

"TO THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION, A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDISPENSABLE."—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE.

SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1862.

Look Upon this Picture and then Upon That.

In the last Presidential campaign there were three great political parties in the Northern States, each claiming the attribute of nationality. They were the Republican, Douglas and Breckinridge parties. Each embodied in its ranks profound patriots, eminent civilians and statesmen of national reputation.

Such, gentlemen, Breckinridge democrats, were the leaders, whom you delighted to honor in the stirring campaign of 1860.

Such, gentlemen, Breckinridge democrats, were the leaders, whom you delighted to honor in the stirring campaign of 1860.

Such, gentlemen, Breckinridge democrats, were the leaders, whom you delighted to honor in the stirring campaign of 1860.

Such, gentlemen, Breckinridge democrats, were the leaders, whom you delighted to honor in the stirring campaign of 1860.

Bottled Indignation.

When a man has accumulated indignation for a long time and has nursed his wrath to keep it warm, and then is disappointed in a proper occasion to let it off, his case indeed is a terrible one.

At last when they were on the very point of spontaneous combustion, Fremont's celebrated proclamation broke like a vision of hope on their waiting souls.

Next came the report of Secretary Cameron; there also came with it the modifying fact concerning the President from all comers.

Last came the much talked of proclamation of General Phelps, to the people of Mississippi and Louisiana. How their faces lighted up with Secession joy!

We take the following brief, but suggestive extract from a speech delivered before the Secession Convention of Mississippi, by ex-Governor Adams.

Hurrah!—New Diggings Discovered!—Big Strikes Made!—Carraboo and Salmon No-where!!

The following letter from "An Honest Miner," written at the newly discovered diggings, head of Nagsally river, W. T.

"Our party arrived here last Sunday, after a tedious tramp of fourteen days. We have prospected a little since our arrival and found it pretty good.

Now, gentlemen, keep cool. Don't get excited—the diggings are evidently very extensive—and they can't be monopolized.

Summary of News.

It will be seen by our telegraphic dispatches that the news from the States is of the most flattering nature. Fort Donalson has been taken by the determined bravery and dashing prowess of the Union forces.

The right wing of the enemy's fortifications was stormed and carried on Saturday at noon. Chicago, Feb. 17th, 11 A. M.

The firing at Fort Donalson commenced at daybreak, 14th, and continued almost unintermittently during the entire day.

During the action, a rifle-grenade on the Carondelet, burst, killing six men. Washington, Feb. 16th.

Brig. Gen. Sedgewick has been assigned the command of Stone's division. Springfield, Mo., Feb. 14th.

Our army under command of General Curtis, marched from Lebanon, on the 11th, six miles from Springfield.

Price had left at two o'clock the same morning, leaving 600 sick men, and large quantities of forage, baggage and weapons behind him.

General Jackson. In a speech at New York recently, the historian Bancroft, brought out the following pertinent reminiscence of Gen Jackson:

Western Classics.—We have received from Robert Nixon, the enterprising Editor and Proprietor of that spicy sheet the Yreka Journal, a full Dictionary of the Jargon or Chinook Language.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

Washington 17th.—An official dispatch received at the Navy Department, from Commodore Foote, reports nothing but what has already been telegraphed, except if the gunboats had been enabled to fight fifteen minutes longer, it would have resulted in the capture of the fort, as the rebels were running away from the batteries.

The attack on Fort Donalson was resumed on Friday, Feb. 14, at daylight, with the following result: All the rebel water battery guns, except six, were dismantled and silenced by the gunboats. The boats then retired, all more or less damaged.

The four iron boats lay within 300 yards of the fort and dismantled and silenced all the water battery guns except six. The gunboat Louisville dismounted a rebel 138 pounder at first fire.

During the action, a rifle-grenade on the Carondelet, burst, killing six men. Washington, Feb. 16th.

Brig. Gen. Sedgewick has been assigned the command of Stone's division. Springfield, Mo., Feb. 14th.

Our army under command of General Curtis, marched from Lebanon, on the 11th, six miles from Springfield.

Price had left at two o'clock the same morning, leaving 600 sick men, and large quantities of forage, baggage and weapons behind him.

General Jackson. In a speech at New York recently, the historian Bancroft, brought out the following pertinent reminiscence of Gen Jackson:

Western Classics.—We have received from Robert Nixon, the enterprising Editor and Proprietor of that spicy sheet the Yreka Journal, a full Dictionary of the Jargon or Chinook Language.

JACKSON COUNTY MASS UNION CONVENTION!

