day of April, s. p. 1856. (Signed) Jons Minuteron, Notary Public. Cano.—Prempted by an honest desire of my heart. I wish to lay before the public a case act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago. I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epliepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was they led in enlieve) as to defy the sailt of any physician. I was frequently, while in pur-suit of my calling, thrown down to the ground upon those who would reader as-istance or shelter me from danger, as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. White to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having, previous to my affliction, tasted the aweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physiciau, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkny, I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services—regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and, with the biessing of undertook my case, and, with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health.
