

$5 PER ANNUM.

THE OREGON SENTINEL.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY, BY JAMES O'MEARA, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Office over Cluggage & Drum's Stables.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: (IN ADVANCE) One Copy, One Year, $5.00; One Copy, Six Months, $3.00; One Copy, Three Months, $2.00.

ADVERTISING RATES: One Square, of Twelve Lines or less, First Insertion, $3.00; and for each subsequent insertion, $1.00.

D. WM. DOUTHITT, Attorney and Counselor AT LAW, Jacksonville, Oregon.

BY APPOINTMENT, NOTARY PUBLIC For Jackson County.

Dr. N. Caldwell Bontman HAS permanently located in Jacksonville, and offers his professional services in the practice of Medicine, Surgery and Obstetrics. Office at his residence, on California street, in the house formerly occupied by A. M. Berry, next door to Judge Price.

L. H. DEWEY HAS opened a shop opposite Anderson & Gilman's, on California street, in Dr. L. Ganang's drug store, for repairing

G. W. GREER, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, OFFICE, JACKSONVILLE DRUG STORE, Oregon.

DR. JOHN HERRBOLD, SURGICAL AND MECHANICAL DENTIST'S OFFICE, Jacksonville, Oregon.

JOS. H. BLEDSOE, Attorney and Counselor at Law, WILL practice in all the Courts held in Jackson and Josephine counties, and in the Supreme Court of the State.

REED & BERGEN, Attorneys at Law, JACKSONVILLE, OGN.

CHAS. B. BROOKS, M. D., HAS LOCATED IN JACKSONVILLE, and offers his professional services to this community in the practice of Medicine, Surgery and Obstetrics.

PETER BRITT PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTIST Jacksonville, Oregon.

SEWING MACHINE ON HAND and under order. House Linen and paper hanging, by A. C. ALBERTS, California Street, above Oregon.

Law and Collection Office. GEO. H. WILLIAMS, A. C. GIBBS, (Late Chief Justice).

WILLIAMS & GIBBS, Portland, Oregon. Will practice in the Courts of Oregon and Washington Territories.

B. F. DOWELL, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Jacksonville, Oregon.

SURGICAL HOSPITAL I am now prepared to receive patients in the Hospital, on the corner of Third Street, back of the "Union Hotel."

C. P. SPRAGUE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, KENYVILLE, JOSEPHINE COUNTY, OGN.

GREAT REDUCTION! On the First of January '61, the prices of Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines were reduced twenty per cent.

Speech of John C. Breckinridge.

Delivered in Kentucky, in the Hall of the House of Representatives, April 2, 1861.

Mr. Breckinridge opens his speech with a definition of the State Rights doctrine, saying: "I hold that the ultimate action of any State is her action—her destiny is my destiny; that I will share it with her, and that in going with her I do not feel that I am a traitor to any other government. I do not feel that I owe that divine allegiance which will cause me to run the hazard of being hung by my own country or the other, according as each may get possession of my person."

He next reviews the causes leading to the present political trouble, and the efforts made last winter at Washington to bring about a compromise. If then proceeds to give his interpretation of the policy of Lincoln's Administration:

"I desire in telling what I believe to be the present policy of the dominant or Republican party. I say to you, sir, that so far from intending to do anything fair and honest settling of national troubles, they are engaged to-day in devising plans by which they hope to secure themselves, and ultimately to their principles, all the border slaveholding States of this Confederacy."

You have seen in the public press an account of an interview between a leading spirit of this Administration and a delegation from Illinois, about the time of Mr. Lincoln's inauguration. It is the key note, in my opinion, of the policy of that party. He declared to them, substantially, that he had had occasion heretofore, to call their attention to a Union, which was not in danger, to the principles of freedom which were in danger; but that now having secured the principles of freedom, he contemplated calling their attention to the question of the Union, which is in danger, and to the principles of freedom which were in danger; but that now having secured the principles of freedom, he contemplated calling their attention to the question of the Union, which is in danger, and to the principles of freedom which were in danger.

L. H. DEWEY HAS opened a shop opposite Anderson & Gilman's, on California street, in Dr. L. Ganang's drug store, for repairing

G. W. GREER, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, OFFICE, JACKSONVILLE DRUG STORE, Oregon.

DR. JOHN HERRBOLD, SURGICAL AND MECHANICAL DENTIST'S OFFICE, Jacksonville, Oregon.

JOS. H. BLEDSOE, Attorney and Counselor at Law, WILL practice in all the Courts held in Jackson and Josephine counties, and in the Supreme Court of the State.

