

THE OREGON SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, --- NOV. 2, 1861.

MAN KILLED.—At a shooting match, near the residence of Columbus Gail, on Sam's Creek, in this county, held on Saturday last, Robert Wilson shot and killed Peter Scott. The particulars of this unfortunate affair as they have reached us, are these: There had been a foul of some weeks standing between the parties when they met at the above place. Wilson had his rifle with him for the purpose of contending for the prize. Scott approached him in an insulting manner; Wilson requested him to keep away and stepped behind a third person to avoid him. Scott followed him up a few steps, and put his right hand up to his left breast, as if in the act of drawing a weapon, at this demonstration, Wilson fired, the ball taking effect in the left breast, killing Scott instantly. Wilson immediately gave himself up to Justice Nye. On an examination of the body of Scott by the Coroner, a Navy revolver fully charged was found in the left breast of his over-shirt.

An examination was had before Justice Nye and Lee on Monday, when Wilson was discharged, it being clearly shown that he had acted in self-defense.

Orrville P. Scott was the name of the deceased. His parents reside in Lafayette, Yamhill county.

MINING ON ROGUE RIVER.—We learn from a gentleman living on Rogue River, that the company mining below Evansville on the opposite bank, have been averaging $80 per day to the hand for the last four weeks. They were all summer getting in their wind-dam, at an immense cost of labor and money, and are now reaping their reward. Should the river remain as it is at present, for a few weeks longer, there is no doubt but that they will take out quite a handsome sum.

A SHERIFF.—As we entered our office on Wednesday morning last, we were agreeably surprised to find that we were followed by a benevolent looking individual, carrying a large basket, filled with rousing apples and pears. Incredible as it may seem, we did not object to his depositing them on our table, with the compliments of Messrs. Baird & Willoughby of Lion county. These gentlemen have opened a fruit depot on California street, above the store of Haines Bros.

ORION CIDER.—Why don't some one from the great Willamette bring out here some of that nice cider made at Salem, of which they boast so proudly? Water is too scarce to use as a beverage in this latitude.

DRS. BROWN & THOMPSON.—These gentlemen are again associated in the practice of Medicine and Surgery. Their professional reputation is a sufficient guarantee of success.

RICH DISCOVERIES.—O. H. Bradley and Jackson & Sons have struck new diggings near Wilcox Springs, which prospect three dollars to the pan. We hope the diggings are extensive.

MURDERED.—A man by the name of Hyatt, was murdered in the vicinity of Walla Walla on the 23d, of last month. He was supposed to have had about $6,000 on his person at the time.

A. J. BATES. sentenced at the last term of the district court to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary, for assault with intent to kill F. Paine, has been pardoned by Governor Whitaker.

INTELLIGENCE has been received at Dallas that a band of Snake Indians last week made a descent upon the Warm Springs Reservation and drove off some fifty head of horses.

THE STATEMAN says the Superintendent of Indian Affairs has received orders not to disburse any money for the present in settlement of accounts made prior to his taking office.

Major General George B. McClellan received the honors of Masonry in the Williamette Lodge of this city, in the winter of 1853-54—Oregonian.

ESCAPED.—A convict named Hagruber from Josephine County escaped from the Penitentiary on the 22d.

RELEASED FROM CUSTODY.—F. Patterson who shot Capt. Staples has been released from custody by giving bail in $5,000.

SENATOR NICHOLS sailed from San Francisco on the 21st of October.

THE HARVEST OF DEATH.—Dr. Lyon, Brigade Surgeon, under General Lyon of the battle of Wilson Creek, was witness to the following extraordinary incident: A tall rebel soldier waved a large and costly accession flag defiantly, when a cannon ball struck him in the right breast, and he fell. A second soldier instantly picked up the prostrate flag, and waved it again—a second cannon ball shattered his body. A third soldier raised and waved the flag, and a third cannon ball crashed into his breast and he fell dead. Yet the fourth time was the flag raised. The soldier waved it, then turned to climb over the fence with it into the woods. As he stood on the fence a moment, balancing to keep the heavy flag up-right, a fourth cannon ball struck him in the side, cutting him completely in two, so that one-half of his body fell on one side of the fence and the other half on the other side, while the flag itself lodged on the fence, and was captured a few minutes afterwards by our troops. Our troops captured three rebel flags, but lost none.

