

TUNNELING.—The miners tunnelling the mountain on Jackson Creek, we learn from Thomas Ord, have struck on rich pay dirt, getting as high as two dollars to the pan.

BASSETT'S U. S. CREWS.—This Company gave an afternoon and an evening exhibition on Saturday last. The stiffened limbs and lack-lustre eyes of the horses betokened that they had been greatly overtasked in their journey hither.

DANGEROUS SPORT.—On Wednesday last, Peter Ame, a boy about fourteen years old, while out hunting near his father's farm, about three miles from town, hearing a strange noise near him, he looked around and saw what proved to be a panther, just in the act of springing upon him.

APPROPRIATE CHECK.—Good prospects have been obtained on Applegate bars, in the vicinity of Fowler's quartz ledge, which promise to pay richly.

ON SUNDAY MORNING last, by invitation of Dr. Overbeck, we visited a little girl, the daughter of Mr. Mathews, who was badly burned a few weeks ago, and found her slowly recovering.

THE NEZ PERCES MINES.—The Pacific Christian Advocate's own correspondent writes from Ora Pina City, Nez Perces Mines, under date of June 24th, as follows:

IN REGARD to the mines, I cannot as yet write anything very definite. I have been up and down the main creek a distance of fifteen or twenty miles, and also some of the small creeks and gulches. I find but few mines prepared as yet to work to advantage.

THE STAGES.—The stages of the California Stage Company, are beginning to come and go full of passengers. The stage from Yreka on Wednesday, brought over sixteen passengers, nearly all for the Nez Perces mines.

QUARTZ.—We learn from Sam. R. Taylor, that they are again working the old Hick's lode, on Jackson Creek, and the prospects are quite encouraging.

SENTENCED.—At a recent term of the Circuit Court of Multnomah county, A. L. Bates, for shooting Edward Payne, of Portland, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year and to pay a fine of $100.

ICE CREAM.—Last evening, just before going to press, we were favored by Charles Harris with a round of ice cream, which was delicious.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.—We learn from the Telegraphic agent, at Yreka, Mr. Cyrus Thomas, that the line broke on Tuesday, and had not been repaired up to Thursday night.

HUNG HIMSELF.—John Elliott, who was sentenced to the Penitentiary for life, by the last Court of Josephine county, hung himself in the county jail.

EPISCOPAL SERVICE.—Bishop Scott of the Episcopal Church, will preach in the Old Fellows Hall to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

QUARTZ MILL.—The quartz mill at Evansville is again running. They are crushing quartz from the Hick's lode on Foote's creek, which, we understand is paying pretty well.

JAMES M. PYLE, Esq., of Roseburg, passed through our town yesterday, on his way to the Atlantic States. We wish him luck, and hope that he may return strong and hearty.

LARGE CROWDS.—It has been estimated that there were eight thousand persons in Portland, and ten thousand in Salem, on the Fourth of July.

JACKSONVILLE SCHOOL.—Mr. Thorp, by advertisement, says the Summer term of this school will commence on Monday, July 22d.

MARTINETTI TROUPE.—This talented troupe performed here last evening, to a large and respectable audience.

THE weather has been very warm this week.

A gentleman furnishes the Louisville Journal with the following vote in East Tennessee: Counties. Union maj. Carter, 1,317 Washington, 442 Green, 2,000 Sullivan, Secession majority, 800 Jefferson, 1,600 Sevier, 1,530 Cooke, 2,460 Knox, 2,460 Union, 1,100 Claiborne, 1,454

Campbell and Anderson were almost a unit for the Union in East Tennessee. The adjourned Union Convention of East Tennessee meets on Monday, the 17th, Thomas A. R. Nelson, President, at Knoxville, and will insist that they represent the State of Tennessee, and that they will call on the Government of the United States for assistance.

East Tennessee altogether gave 20,000 Union majority, notwithstanding there was a large camp in that section full of soldiers from all the Southern States, all of whom voted for Secession, Middle and West Tennessee, of course, went overwhelmingly the other way.

Senator Andy Johnson of Tennessee, you have heard by your dispatches, has reached Cincinnati, en route to Washington. There, and in several towns in Kentucky, the Union men gave him grand receptions, to which he replied in courteous and patriotic speeches.

To get a letter to New Orleans it must be put in a United States stamped envelope—a three cent stamp upon an ordinary envelope will not be taken by the Post Office.
