THE OREGON SENTINEL. and the second s

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON, SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1862.

$4 IN ADVANCE.

THE OREGON SENTINEL. DENRY DENLINGER, Pub'r and Prop'r.

Office over Clugage & Drum's Stables.

Subscarritos-One year, in advance, Four Julius : otherwise, Five Dollars. Six months, Two Dollars and Fifty cents. No paper discontinued until arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the proprietor.

ADVERTISING-- One square (12 lines or less). nat invertion. Three Dollars ; each subsequent insertion, One Dollar. A discount of fifty per rent will be made to those who advertise by the VI BES riers, you can learn that the Ourcos SENTINE Pamphlets and tracts, so very dull, indeed, of Jackson, Josephine and Douglas, Oregon. Nine letters, touching themes of every sort, and Del Norte, California, than any other pa- And one with money-just a shilling shartper. This fact should commend the SENTINE. Lie scattered round upon a common level. to you as a superior medium for advertising.

ADVERTISERS.

List of Agents for the Oregon Sentinel. who are authorized to transact any business concerning this paper, in the name of the pub- Don'lson is down l' ' set it up, of course.'

STRIFLE D 2	12
1. P. Fisher	X
Wadsworth & Raynes	1
J. M. McCall Ashland.	15
J. C. Davenport
W. W. Fowler Applegate
R.S. Dunlap
John P. Priudle, Kerbyville	2
A. R. Mellwain	1
A B. Mertwall and Konbergille
W. V. Rinehart	12
E. J. Forhes Wahlo	2
W. f. M. Svaus Althouse	1
Joel Thorn	L.
Rufus Mallory Roseburg	ι.
baac R. Moores,	1
F. M. Ellsworth	1
Y. Charman	1
D.W. Wakefield Albany.	12
Benjamin Cook, Corvallie	1
J. H. Smith Crescent City	1

BUSINESS CARDS.

G. W. GREER,

Physician and Surgeon,

OFFICE, CITY DRUG STORE,

Jacksonville, Oregon. DIAS, E. BROOKS, M. D. ..., L. E. THOMPSON, M.

BROOKS & THOMPSON, PHYSICIANS, SURGEONS

ACCOUCHERS. Jacksonville, Oregon. November 2d, 1861.

42

ORANGE JACOBS, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Jacksonville, Dregon.

WILL attend to business in the Courts of First Judicial District, and in the Both Rothschilds quail ; the church, the army Oct. 26:41 Supreme Court JANES M. PTLE.

PYLE & MALLORY,

Editorial Life. BY BASE.

O for a pen with Hogarth's genius rife To paint the scenes of Editorial life. The tale, I know, is rather trite and old, And yet, perchance, it may be freshly told, As some plain dish, a simple roast or stew,

Takes a new flavor in a French rogout. Seeve-a third story in a distant court, Where weary printers just at six resort ; A dingy door with a rattle shuts ;

Heaps of 'Exchange' much adorned with 'cats ; Pens, paste and paper, on the table strewed ; hy application to Postmasters and Mail Car- Books, toher ead when they have been reviewed; has by far a larger circulation in the counties. That only they who wrote them will e'er read PERSONS-the Editor ; enter, now, the Devil ; Please, Sir, since this 'ere article was wrote, There's later news perhaps you'd like to quote The Fed'rals storming with prodigious force,

And, Sir, that murder's done -- there's only left One larceny.' 'Pray, don't omit the theft.' And, Sir, about the mob-the matter's fat ' The mot-that's wrong-pray just distribute so gently, craving for peace? He is in the that."

And, Sir, here's an article has come to hand, A reg'lar, 'rig'nal package',--- 'Let that stand ! Ees the hup of Faust, and enter now A flerce subscriber, with a scowling brow ; Sir, curse your paper !--send the thing to !-Well

The place he names were impolite to tell ; Enough to know the hero of the Press frice, "Thomas, change the gentleman's address We'll send the paper, if the post will let it, Where the subscriber will be sure to get it ?'