THE RICHMOND EXAMINER, of Sept. 24, says the forty days allowed for Unionists to leave the South has expired, and adds: It seems to us that almost all now are required to take the oath of allegiance to our Government, and that the same test of loyalty might very judiciously be applied to those amongst us who are known to have voted, a few brief months ago, against the ratification of the Ordinance of Secession. Many of our wealthy men opposed secession to the last, and may be still opposed to separation and Southern independence.

DISPATCHES TO THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER say the regiment of Col. Baker, together with those engaged with it, are said to have lost 800 in killed and wounded in the last action. Col. Baker, it is said, was a prominent mark for the enemy's bullets. He was struck by a ball in the heart, four in various parts of the body, and three in the head. It is said 100 Mississippi rifles were aimed at him when he fell.

A UNIONIST IN RICHMOND.—A lady who recently reached Baltimore from Richmond, relates the following incident: Col. Payne U. S. A., and for many long years a friend of Gen. Scott, had excited a reluctant admiration there on account of his persevering and immovable determination not to desert the stars and stripes. No bribe, or threats, could shake him; he had the Napoleonic temperament. "Like a block of marble, over which the thunder-shaft glided along, having no impression." Jefferson Davis and all the distinguished men of his kingdom visited the old man and sought to reason him out of his fealty, but in vain; and even a lady, to whom he was once engaged, was commissioned to wean over him, but the old man's heart repelled, if his lips did not.

"I could not love thee, dear, so much, Loved I not honor more."

Finally, the dog showed his teeth; property belonging to him to the amount of $50,000 or so was threatened. "Let it go," said the aged soldier. At latest observations this planet, overawing the night of Secession, was not in obscuration.

The following extract of a letter dated at Havana, Sept. 24, explodes one of the Charleston Mercury's stories.

"We noticed from one of the last newspaper signs, that the Charleston Mercury had published an act alleged to come from our Government, to the effect that the Confederate flag will be admitted into our ports and be duly protected. This is false. No such act or decree, or any thing like it, has appeared. The Captain General could only do it on receiving instructions to that effect from the home government. The few vessels sailing under the Confederate flag, and which arrived here some months ago, had to hoist the Stars and Stripes before entering our harbor."

Mr. Best, in a letter to the Statesman written on the 20th, of Sept. says: "The Government is now manifesting unwonted vigilance, and more than usual efficiency. Treason, in the loyal States, is being dealt with, seditions and traitorous papers suppressed, and traitors and sympathizers arrested and confined. If this course had not been followed months ago, rebellion would not now have the strength it has, and hundreds of men now in the rebel army, or escaped from the Government officers, would have been in our forts and prisons."

Six Ballots were had among the Justices of Mendocino County, to choose an Associate for the County Court, without success, when it was finally decided by a game of "euche".

D. O. Mills has been appointed Subscriptions Agent for Sacramento by the Secretary of the Treasury, and instructed to open books for subscription to the United States Treasury Note loan on the 14th of November.

St. Louis, Oct. 25th.—There was a battle fought at Greenville, Wayne county, Mo., yesterday. Jeff. Thompson was whipped. He had 63 killed and 300 taken prisoners.

A live reindeer from the Arctic regions is exhibited on board the whale ship John Howland, at San Francisco.

The San Francisco Woolen Mills were destroyed by fire on the morning of the 24th ult.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs, is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties; and it is recommended to mothers, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crises of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere. 41m

Sank's Sarsaparilla is alike efficacious for check ineffectual malarial, and to contract acute disease. In cases of scurvy, cutaneous eruptions, erysipelas, liver complaint and general debility, it will speedily purify the blood, remove all unhealthy secretions, and simultaneously produce a healthy action of the stomach and bowels, thereby relieving many complaints arising from a derangement of the digestive functions. The ingredients composing this celebrated remedy being entirely vegetable, no unpleasant symptoms are left behind after cure. 42m
