

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

QUINCY (Ill.) Nov. 29th.—The New York Times dispatch at Washington, Nov. 28th, says that letters from prisoners belonging to the California Regiment now at Richmond, show that most of those supposed to have been killed at Ball's Bluff, are prisoners. The officers are confident that they include the whole number of the dead.

PHILADELPHIA, November 25th.—The Richmond Enquirer's Fort Monroe letter states that the rebel report that Lincoln's executive order that the Navy Yard was entirely destroyed, General Bragg was not for reinforcements. Five vessels (United States) assisting Colonel Brown were killed with shot [?]

A special to the Tribune, dated Nov. 29th, at Washington, states that Adjutant General Thomas has sent instructions to General Sherman at Beaufort to take possession of all the crops on the island, and ship the cotton. Other crops, that were not wanted for the army, were to be sent to New York and sold for Government use. The slaves were to be secured the crops.

The Tribune's dispatch also states that the rebels were falling back on the Potomac before the slow but certain advance of the Union forces, and had offered any resistance to our vessels on the Potomac for the last few days.

Letters from Port Royal state that the expedition to St. Helena Island, north of Port Royal, without striking a blow, took the enemy's works. The rebel guns had been carried inland.

It was reported that 14,000 rebels were at Harpersville, South Carolina (which is on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, and ten miles from Hilton Head, below Port Royal), under Gen. Drayton.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29th.—Dispatches today to the Navy Department, from officer Dupont, dated at Port Royal, Nov. 29th, give the gratifying intelligence that the flag of the United States is flying over the territory of the State of Georgia, Tybee Island, which is in mortar d'ance of Fort Pulaski, and which was taken possession of, and the approaches to Savannah completely stopped.

A Fort Monroe correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer announces that a man calling himself James Charra of Port Royal, came to Norfolk, and was detained by General Wood and his trunk examined. It contained valuable papers, sealed and stamped by the British Consul at Charleston, and directed to Lord Lyons. They were sent to Secretary Seward for inspection. Charra is accused of having been an officer on board the Fingal, which he says had been fitted out for a man-of-war at Charleston. He had seen the privateer Sumner often.

Gen. Price has issued a proclamation at Neesho, calling for fifty thousand men from Missouri to support the Southern cause. He says only five thousand men have as yet come from Missouri to aid him. Unless his call is responded to he thinks that all will be lost, and the Lincoln Hensons will have control of the State. The advance guard of Price's forces are working their way up towards Sealsville, committing depredations as they go.

New York, December 3d. Mr. Butterfield, who has been a prisoner at Charleston, has arrived, and reports that the forts on Otter and Phoenix islands were vacated on Monday, November 12th. The greatest excitement prevailed at Charleston, and a meeting was held as to the propriety of burning or surrendering the city. The Mayor was for surrendering, and so were the people generally, but the Governor said it must be burned.

The votes for Mayor of New York foot up as follows: O'Byrne, 25,259; Gunther, 23,688; Wood, 24,085. O'Byrne was elected.