Who would be an Editor ?- To write The magic 'we,' of such enormous might ; To be so great beyond the common span, it takes the plural to express the man ; And, yet, alas, it happens offentimes

A unit serves to number all his dimes! But don't despise him ; there may chance to is An earthquake lurking in his simple 'we'!' In the class preclusts of a dusty room That owes few losses to the lazy broom, There sits the man : you don't know his name. Brown, Jones or Johnson-It is all the same-Scribbling away at what may chance to seem Au idler's musing, or a dreamer's dream ; His pen runs cambling, like a straying stord ; The we' he writes seems very 'wee' indeed ; But mark the change , behold the wondrou-

Wrought by the Press in one eventful hour : To night 'tis harmless as a maiden's thymes ; To-morrow, thunders in the London Times ! The Ministry dissolves that held for years ; Her Grace, the Duchess, is dissolved in tears ;

openalized a The very kingdom to its center shakes t

dissail-Thanks to the we' of Johnson, Jones or Brown

Speech of Andrew Johnson. Senator from power on the Territorial Legislature, it went Tennessee.

The following extracts are from the speech of Senator Johnson, delivered in the Senate have no right to legislate so as to impair the recently, on the resolution to expel Senator right to private property ; that it should lay Bright, of Indiana :

1 am a Democrat now ; I have been one all my life : I expect to live and die one ; and the corner-stone of my Democracy rests upon the enduring basis of the Union. Democrats may come and go, but they shall never divert me from the polar star by which I have ever been Constitution, and taking the three territorial gaided from early life-the great principles of bills, embracing every square inch of territory Democracy upon which this Government resta. and which cannot be carried out without the preservation of the Union of these States. The pretense hitherto employed by many who are now in the traitors' camp has been, "we are for the Union ; we are not for dissolution ; int we are opposed to coercion." How long, Senators, have you heard that syren song sung ? Where now are those who sang those syren tunes to us? Look back at the last sesion, and enquire where are now the men who then were singing that song in our cars? Where is Trusten Polk, who then stood here rebel camp. Where is J. C. Breekinridge ?a mun for whose promotion to the Presidency 1 cuniarily : but when he satisfied me that he would cre long be a traitor to his country, I ugainst correion. Compromise, and the scene in the Senate at the great mass of the people, of which we have the time, the Senator said :

by, when he refused to vote, and I said to him their sentiments. I served with them in the the anchorage of Aix, and some old vessels of not save this proposition, and see if we cannot tion, that had no more confidence in, or respect bring the country to it ?" He gave me rather for the people, than has the Dey of Algiers. an abrupt answer, and said he would control I fought that close corporation here. I knew his own action without consulting me or any that they were no friends of the people. I body else. Said 1 " vote, and show yourself | gnew that Sidell, and Mason, and Benjamin. an honest man." As soon as the valo was Iverson and Toomba were the enemies of free cannot get any compromise," Here were six meneed the war upon them before a State semajority if they had voted. Who, then, has juity of free government. They seek to ever-Mr. Clark ? He was acting out his own pol- place. That is the great Lattle which is upon icy ; but with the help we had from the other our hands. The great interests of civil liberty avers MALLONY. The Corn Laws fail ; the price of bread somes to their constituents, and bad acted with falel his duty. ity to the country, the amendment of the Senator from New Hamshire could have been on to exclude certain powers, by using a negative form of expression; and it provided. among other things, that the legislature should no tax discriminating against one description of property in favor of another ; leaving the power on all these questions not in the Territorial Legislature, but in the people when they should come to form a State Constitution.