REED & BERGEN, Attorneys at Law, JACKSONVILLE, OGN.

CHAS. B. BROOKS, M. D., HAS LOCATED IN JACKSONVILLE, and offers his professional services to this community in the practice of Medicine, Surgery and Obstetrics.

PETER BRITT PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTIST Jacksonville, Oregon.

SEWING MACHINE ON HAND and under order. House Linen and paper hanging, by A. C. ALBERTS, California Street, above Oregon.

Law and Collection Office. GEO. H. WILLIAMS, A. C. GIBBS, (Late Chief Justice).

WILLIAMS & GIBBS, Portland, Oregon. Will practice in the Courts of Oregon and Washington Territories.

B. F. DOWELL, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Jacksonville, Oregon.

SURGICAL HOSPITAL I am now prepared to receive patients in the Hospital, on the corner of Third Street, back of the "Union Hotel."

C. P. SPRAGUE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, KENYVILLE, JOSEPHINE COUNTY, OGN.

GREAT REDUCTION! On the First of January '61, the prices of Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines were reduced twenty per cent.

THE GREAT SCANDAL CASE IN IRELAND.

The great Yelverton Marriage case, which so long occupied the Court of Common Pleas in Dublin, has been decided at last, in favor of the late wife.

It was held that the London correspondent of the Bulletin in a letter published in our columns, gave an interesting account of this famous case. We briefly repeat here the points involved: The suit was to test the validity of a marriage celebrated by a Catholic priest in Ireland, between the Hon. Mrs. William Charles Yelverton, of the British army, heir to the Avonmore peerage, and Miss Teresa Longworth, who was one of the French Sisters of Charity in the Crimea.

The trial now had been resulted in a verdict that his first marriage was valid. Miss Longworth is, therefore, the Hon. Mrs. Yelverton, and her husband stands in the power of the criminal law as a bigamist. The trial created an unparalleled excitement in Dublin, and throughout the most of the British Empire and Scotland, the demand for papers containing the proceedings was immense. Many parts of these proceedings would not be published in respectable American newspapers, and some of them even had to be kept out of the English and Scotch papers.

When Mrs. Yelverton's counsel, Mr. Whitehead, entered the room where she was waiting, his countenance and dignified bearing, as well as the clerical which rang through a court, told her that the verdict was in her favor; she sprang forward without saying a word clasped him in her arms, and weeping convulsively to her breast, and kissing his two hands, kissed them. Overcome by the violence of her emotions, after such a long and terrible tension of her nervous system, she fell down and expired.

THE OLD MAID IN THE WRONG PEW.—An unmarried lady, a perfect specimen of an old maid, being on a visit to a friend who lived in a large manufacturing town, went one Sunday to church, and was shown into a large square pew, in which half a dozen females were seated. The prayers were drawing to a conclusion, when the officiating clergyman deviated from the afternoon service into another of a different kind.

THE SAGE OF WHEATLAND AT HOME.—The Washington (D. C.) Sunday Chronicle has an interesting letter from a correspondent at Lancaster, Pa., in which the writer refers to Mr. Buchanan at Wheatland.

Mr. Buchanan's style of living since his return home is as it always has been here, plain and unostentatious. Occasionally he is visited by some of his personal friends, who are treated with the hospitality which we might expect to receive from a polite, well-to-do country gentleman.

THE KING TRIES SKIDDAZE POWDER.—On the first contingent of soldiers powder in the capital of Delhi, the monarch became deeply interested in the accounts of the refreshing dose. A box was brought to the king in full court, and the interpreter explained to the king how it should be used.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE GREAT SCANDAL CASE IN IRELAND.

The great Yelverton Marriage case, which so long occupied the Court of Common Pleas in Dublin, has been decided at last, in favor of the late wife.

It was held that the London correspondent of the Bulletin in a letter published in our columns, gave an interesting account of this famous case. We briefly repeat here the points involved: The suit was to test the validity of a marriage celebrated by a Catholic priest in Ireland, between the Hon. Mrs. William Charles Yelverton, of the British army, heir to the Avonmore peerage, and Miss Teresa Longworth, who was one of the French Sisters of Charity in the Crimea.

The trial now had been resulted in a verdict that his first marriage was valid. Miss Longworth is, therefore, the Hon. Mrs. Yelverton, and her husband stands in the power of the criminal law as a bigamist. The trial created an unparalleled excitement in Dublin, and throughout the most of the British Empire and Scotland, the demand for papers containing the proceedings was immense. Many parts of these proceedings would not be published in respectable American newspapers, and some of them even had to be kept out of the English and Scotch papers.

