A Prayer.

BY A LADY.

O! though Supreme who rules above,
Look down with tender care,
Sift the dross from out our land
And show who true men are.

O! guard, and save the gallant land,
Who at their country's call,
Are bravely moving to the field
To conquer or to fall.

O! save and bless our volunteers,
The noble patriot band,
Defenders of our sacred right,
The honor of our land.

God! guard and lead the little band,
Sent from our golden shore,
Arm them with ever-powering strength
Through all the battle's roar.

Our country calls—we send them forth,
The bravest and the best,
God crown their labors with triumph,
And all their acts be best.

O! save our shattered Union,
Our country's honor save!
Forever may the stars and stripes
Triumph proudly wave.

Unfurl your banner to the breeze!
Lift up your standards high!
March bravely on, with firm resolve,
To conquer—or to die.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 24th 1861.

Correspondence.

Between the Y. M. C. A. of Richmond, Va., and Chicago, Ill. Published by request.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION ROOM,
RICHMOND, VA., May 6th.

To the Y. M. C. A. of North America:

BROTHERS:—We have determined by the help of God to address you in the character of peace-makers. In connection with the Conference of Christian Associations, we trust that we have secured the confidence and love of many of your members, and we are conscious that we sincerely reciprocate their sentiments. You may then regard with some respect the statements we may make in reference to the present condition of our country. Many of those who participate with us in the Christian fellowship which was exhibited by the delegates from the various portions of our beloved country, at the annual convention held at St. Louis, Missouri, in 1859, and at New Orleans, will doubtless be willing to unite with us in an earnest effort for the restoration of peace and good-will between the contending parties.

Through the distorting medium of the press, there is a misunderstanding between the North and the South as to their respective positions. If there could be a fair representation of the sentiments of the greater portion of the people at the North and the South, we would not wonder at the melancholy spectacle of a great nation involved in a civil war, which must be productive of the most disastrous consequences to each section. The separation of the North from the North is irrevocable, the sooner that great fact is acknowledged by the nations of the earth the better will it be for the interests of humanity. The conquest of either section by the other is impossible. You can have no Union of the North and the South, we would not wonder at the melancholy spectacle of a great nation involved in a civil war, which must be productive of the most disastrous consequences to each section.