Now, I ask, taking the amendments to the in the United States, how much of the slavery question was left? What better compromiould have been made? Still, we are told that matters might have been compromised, and that, if we had agreed to compromise blondly rebellion would not be abroad in the land. Sir, Southern Senators are responsible for it. They stood here with power to accomplish the result, and yet treacheronaly, and I may say, tauntingly, they left this Chamber and announced that they had dissolved their connection with the Government. Then we were left in the hands of those whom we had been taught to believe would enerouch upon our rights, they gave us, in the constitutional amendment and in the three territorial bills, did what I could physically, mentally, and pe- all that had over been asked ; and yet gentlemen talk about compromise. Why was not was for breaking up this Government, and this taken and accepted ? No; it was not dropped him as I would the Senator from In- wanted power; they wanted to destroy this diana. He was here at the last session of Government, so that they might have place Congress ; and everyholy could see then that and emolument for themselves. They had lost he was on the road to the traitors' camp. In- confidence in the intelligence and virtue and stead of sustaining the Government, he, too, integrity of the people, and their capacity to was erying out for peace ; but he was bitter govern themselves ; and they intended to sepatate and form a government, the chief corner Allading to the defeat of the Crittenden stone of which should be slavery, distranchising acen constant evidence, and merging the powers I sat right behind Mr. B-njamin, and I am of government in the humis of the few. I not sure that my worthy friend was not close know what I say. I know their feelings and

"Mr. Benjimen, why do you not vote ? Why Senate. I know they were a close corporataken, he and others telegraphed South. "We government, and I know so now. I con-Southern men refusing to vote, when the cedeil ; and I intend to keep on lighting this these acts or propositions ; nor did the United amendment would have been rejected by four great hattle before the country for the perpe States ever for a moment think of interfering brought these evils on the country? Was it throw it, and to establish a despotism in its side of the Chamber, if all those on this side and free government call upon every lover of had been true to the Constitution, and faithful popular rights to come forward and discharge

STRANDE APPEORTON IN & COW .- The Silve

The Stone Fleet Blockade,

The London Times is clamorous and hitter against the blockade of Charleston harbor. and pronounces it one of the greatest crimes litia of a civilized Government. An Eastern writer thus refers to the record of England herself for precedents :

England has repeatedly made war in the been cited in my former letters. Another case occurred at Alexandria, in 1807. In that year, when the British troops evacuated the city and port, five vessels, laden with stone, were sunk in the narrow passage by which Admiral Lewis and his squadron had entered and departed. Another instance is that of the closing of the harbor of Bologne, in 1804, under the official letter of instructions from Lord Hobard to Sir A. S. Hammond, Controller of the Nuvy i

(MOST SECHET) DOWNING SPITEET, Feb. 0, 1804 Sir-It being thought advisable, under the present circumstances of the war, that an atempt should be made for carrying into execution the project suggested in the enclosed paper for choking up the entrance to the harbor of Bologne : and the success of such an enterprise depending in a great measure upon the averecy and dispatch with which the preparations may be made, I have the King's commands to signify to you that you take these preparations under your immediate control and that you communicate coefficientially with compromise that the leaders wanted ; they Mr. ----, supplying him with such funds, and clard in a few words by Gen. Grant's message giving him such orders for the purchase of to Gen. Buckner, ' I propose to move immedivessels, and providing hus the materials which ately on your works." you may judge necessary for accomplishing the object in view. As soon as the vessels shall be sufficiently laden, you will give instructions that they should proceed, with all expedition, to the Downs, where further orders to read the account, lately published, of the will proceed from Lord Kieth." trial of the great Union gun. There have