When Mrs. Yelverton's counsel, Mr. Whitehead, entered the room where she was waiting, his countenance and dignified bearing, as well as the clerical which rang through a court, told her that the verdict was in her favor; she sprang forward without saying a word clasped him in her arms, and weeping convulsively to her breast, and kissing his two hands, kissed them. Overcome by the violence of her emotions, after such a long and terrible tension of her nervous system, she fell down and expired.

THE OLD MAID IN THE WRONG PEW.—An unmarried lady, a perfect specimen of an old maid, being on a visit to a friend who lived in a large manufacturing town, went one Sunday to church, and was shown into a large square pew, in which half a dozen females were seated. The prayers were drawing to a conclusion, when the officiating clergyman deviated from the afternoon service into another of a different kind.

THE SAGE OF WHEATLAND AT HOME.—The Washington (D. C.) Sunday Chronicle has an interesting letter from a correspondent at Lancaster, Pa., in which the writer refers to Mr. Buchanan at Wheatland.

Mr. Buchanan's style of living since his return home is as it always has been here, plain and unostentatious. Occasionally he is visited by some of his personal friends, who are treated with the hospitality which we might expect to receive from a polite, well-to-do country gentleman.

THE KING TRIES SKIDDAZE POWDER.—On the first contingent of soldiers powder in the capital of Delhi, the monarch became deeply interested in the accounts of the refreshing dose. A box was brought to the king in full court, and the interpreter explained to the king how it should be used.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE GREAT SCANDAL CASE IN IRELAND.

The great Yelverton Marriage case, which so long occupied the Court of Common Pleas in Dublin, has been decided at last, in favor of the late wife.

It was held that the London correspondent of the Bulletin in a letter published in our columns, gave an interesting account of this famous case. We briefly repeat here the points involved: The suit was to test the validity of a marriage celebrated by a Catholic priest in Ireland, between the Hon. Mrs. William Charles Yelverton, of the British army, heir to the Avonmore peerage, and Miss Teresa Longworth, who was one of the French Sisters of Charity in the Crimea.

The trial now had been resulted in a verdict that his first marriage was valid. Miss Longworth is, therefore, the Hon. Mrs. Yelverton, and her husband stands in the power of the criminal law as a bigamist. The trial created an unparalleled excitement in Dublin, and throughout the most of the British Empire and Scotland, the demand for papers containing the proceedings was immense. Many parts of these proceedings would not be published in respectable American newspapers, and some of them even had to be kept out of the English and Scotch papers.

When Mrs. Yelverton's counsel, Mr. Whitehead, entered the room where she was waiting, his countenance and dignified bearing, as well as the clerical which rang through a court, told her that the verdict was in her favor; she sprang forward without saying a word clasped him in her arms, and weeping convulsively to her breast, and kissing his two hands, kissed them. Overcome by the violence of her emotions, after such a long and terrible tension of her nervous system, she fell down and expired.

THE OLD MAID IN THE WRONG PEW.—An unmarried lady, a perfect specimen of an old maid, being on a visit to a friend who lived in a large manufacturing town, went one Sunday to church, and was shown into a large square pew, in which half a dozen females were seated. The prayers were drawing to a conclusion, when the officiating clergyman deviated from the afternoon service into another of a different kind.

THE SAGE OF WHEATLAND AT HOME.—The Washington (D. C.) Sunday Chronicle has an interesting letter from a correspondent at Lancaster, Pa., in which the writer refers to Mr. Buchanan at Wheatland.

Mr. Buchanan's style of living since his return home is as it always has been here, plain and unostentatious. Occasionally he is visited by some of his personal friends, who are treated with the hospitality which we might expect to receive from a polite, well-to-do country gentleman.

THE KING TRIES SKIDDAZE POWDER.—On the first contingent of soldiers powder in the capital of Delhi, the monarch became deeply interested in the accounts of the refreshing dose. A box was brought to the king in full court, and the interpreter explained to the king how it should be used.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE GREAT SCANDAL CASE IN IRELAND.

The great Yelverton Marriage case, which so long occupied the Court of Common Pleas in Dublin, has been decided at last, in favor of the late wife.

It was held that the London correspondent of the Bulletin in a letter published in our columns, gave an interesting account of this famous case. We briefly repeat here the points involved: The suit was to test the validity of a marriage celebrated by a Catholic priest in Ireland, between the Hon. Mrs. William Charles Yelverton, of the British army, heir to the Avonmore peerage, and Miss Teresa Longworth, who was one of the French Sisters of Charity in the Crimea.

