The Confiscation of Rebel Property. The commencement of the present rebell property has been confiscated by the armed pirates that infest the seas, under the authority them by ignoring old party distinctions. If horses, etc. Our loss was only two killed and fiscated by the Rebel Government, or rather, election of Jane will transpire. less confiscation of property, so immense in amount, and so black in its violation of plighted faith and honor? We have hit them now! see how they bawl, and rave, and rant, about this date, would sound well enough, if the Editor exhibit such an energy of denunciation what you propose to confircate rebel property, when they are so calm, so silent, and quiescent, when Northern property is confiscated by millions. and that by a rebellious military mob, in violation of plighted faith and honor, and the most solemn and binding constitutional obligations ? There can be but one rational and intelligent answer to this important question, and that forces itself on the unbiased mind with resistless power, and that is, that their heart and sympathics are with the rebels! And yet they claim to be Union men! and all their symputhies with those who are strong to tear the Temple of Freedom from "turret to foundation and drove the men at the outset. stone!" May beaven save us from such destroying unioo'sm as that!

To put this into rustic shape, it simply means property, but, Unde Sam, I wish it distinctly understood, if you retaliste—I am opposed to conficution. Can anything be more glaring than such inconsistency, more transparent than the rebels.

Is a quarrel between a couple of California battery—all under acting Brigadier General confiscation? and do these laws exempt them? If it should reach forth its strong arm to grasp thee, (O, awfu thought?) the world would resound, with the boly horrors of Abolitionism! It may be difficult for a plain man to understand why " Cuffee," is so much more sacred than any other kind of property. But it must be so; else why should these Peace Solomons, bawl them selves bearse, and waste so much ink, in wotal diatribes, whenever any one proposes to turn the military power of the Government, within confiscating range of Cuffee's habitation.