Again : Lord Dundonald, during the war with France, in 1809, in discussing the means of harassing the enemy, wrote officially the shot. This gun is twelve inches in d. ameter, and, being rifled, carries an elongated the line, well loaded, would be excellant for shot weighing 423 pounds-nearly, the same that purpose." weight as the round ball of Rodman's fifteen-Admiral Napler, during the late war in the meh gun, which is 425 pounds. Crimea, urged the destruction of the water ap-The London Engineer, in speaking of the proaches to Constrailt in the same way, and recent experiments at Shoeburyness, calis Armas an available mode of walling in the Russtrong's two bundred pounder the most powersian fleet and preventing it from participating ful ordinance in the world ; but the shot of in the Russian defense. Not a word of holy the big gun at Fortress Monroe is more than indignation was ever mentional against any of twice as large, and the gun is consequently more than twice as powerful. These two guns, the twelve inch rifled, and the fifteen inch in behalf of our uncient friend the Czar because mooth bore, are the most powerful pieces of of the " barbarity" of that suggested mode of ordinance that have ever yet been made. making war upon him. It Palmerston, with The introduction of iron-plated ships has all his double dealing and absence of scruples made it very desirable for sea-coast delence to are convince the Queen that England was all have enormous cannon, the shots from which wrong, and must punish, at any cost, whoever would break the iron plates to pieces. But, follows her examples, he will be apt to find until Rodman's improved mode of casting was that Louis Napoleus is not in alliance with

VOL. VII-NO, 12.

SECRETARY STANTON ON VICTORIES .- Sec. A CONFIRMED CASE -A Gentleman of exretary Stanton has addressed, the following cellent habits and very amiable disposition. letter to the New York Tribune, on the re- was so unfortunate as to have a wife of very cent victories in Tepaessee and North Caro- different character : in short, one that would

" I cannot suffer undue merit to be useribed a few intimates one evening, one of them reto my official action. The glury of our recent marked to him, that if she was his wife-since victorics belong to the gallant officers and sol- all other things had failed-he would frighten diers that fought the battles-no share of it her in some way, so that she would quit her ame fashion. Several instances have already belongs to me. Much has been recently said evil hubit, and proposed the following narthod : of military combinations and organizing a vie- that some time when dead drunk, she should tory. I hear such phrases with apprehensions, be laid in a hox shaped like a coffin and left They commenced in infidel France with the in that situation until her fit should be over, Italian campaign, and resulted in Waterloo, and consciousness restored,

Who can organize a victory ? Who can com A few evenings after, the dame being in a pine elements of success for the battle field ? proper state, the plan was put into execution : We owe our recent victories to the spirit that and after the box hid was properly secured. moved our soldiers to rush into battle, and the party before alluded to watched, each to filled the hearts of our enemies with terror and turn, to witness the result. About daylight dismay. The inspiration that conquered in next morning the watch heard a movement, battle was in the hearts of soldiers and from Inid himself down by the box, when her ladyon high, and wherever there is the same inspi- ship, after bumping her head a few times, was ration, there will be the same results. Patri. heard to say :

otic spirits, with resolute courage in officers "Bleas me ! where an 1?" The outsider and mer, is a military combination that never answered, in a sepulchral tone : " Madam, you failed. We may well rejoice at recent vieto are dead and in the other world." A pause ries, for they teach us that battles are to be ensued, after which the lady inquired again ; won now, and by us, in the same and only "Where are you ?" " Oh ! I am dead, too," manner that they were ever won by any peo- said he. " Can you tell me how long I have ple, or in any age, since the days of Joshua, been dead ?" " About three weeks." " How by holdly pursaing and striking the foe. What long have you been dead ?" " Four months." der the blessing of Providence, I conceive "Well, you have been here so much longer to be the true organization of victory and mil- than I have, can't you tell me where I can itary combination to end this war, was de- get a little gin?"

