

The News From the East. The latest advices which have reached us from the East, give us brighter hopes that a peaceful settlement of the great troubles which distract the whole country will be eventually secured.

The hurried trip of Mr. Lincoln through Baltimore seems not to have been altogether owing to fear of assassination, as at first reported. Indeed, the rumored intention of an assassination is barely credited in any quarter, and the dread of it seems to have been a fancy of Lincoln's own creation, or else of those accompanying him.

Lincoln's Inauguration.—On the first page of this number we publish this important Address. Readers will generally agree, we think, that it is not an ornate nor a very intellectual production. We fail to discover in it, taken altogether, the rigid adherence to the previously proclaimed Republican policy, that we find credited to it in many papers.

Broken Again.—The telegraphic operator at Yreka informs us that the line connecting with Marysville is again broken, so that no opportunity is permitted us of laying still later news from the East before our readers.

CALIFORNIA SENATORIAL ELECTION.—After forty days, balloting in Joint Convention to effect the election of an United States Senator in place of Hon. Wm. M. Gwin, the Legislature of California assembled on the 20th, in making a choice. Gen. Jas. A. McDougall was the favored candidate.

General Intelligence. Several State delegations yesterday paid their respects to the President, and prominent among them were the Pennsylvania and Massachusetts delegations. In the latter, Mr. Lincoln spoke briefly, concluding thus: "As President, in the Administration of the Government, I hope to be man enough not to know one citizen of the United States from another."

THE CONSERVATIVES.—It is a noticeable fact that nearly all of those who now favor and clamor for a coercive policy towards the seceded States, did, in 1846-7, oppose the War with Mexico, and gave "aid and comfort" to the enemy.

THE WAR DEBT.—At last we have definite, though not complete, intelligence concerning the Oregon and Washington War Debt. The bill finally passed into a law, fixing the amount at $2,600,000, with the right given to satisfied claimants to prove up the justice of their demands, and apply for relief from the Government for the balance thus shown to be due.

THE PHILADELPHIA ENQUIRER SAYS: The three Oregon Presidential Electors could not consent to appoint a messenger to bring their vote to Washington, as the mileage (over $15,000) was too nice a plum to give away, so they all three came on. Each of these Republican Electors, therefore, gets $5,000 from the Treasury.

CALIFORNIA WAR DEBT.—There are quite a number of persons in Oregon who hold California War Scrips. They will be glad to learn that the bill has become a law, and payment is to be made in U. S. Bonds. The Modoc War scrip is included in the appropriation. When more complete intelligence of the precise manner and time of payment reaches us, we shall make it known through our columns.

THE OREGON SENATORS.—Senator Baker was selected to present President Lincoln to the people on the occasion of the inauguration. J. W. Nesmith was sworn in as a Senator on the opening day of the new Session. Vice President Hamlin announced the Standing Committees of the Senate on the 9th.

FROM THE BRITISH POSSESSIONS.—By favor of Tracy & Co., we received Victoria and New Westminster papers to March 16th, by overland mail from Portland. Lady Franklin was being cordially welcomed throughout the Colonies. The mines were paying ordinary wages. The annexation of British Columbia to Vancouver Island was not favorably received by the first named people.
