted with symptoms after being treated, should consult Dr. Young at once, as no disease is cured unless the patient feels perfectly well. If there is a particle of disease left in the system, it will break out at some future time, when least expected, or be handed to an innocent offspring. Persons who have been treated with mercury should be very cautious in believing that they are well, for it is a scientific fact that the mercury will mingle with the venereal, and form disease a great deal worse than the original. All those who have reason to think, by bad feelings, that they have been treated thus, should consult Dr. Young, and he should examine their cases and tell them at once how they stand.

VOLUNTARY CERTIFICATE.—TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—This is to certify that I, B. F. LUNING, applied to Dr. J. C. Young, to be treated for a general debility, brought on by hard work at mining in the water, and a venereal affection in my limbs, which almost deprived me of their use, that the above complaints had troubled me for a long time—one of them for several years, and the other about eighteen months. Overcome by the pain and anxiety occasioned by them, I had given up all hopes of ever again enjoying good health. In this condition, I called upon Dr. J. C. Young, and after the lapse of five months, I am perfectly well and feel nearly as strong as I ever did. I can recommend every one afflicted to his care, my friends that I recommended to his care, afflicted with different diseases, some of them bad cases, of a very bad and dangerous nature.

Given this my voluntary testimony in favor of Dr. J. C. Young, in hopes that it may induce all those afflicted, to call on him, and avoid the impostors who have robbed me, not only of money, but to a certain extent of my health.

B. F. LUNING.

GREEN HORN GULCH, Kern River, }
September 2, 1856.

DEAR SIR: It is with pleasure that I hasten to answer your letter, regarding how I get along. I have entirely recovered from the complaints for which your medical skill was required, and I assure you I feel grateful to you for the health I now enjoy. Snatched as I was from the very jaws of death, and saved from an untold amount of suffering. Were I in the city where I could do it, this would have the solemnity of an oath, but I am in a mining camp, there is no Justice of the Peace within several miles of me, and so you must publish without it. I do not like to name my disease, and I suppose it is not requisite, as you treat all kinds of disease. Yours,
G. LANGDON
To Dr. J. C. Young.

Manitosa, Sept. 27th, 1856.

DR. J. C. YOUNG.—Sir: In answer to your request, as to how my case is getting along, I would state that I am perfectly well, and have been so for about one month. I should have written before, but have been waiting to see if it would return. I am now satisfied that I have seen the last of it. My case was said to be a very bad one by all the physicians that examined me. They all called it a mercurial disease, and said there "was no help for it." You called it scrofulous, mixed with a mercurial affection, and said you could cure me, and you have done so. I can only thank you for it and recommend all persons afflicted to give you a fair trial. Yours till death,
C. L. RAILS, Jr.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY, OR Seminal Weakness.—Dr. Young addresses those having injured themselves by private and improper indulgence in the secret and solitary habit that ruins the body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society. The following are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervousness, irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, symptoms of consumption, &c.

MENTALLY, the fearful effects on the mind are more to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self distrust, loss of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. All persons who are afflicted with any of the above symptoms should not fail to call on Dr. Young, and be at once restored to perfect health. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately, and save yourself from the dread and awful consequences of this terrible malady.

WEAKNESS OF THE SENSES immediately cured, and full vigor restored. Office corner of Montgomery and California streets, over Pacific Express, San Francisco, where all letters must be directed to insure intention.
J. C. YOUNG, M. D.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.—In consequence of the wide spread celebrity of Dr. YOUNG, numerous impostors have sprung into existence, pretending to be perfect masters of the healing art, and have succeeded in imposing upon a few of the unwary sufferers. Persons wishing to consult a physician, should be very careful how they put confidence in the published statements of such charlatans, for they are as unscrupulous in such statements as in their practice of medicine, and men as they are unscrupulous in such statements, they will be as unscrupulous in their practice. They will first deceive you by false certificates, procured from "drunken loafers," who perjure themselves to get money to satisfy the cravings of a diseased appetite. When such quacks gain your confidence, he will then do you with mercury and other drugs, and after they have robbed you of your money and injured your constitution, they will cast you off, with the charge, that you have not followed their directions.

The only way to avoid such impostors, is to consult Dr. J. C. Young, the Pioneer Advertising Physician of California. At a meeting of the Medical Faculty of this State, called to investigate the source of such practices that has caused so much suffering in this country, it was unanimously recommended that all the afflicted should consult Dr. Young, as he was the only regularly educated Physician now advertising in California, all others in his line being quacks and impostors, and are not to be trusted. The afflicted will please take notice, that there was not a physician at the meeting who had ever seen or heard of a single case of malpractice from Dr. Young, while not one of them but had seen a number of cases from the foreign quacks, who so wantonly set forth their pretended virtues in the public prints. The above facts should be borne in mind by all seeking medical assistance.

Thank heaven, they are getting thoroughly exposed, and it will not be long before they will have to fly the country, to avoid the just indignation of a outraged public. Then will good people thank Dr. Young for his continued efforts to banish quackery from our midst.

Persons who are usually consulted by me, to Dr. Y., at his office, corner California and Montgomery streets, over the Pacific Express Office, San Francisco. All letters containing the usual fee of $10 will meet with prompt attention.