Now AND THEN .- The Secession newspapers have a great deal to say about the suppression of sundry treasmable sheets by the United States Government, creating as they have a spirit of disloyalty in the northern States, tending to paralyze the hands of the Government in the effort to gubdus rebellion, and thus aiding, in effect, the reliels themselves. But they seem to forget that for the past twenty years, newspapers, books and pumphlets have been excluded from the mails at the mere dicta of Democratic postmasters themselves, and that a Democratic Administration countenanced such things by refusing to reprimand or remove the actors of the outrage. One of Buchanau's postmasters wrote

thus in 1859 ; Post OFFICE, Lynchburg, Va., Dec 2, 59, Mr. Horace Greely-Sir : I hereby inform you that I shall not in future deliver from this office the copies of the Tribune which come here, because I believe them to be of that incenduary character which are forbidden circulation alike by the laws of the land, and a proper regard for the safety of society. You will, therefore, discontinue th

Respectfully, R. H. GLASS, P. M. The simple difference between now and then is, that now papers are excluded from the mails by the Government which has the right under the Constitution to do so. Then, they were suppressed by the mere creatures of the Government.

ORIGINAL ANREDOTE OF BURNS, --- As Lord

Done," said the other ; and immediately

Baugh ?" Burns stopped at once, least get beastly drunk. Iking in company with

ATTORNEYS AT LAW Roseburg, Douglas County, Ogn.,

WILL attend to any business confided to Falthful and constant to its sacred trust r them, in the several Courts of the First Calm in its utterance ; in its judgments, just ; Judicial District of Oregon, and in the Su | Wise in its teaching ; uncorrupt, and strong October 26:41

WAR SCRIP, WAR SCRIP. Du Freedom's shores & weak and venal Press.

B. F. DOWELL, ATTORNEY AT LAW. gen, and in Yrekn, Cal. He has an agent at Washington, and expects

C. P. SPRAGUE. ATTORNEY AT LAW, KERBYVILLE, JOSEPHINE COUNTY, OGN., April 13, 1861-130

W. G. T'VAULT, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Oregon, and is the Supreme Court. Office on JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

10:06

May 25th, '61.

PETER BRITT. PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTIST Jacksonville, Gregon.

sprepared to take Pictures in every styles the Art, with all the latest improvements. I

BPHCC'H'C HR HORS to not give satifaction, no charges will be made Call at Funk's Cigar Store, or at the Gallery on the Hill, and see his Pictures, 11tf

BD / . . . 955

Barber Shop, lieus of " New State Saloun," on Third St. SHAVING. Hair-cutting, Shampooing Cur ling and Hair Dyeing." Springfield Republican. Also, a genuine article of Fish's Ham RES-baarive, and Cristadora's Erection Hair Dye for rale. Jacksonville, Jan. 25. 24

L. H. DEWEY H AS opened a shop opposite Anderson & Glean's, on California speet, in Dr. L. og's drug store, for repairing WATCHES, CLOCKS, JEWELRY, ETC All work warranted to give satisfaction. Jacksonville, Dec. 22d, 1860. 49:1 49:19

by Harness and Saddlery establishment. HENRY JUDGE.

OB PRINTING of all descriptions neatly scaled at the SENTINEL OFFICE instead of married

Firm in the right, the dally Press should be The tyrant's for, the champion of the free ; country. Whose fault was it? Who is re- a cow : To speed the right, and to denounce the wrong.

Sad will it be when candor must confest of the Schator from California. They did it, for the boy so strong that it seems to particle tion from this locality. He is one of the party hardships of the camp. Many of them are volved in the present difficulty.

sen reading, conversation and thought, will terfering with the institution of slavery in the wherever he chose to lead ; unhesitatingly go- portion of these are men engaged in the pro- watch furtively, felinely; a mouth whose exnart of their youth beneath the auspices of organic law of the land. That constitutional the boy went at the request of bystanders.

