JACKSONVILLE.

SATURDAY, - - - NOV. 9, 1861.

Even bear it in mind that it is the duty of every American citizen, whether native or foreign-born, to regard to past political associations, to give the Federal Government a loyal support during the rebellion.

The Western Army.—There is every indication at present that the Government will provide an army for this Department sufficient to meet the foe approaching from the South, or to be pursued South.

What we want.—We clip the following from the Binghamton Democrat, a known Democratic journal, which speaks the sentiments of Union men in New York, as well as Union Democrats in every other State.

WAR SCRIP.—We clip the following letter from the Oregonian: The bonds are finally engraved and officers are at work upon them.

WHEREABOUTS OF BRECKINRIDGE.—The Louisville Democrat, of the 14th Oct., has the following interesting news: We learn from unquestionable authority, that John C. Breckinridge, Col. Win. Preston, Geo. W. Johnson, Lucius Dabbs, Colonel John S. Williams, Hawes, Judge Moore, and other notables in the Secession ranks, are at Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky.

DECEASED SOLDIER'S ACCOUNTS.—A circular has been issued from the Treasury Department in relation to the accounts of deceased soldiers. The widow of an officer or private is entitled to receive the money due.

A FELLOW advertised in Boston that for four shillings he would send beautiful engraved portraits of George Washington and Benjamin Franklin, and had the impudence to forward to his victims three and a half cent postage stamps.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Gen. Stone has published his report of the battle of Ball's Bluffs. He says that Baker acted with indiscretion and exceeded his commands, but performed his duty with unexampled bravery.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30th.—It is understood that McClellan has issued orders for shooting four soldiers who have been found guilty of sleeping on their picket posts.

THE K. K. C. IN OHIO.

It has long been known that a gang of "Confederates," called "Knights of the Golden Circle," have been working secretly in Ohio against the war and the Government.

THE LONDON TIMES says the blockade of Southern ports is now effected, and that foreign nations are bound to recognize the blockade. It also shows that the cutting off of the cotton supplies is the work of the South as much as the North, and it also seems quite true that all cotton exportation has been forbidden by the Confederate Government.

THURSDAY'S DISPATCH. NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The New Jersey brigade marched Saturday morning. They will doubtless complete preparations for stopping the passage of rebels into Maryland under Potomac batteries.

A schooner from Savannah reported that on the 31st October she saw a fleet of thirty steamers, but no sailing vessels, bound South. All the regiments of the army of the Potomac have their camp equipments, wagons, and mules, and other appurtenances, ready for taking the field at an hour's notice.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.—Advices from Gen. Rosecrans are up to the evening of the 2d. On Friday the enemy opened fire with two guns from a point opposite Gauley Ferry and Camp Tompkins, and a fire of musketry, they succeeded in sinking the ferry boat, and threw about forty shells in the camp of the 11th Ohio; but killed none and wounded only a half dozen.

THE PLAN OF THE REBELS.

THE PLAN OF THE REBELS.—We cannot believe the plan at Richmond is for the immense Southern army to march to the Potomac either to attack Washington or winter in Virginia.

MAN MURKIN.

MAN MURKIN.—Joseph Hall left this place some four or five weeks since, in company with a man named Rice, to go to Crescent City by land. He had not arrived at Crescent City on the 11th inst., as we are informed by a note from a friend, neither has he been heard from along the route.

LOYALTY IN NORTH CAROLINA.—A Secessionist on paper in North Carolina recently intimated that a scene occurred in the Legislature of that State on receiving the news of the capture of the Hatteras forts which was not credible, but did not mention the character of it.

A few days since, Gen. Lane telegraphed to the Department at Washington, requesting that Gibson's battery, which recently came from Utah, and is now on its way to Washington, be attached to his brigade.

THE ST. LOUIS CORRESPONDENT of the Sacramento Bee thinks slavery is done for in that State. He says: Whatever other result may be the issue of the war in this State, it is now pretty well settled that slavery will be an institution of particular importance if the present crisis is kept up.

THE RATES OF TELEGRAPHING.—We learn from the Maryville Appeal that the rates of telegraphing from that city are as follows: To New York city, for the first ten words, $5.75; Philadelphia, $5.75; to Boston, $5; to Washington, $5.75; to the above must be added 60 cents for every subsequent word; to St. Louis, $7; Cincinnati, $7.75; Chicago, $6.60.

"COST OF WAR."—Now that the booming of the cannon of treachery and the cry of men stricken to death for fidelity to our flag are broken to us on almost every breeze, it is harrowing to the soul to be dragged into companionship with those who still vacillate, who are still balancing chances and coldly calculating losses and gains, who still persist in treating this agonizing struggle for national existence as a petty question of commerce, and idly dilly-dally take out their scales and weigh in our presence the beggarly jewels of trade against the life of our country.—Joseph Dab.

THE NATIONAL ARMY on the Potomac is well supplied with bread. A person who lately visited the army baking establishment says that the troops are supplied daily with about one hundred thousand loaves of soft, sweet bread all of a beautiful quality, besides crackers of hard bread in considerable amount.

COL. D. VILLIERS, lately returned from Richmond, where he was a prisoner, is to be appointed to a Brigadier-Generalship.

A little girl named Josephine Arnes was severely injured by wild cattle, in the streets of San Francisco, that her life is despaired of.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs, is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties; and it is recommended to mothers, weakened by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use.

San's Sarsaparilla is also efficacious in check impudent malarial, and to counteract actual disease. In cases of scrofula, cutaneous eruptions, erysipelas, liver complaint and general debility, it will speedily purify the blood, remove all unhealthy secretions, and simultaneously produce a healthy action of the stomach and bowels, thereby relieving many complaints arising from a derangement of the digestive functions. The ingredients composing this celebrated remedy being entirely vegetable, no unpleasant symptoms are left behind after cure.