The trial now had been resulted in a verdict that his first marriage was valid. Miss Longworth is, therefore, the Hon. Mrs. Yelverton, and her husband stands in the power of the criminal law as a bigamist. The trial created an unparalleled excitement in Dublin, and throughout the most of the British Empire and Scotland, the demand for papers containing the proceedings was immense. Many parts of these proceedings would not be published in respectable American newspapers, and some of them even had to be kept out of the English and Scotch papers.

When Mrs. Yelverton's counsel, Mr. Whitehead, entered the room where she was waiting, his countenance and dignified bearing, as well as the clerical which rang through a court, told her that the verdict was in her favor; she sprang forward without saying a word clasped him in her arms, and weeping convulsively to her breast, and kissing his two hands, kissed them. Overcome by the violence of her emotions, after such a long and terrible tension of her nervous system, she fell down and expired.

THE OLD MAID IN THE WRONG PEW.—An unmarried lady, a perfect specimen of an old maid, being on a visit to a friend who lived in a large manufacturing town, went one Sunday to church, and was shown into a large square pew, in which half a dozen females were seated. The prayers were drawing to a conclusion, when the officiating clergyman deviated from the afternoon service into another of a different kind.

THE SAGE OF WHEATLAND AT HOME.—The Washington (D. C.) Sunday Chronicle has an interesting letter from a correspondent at Lancaster, Pa., in which the writer refers to Mr. Buchanan at Wheatland.

Mr. Buchanan's style of living since his return home is as it always has been here, plain and unostentatious. Occasionally he is visited by some of his personal friends, who are treated with the hospitality which we might expect to receive from a polite, well-to-do country gentleman.

THE KING TRIES SKIDDAZE POWDER.—On the first contingent of soldiers powder in the capital of Delhi, the monarch became deeply interested in the accounts of the refreshing dose. A box was brought to the king in full court, and the interpreter explained to the king how it should be used.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE GREAT SCANDAL CASE IN IRELAND.

The great Yelverton Marriage case, which so long occupied the Court of Common Pleas in Dublin, has been decided at last, in favor of the late wife.

It was held that the London correspondent of the Bulletin in a letter published in our columns, gave an interesting account of this famous case. We briefly repeat here the points involved: The suit was to test the validity of a marriage celebrated by a Catholic priest in Ireland, between the Hon. Mrs. William Charles Yelverton, of the British army, heir to the Avonmore peerage, and Miss Teresa Longworth, who was one of the French Sisters of Charity in the Crimea.

The trial now had been resulted in a verdict that his first marriage was valid. Miss Longworth is, therefore, the Hon. Mrs. Yelverton, and her husband stands in the power of the criminal law as a bigamist. The trial created an unparalleled excitement in Dublin, and throughout the most of the British Empire and Scotland, the demand for papers containing the proceedings was immense. Many parts of these proceedings would not be published in respectable American newspapers, and some of them even had to be kept out of the English and Scotch papers.

When Mrs. Yelverton's counsel, Mr. Whitehead, entered the room where she was waiting, his countenance and dignified bearing, as well as the clerical which rang through a court, told her that the verdict was in her favor; she sprang forward without saying a word clasped him in her arms, and weeping convulsively to her breast, and kissing his two hands, kissed them. Overcome by the violence of her emotions, after such a long and terrible tension of her nervous system, she fell down and expired.

THE OLD MAID IN THE WRONG PEW.—An unmarried lady, a perfect specimen of an old maid, being on a visit to a friend who lived in a large manufacturing town, went one Sunday to church, and was shown into a large square pew, in which half a dozen females were seated. The prayers were drawing to a conclusion, when the officiating clergyman deviated from the afternoon service into another of a different kind.

THE SAGE OF WHEATLAND AT HOME.—The Washington (D. C.) Sunday Chronicle has an interesting letter from a correspondent at Lancaster, Pa., in which the writer refers to Mr. Buchanan at Wheatland.

Mr. Buchanan's style of living since his return home is as it always has been here, plain and unostentatious. Occasionally he is visited by some of his personal friends, who are treated with the hospitality which we might expect to receive from a polite, well-to-do country gentleman.

THE KING TRIES SKIDDAZE POWDER.—On the first contingent of soldiers powder in the capital of Delhi, the monarch became deeply interested in the accounts of the refreshing dose. A box was brought to the king in full court, and the interpreter explained to the king how it should be used.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.

THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA HAS GIVEN TO THE VEMMA Protestants a place to worship in Concordat or no Concordat. The building has been for years past a magazine.