the red planet Mars." No delicate carpet amendment came here after the Senators from they may not return either with the shield or passed by a two-third vote in the Senate. an old pair of breeches :

on it, they will bring back a will of iron and Have you ever heard of any one of the States When Tom Corwin was Secretary of the muscles of steel, better protection than any which had then secended, or which has since Treasury, a Hoosier came to him one day and brazen buckles. In the stern school of arms secended, taking up that amendment to the asked for an office. "What kind of a place they may, if they choose, acquire the chivalrie Constitution, and saying they would ratify it, will suit you ?" inquired Corwin. "O, I'm virtues of maguanimity and courage, and fit and make it a part of that instrument? No. not particular ; but it you could make me a themseres to be guardians of the defenseless Does not the whole history of this rebellion kind o' minister, not one of them that preaches, and channions of the right. And they will re- tell you that it was revolution that the lead- but them kind as goes to forintparts." " I remember for years how simple are the necessar ers wanted, that they started for, that they in- gret to say that all the minister's offices are ries of life, and what hearty enjoyment may tended to have? The facts to which I have filled." replied Corwin. " O, it's no matterbe found in the absence of luxury and folly .- referred show how the Crittenden proposition you can put me in one of the Departmentsmight have been carried ; and when the Sen- make me Controller, or Auditor, or some such ators from the slave States were reduced to thing." " I'm very sorry," said Corwin, "that Curran, in his ""West India Rambles," tells one fourth of the members of this body, the there's no present vacancy in the Departof a planter in one of the islands, who had a two Houses passed a proposition to amend the menta." " Well, then, you can make me Colslave that had been on the grounds for thirty Constitution, so as to guarantee to the States lector, Surveyor, or Naval Officer, can't you ? years. When on his death-bed, he sent for his perfect scenarity in regard to the institution of "I'm sorry to say that I have no place of that negro, and said to him : "Tom, youv'e been a slavery in all future time, and prohibiting kind vacant at present." Finally the fellow faithful servant ; I have given you your free- Congress from legislating upon the subject. came down to clerk-ship, a tide-waiter's place. dom in my will, and ordered that when you But what more was done? After Southern and even that of a messenger. Finding he die, you he haid beside me in my tomb." Senators had treacherously abandoned the could get nothing, he said, "Well, Mr. Cor DACK-SADULES constantly on hand at Tank ye, massa," said Tom, " for de freedom : Constitution, and deserted their posts here, win, as you and I are about of a size, couldn't but for de tomb, radder no." "Why, Tom?" Congress passed bills for the organization of you give me some of your old clothes ?" "You so de debil come, sir ; all dark, you three new territories. Dacotali, Nevada, and those bills, after conferring, affirmatively, quette's tears.

know-he may make mistake, and take 'Tom' Colorado ; and in the sixth section of each of 'Tux worst of all kinds of eye-water is a co him, but prefers to avail himself of the opporvoted down, the defeat of which the Senator Age, published in Carson City, relates the from Delaware, says would have saved the following instance of a strange attachment of drabbing which he considers indispensable to sponsible for it ? I think that is not only get. A boy, some twelve years of age, has, for ting the nail through, but chuching it on the three months past, had the care of a cowather side, and the whole staple commodity is the property of Milton Forsythe-milking and Pownon River, - Mr. D. S. Littleffeld, who at being able to present so good a description [1]] hay you a wager you cannot say anything taken out of the speech. Who did it ? fooding her daily. For some cause, to us in arrived from Powder river on the 10th ultimo, of this trial .- Hunt's Merchants' Magazine. to him that he will not make a ryhme of. Southern traitors, as was said in the speech explicable, the cow has formed an attachment called upon us and formished us some informa-