The qualified voters of Jackson County who are in favor of the suppression of the present wicked rebellion—of a vigorous prosecution of war so long as necessary to frustrate the mad schemes of armed traitors—who are opposed to any peace other than the honorable one sure to come when rebels and their sympathizers submit to the constitutionally elected and qualified authorities and legally enacted laws of the Government—who think more of country than of party prejudice and individual preference—who are in favor of supporting the General Government in its endeavors to defend the Constitution, execute the laws, and preserve the Union, and who are willing to unite for the election of a ticket upon such a basis at the coming general election, without reference to former political associations, are respectfully requested to meet in Mass Convention at JACKSONVILLE, on SATURDAY, March, 29th, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating a ticket for County Officers, for the purpose of selecting delegates to a State Convention to be held at Eugene City, Lane County, on Wednesday, the 9th day of April, 1862, for the purpose of nominating a Union ticket for State officers and Member of Congress.

Gen. McClellan has received dispatches fully confirming the capture of Fort Donalson. St. Louis, 17th.

Dispatches from Gen. Grant to Gen. Halleck, announce the surrender of the fort, with 15,000 prisoners, including Generals Johnston and Buckner, and Pillow. Floyd escaped.

The rebels in the fort denounced Floyd as a black hearted traitor and coward. The enemy are known to have had 30,000 troops, 15,000 of whom are prisoners, 5,000 escaped, and the balance are reported to be killed, wounded, and otherwise disabled.

Philadelphia, Feb. 17th. A dispatch from Fortress Monroe announces the surrender of Savannah to Commodore Dupont. Chicago, 17, 10 P. M.

The storehouse supply, which arrived at New York Friday, boarded off Cuba, the British schooner Stephen Hart, loaded with rifled cannon powder, and cut off.

The rebels have raised a black flag, which can be seen plainly from the river. The right wing of the Federal commenced storming the fort at noon Saturday, and have taken the right wing of the enemy's fortifications, over which the Stars and Stripes float triumphantly.

Special dispatches from Fort Donalson give the following particulars of the surrender: The surrender took place at daylight, Sunday morning, unconditionally. We have General Backner, Johnston (of California history), and Basford, 15,000 prisoners, and 3,000 horses. Pillow and Floyd, with their brigades, stole away on Saturday night, without letting their men know of their intention. The prisoners are being sent to Cairo as fast as they can be loaded in steamers.

Notice. A SORREL MARE COLT, about eight or ten months old, with a bald face, and a little white on its legs (no other mark or brand) came in with my horses to Grevelock Ranch, about the middle of December last.

FRESH GOODS!

TO THEIR ALREADY LARGE AND WELL SELECTED STOCK OF MERCHANDISE, THE UNDERSIGNED ARE NOW RECEIVING

Fresh Goods FROM SAN FRANCISCO, WHICH ARE OFFERED AT LOW PRICES FOR CASH

QUICK SALES AT SMALL PROFITS. FOR READY PAY, IS BEST FOR ALL! Every Article Warranted as Represented. Please give us a call.

WADE, MORGAN & CO. Jacksonville, Jan. 1, 1862.

SADDLERY. The undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Jackson and adjoining counties that he has on hand and will manufacture to order

BOUND FOR SALMON RIVER!! Within Sixty Days!

GOODS SELLING. TREMENDOUS SACRIFICE For Cash! Without Reserve!

J. A. BRUNNER & BRO'S. We are determined and Compelled to place all our Book Accounts and Notes in the hands of our Attorney, for action At the coming term of the District Court, if not paid on or before the 23d DAY OF JANUARY, 1862. J. A. BRUNNER & BRO. JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 11, 62

ROMAN EYE BALSAM

For Inflamed Eyelids, COMMONLY CALLED SORE EYES.

This Balsam was used for many years in the private practice of a celebrated oculist, with the greatest success.

Notice. A SORREL MARE COLT, about eight or ten months old, with a bald face, and a little white on its legs (no other mark or brand) came in with my horses to Grevelock Ranch, about the middle of December last.

Notice. A SORREL MARE COLT, about eight or ten months old, with a bald face, and a little white on its legs (no other mark or brand) came in with my horses to Grevelock Ranch, about the middle of December last.

Notice. A SORREL MARE COLT, about eight or ten months old, with a bald face, and a little white on its legs (no other mark or brand) came in with my horses to Grevelock Ranch, about the middle of December last.

Notice. A SORREL MARE COLT, about eight or ten months old, with a bald face, and a little white on its legs (no other mark or brand) came in with my horses to Grevelock Ranch, about the middle of December last.

Notice. A SORREL MARE COLT, about eight or ten months old, with a bald face, and a little white on its legs (no other mark or brand) came in with my horses to Grevelock Ranch, about the middle of December last.

Notice. A SORREL MARE COLT, about eight or ten months old, with a bald face, and a little white on its legs (no other mark or brand) came in with my horses to Grevelock Ranch, about the middle of December last.