CAMP LIFE AS & TOXIC .-- An exchange They wanted no compromise. They accome more of a passion. She is never satisfied un that left Portland last August, induced by one ence of the St. Louis Republican says : Will practice in all the Courts of the Third speaks of the altered habits of our young vol placed their object by withholding their less the hoy is with her, and his only way of Adams, regarding the discovery of gold on the The Governor of Oregon, taking an infa-District, the Supreme Coart of Ore- unteers, acquired by roughing it amid the votes ; and hence the country has been in- escaping from her uncouth demonstations of Malheur river, to undertake a prospecting trip mous advantage of the decree of God, which from head to foot, he quietly answered, love is to confine her, which he frequently in that section. Failing to find paying dig left the seat of Baker vacant, has dared to and Fall, and any business will receive prompt attention. In y25:19 for close tooms of the Powder to the second of the Second from New and anuscuents to which keys are addicted. This would have for close rooms, soft heds, e'aborate cookery. Hamshire, and adopt the Crittenden resolu- It some times happens that the cow is turned river. He showed us a specimen of the gold so-med impossible out of Oregon. When and other enervating insuries of home. There tions, certian Southern Senators prevented it ; loose whilst young Cafel is engaged at a game obtained there ; it is coarse, and appears to every heart from the Peaobscot to the gold is no doubt that they may acquire more vigor and yet, even at a late day of the session, af- of ball. She immediately hunts him up and he of a fine quality. The mines are situated sanded Frazer's river was howed in e-rrow. ous stamina, physical and mental, for the ter they had seeded, the Crittenden proposi as speedily disperses the crowd. No hoy is on Griffin's guich near Powder river. There encoded by pride, for the death and the glory simple and hardy regimen to which they are tion was only lost by one vote. If rehellion allowed to come near her pet, and woe to the are eleven men belonging to Mr. Littlefield's of Baker, did it not seem impossible that any restricted. Our life gets subdivided by a thon- and bloodshed and murder have followed, to dog or man that should offer violence to Billy, party, who will remain during the winter, and man could be found to gratify a cheriched Will punctually attend to business entrasted to saud interests until it is belittled. It is not whose skirts does the responsibility attack? So singular are the actions of this minual that they are the only miners on that gulch. He malice by the awful opportunity of the hour much of any one thing, but a general hash and I summed up all these facts myself in a speech almost every day a public exhibition is called reports the diggings as yet in an embryo con and to take a hideous vengence on the hated chowder of all. Life in camp is marvelously during the last session ; but I have preferred for to satisfy some stranger that the stories dition, none having worked sufficiently to de name of the glorious dead by dishonoring the simple. It has a few great ains, a few enabling to read from the speech of the Senator from told are correct. The day before yesterday termine what they will yield. More or less place his genius had illumined, by the presence impulses, a few regularly occurring occupa California, he being better authority, and hav- Billy brought out his cow to satisfy some prospecting is being done on gulches and of his and the country's detractor? It is too without any political remark or allusion to the WELL attend to business in the several Courts in the Several Courts in the First Judiclal District of glowing with cuthusiasm, is poured into a warnke mould and hardens into manliness. Those sion ? The House of Representatives passed, ruted guardian by running into a crowd of that section. They report good prospects, man, he should suc his face for libel. He has fuliferin M., epposite "Scattinel" Office, who shan idieness and low associations, those and some two hundred people ; but the natural but are looking for rich diggings. Littlefield a long, evasive countenance : shiny, sandy who keep the heart warm by frequent letters the Constitution of the United States, so as fears of the animal were overcome by the love states that there are not to exceed twenty men hair ; narrow forchend ; white eye-brows ; from home, and the head busy with well-cho- to prohibit Congress from ever hereafter in she hore her young master. She followed him in the Grand Ronde valley, and a large pro- colorless, pale eyes, nearly closed, which have no cause to regret that they passed a States, making that restriction a part of the ing up stairs, into buildings or anywhere else spective route to Saimon river and in build- pression is hidden by mahogany whiskers and ing a mill. There are only two families settled monstaches. I should think he would feel ill in this valley. Mr. Stephen Coffin's mill is at case in Baker's place. I should think the knights will they prove henceforth, and though seven States had secended; and yet it was Asymmus from a Foreign Mission down to progressing, and will probably be completed ghost of the dead patriat, murdered by the

in about three months .- Statesman, W. T. treason that Stark has smiled upon, would Bons CCRED by CREOSOFE. Dr. Lynch, rise before him and discomfort him. He is (in the Electric Medical Journal), in treating not to be envied in his honors. The tool of a boils as a kindred disease to erysipelas, says ; In all cases creosote is an effectual local remedy. It produces a blister, over which forms an eschar, or scab, when the sore readily heals. And I have never known a single failure where the remedy has been applied prior to the formation of a core, or the death of a portion of the arcolar tissue. I have broken up whole crops of boils with this agent, without any other treatment. How it acts, or its modus operandi, in these cases, let pathologists determine. But when the tumor has come to a head, as a certain stage of its development. in common parlance, is termed, creosote will London without cockneys, Cologne without afford no service ; and then supuration should be favored by emollient applications, such as thieves ! It is announced, however, that the quiet dream. poultices, iomentations, &c., till the core is disongaged, when the ulcer rapidly heals under simple dressing."

picked up in the bay, name unknown.-Sim the good old Union times, pray, what will ?- Hope-A lone star beauting o'er a harve Francisco papers of any date.

invested, it was impossible to make cataton strong enough to bear the charges regula d to Crawford and Lord Boyd were one day walk-Bline, preparatory to giving England the give effective velocity to balls weighing 400 ing over the lands in Ayrshire, they saw Barns pounds. These circumstances cause poculiar plowing in a field hard by. Lord Crawford interest to attach to the trial of the twelve- said to Lord Boyd, " Do you see that roughinch rifled cannon, and we are much pleased looking fellow across there with the plough ?

"Yours truly, "EDWARD M. STANTON."

THE MOST POWERFUL GUS IN THE WORLD.

We are sure that none of our renders will fall been guns made in Europe of much larger calibre than this, but none of them of sufficient strength to give any considerable velocity to

A SENATOR .- The Washington correspondgoing up to the hedge, Lord Boyd cried out against the plow, and surveying his availant

It's not Lord Crawford, but Lord Boyd, Of grace and manners he is void-Just like a bull among the rye, Cries ' baugh !' at folks as he goes by." The wager was of course won.

The Philadelphia Logairer says that, in onformity with the usage, after the election of Bishop Stephens to the assistant bishopric of Panusylvania, a notice to that effect was sent, a Fortress Mouroe, to the various hishops of he Southern States, requesting their acquiesmore But one realy was received that from Bishop Atkinson of North Carolina, who, consent. This may be looked upon as a tacit acknowledgement of Union feeling, and a denial of the divided condition of the Episcopal Church in the United States.

A TERRIBLE FATE FOR JEFF .--- At a festival on some occasion among the soldiers in Missouri, one of them from Adrian offerred the following extravagant sentiment, which is printed in a Missouri paper, from which we

" Jeff. Davis-May be be set affont in an open boat, without compass or rudder; may the boat and its contents be swallowed by a disaffected Governor, the misrepresentative of shark, and the shark by a whale, the whale its the honest sentiment of his State-the succesthe devd's belly and the devil in hell, the door sor of a man who dwarfs him, he is to be conlocked and the key lost ; and further, may he gratulated only by his pay, and his ample be chained in the southwest corner of hell, and a northeast wind blow ashes into his eyes to all eternity !" NEW ORLEANS IN & BAD WAY .- The city

Religion-A key which opens wide the of New Orleans must be in a dreadful way, when it is reported that all the gambling- gates of Heaven.

Death-A knife by which the ties of earth houses have been closed. When a profligate omes to that pass that he has to leave off are riven.

Earth-A desert through which pligrims his vices, it is well accounted a sign of breaking up. New Orleans without gambling-hells? wend their way.

Preposterous ! One might as well think of Grave-A home of rest which ends life's weary way.

Resurrection-A sudden waking from a stinks, or New York without Aldermanic

Heaven-A land of joy, light and love su-" sports " are holding indignation-meetings over this unbeard of raid on the profession. preme, Faith-An anchor dropped beyond the Well they may ! If this measure does not ONE OF THE WONDERS .- The body of a man make the Creacent City long to get back to vale of death.

heath

Endern Paper.

mileage. Perhaps he is satified with that,