

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

[From Sacramento Union, May 7.]

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—We will address our fellow citizens on the momentous questions of the day, at the following times and places:

On Wednesday evening, May 21st, at Tooman's School House.

Thursday evening, May 23d, at the Plymouth School House.

Friday evening, May 24th, at Evansville.

Saturday evening, May 24th, at Sterling.

Any gentleman believing different from ourself will be heard in reply and treated with the courtesy due an honorable opponent.

We hope that our friends will let these appointments be extensively known, so that all may have a chance to hear for themselves. Most of the last week in June, we shall spend in Josephine county, and will send our friends there, word in due time.

ANDY JOHNSON'S SPEECH.—We call the attention of our readers to the speech of this gentleman, lately delivered at Nashville, Tennessee. It is a clear and manly statement of the great issue of the day, and completely explodes the doctrine of Oregon's little Judicial Compromiser. Read it, and let your Secession sympathizing neighbors have the benefit of your knowledge. It shows how the Crittenden Compromise was defeated and who done the work. It states the emphatic and conclusive truth, that Southern Senators treated it with scorn and contempt. And still their treason, according to the doctrine of a certain Judicial Doctor, is to be transformed into virtue, by its filtrating energies. What a glorious world this is!

PLAYED OUT.—It has been said that excessive are a very poor substitute for genius, and we are slightly inclined to believe that they are a poor compensation for expected favors. We have been apologizing for half-sheets and small sheets, but we are not going to do it any more—that's fairly played out. Suffice it to say that we will resume our usual size as soon as our paper arrives.

SAD ACCIDENT.—The little daughter of William Naucke, of Kirbyville, between two and three years of age, fell into a well, about 2 o'clock P. M. on Tuesday 13th inst., and was drowned. She had been missing about a half-hour when discovered, and all efforts to restore life proved unavailing. She was an interesting child, and her parents have the sympathies of the community in their bereavement.

INDIANA.—We have been shown a letter from the Superintendent of Indian Agencies for Oregon, stating that he had given permission to 15 or 20 Rogue River Indians to return to this section, and to spend the summer at their old haunts. The Superintendent recommends them for their friendly disposition and peaceful habits. So don't be alarmed.

SALE BY AUCTION.—The personal property belonging to the estate of A. G. Wilkins, deceased, will be sold, on Foots Creek, Monday 21st. The property consists of horses, cows, hogs, sheep, farming implements, household furniture, etc. See Administrators notice in another column.

POTATOES.—Mr. Eber Emery, of Ashland, laid on our table some time ago, some very fine specimens of the huge Peach Blossom potato. They are very fine. The best potato we ever ate. There are but few of them in the country. Mr. Emery has a small quantity for sale. Every farmer ought to get a few.

REFUSES THE HONOR.—Ferdal Sutherland, nominated on the seceder ticket in Douglas county for member of the Legislature, refuses to be a candidate for such a crowd. He thinks Mallory and Watson are the proper men for Representatives.

THE MARKET.—There has been but a slight change in the market since our last. We note them here: shoulders—hog, advanced from 12 1/2 to 15 cts.; fresh butter, 50 cts.; coffee, 40 cts. There are no beans in the market.

REALTY.—On Tuesday of this week, Nick Houpe took his claim on the right hand fork of Jackson creek, a slug worth $280 00. The result of the whole day's work was $300 00. Guess that claim will pay.

HIBERNIA.—We have received another communication from our esteemed correspondent, Hibernia, but we regret to say that it is necessarily crowded out this week. It will appear in our next.

DR. D. S. HOLTOS.—This gentleman has been appointed Assistant Surgeon to the Oregon Cavalry Regiment. This will gratify his many friends in Southern Oregon.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—Mr. Jas. Clagge has returned from California. The sea breeze appears to have agreed with him, for he is looking young, hearty, and handsome than ever.

JOHN F. MILLER'S LETTER.—We reprint this celebrated letter this week. The demand for it has been very great, and as catarrhs to the public taste, we are bound to supply the demand. We see that some of our California contemporaries are inclined to make fun of this letter. But they don't know much down there, no how. One epistolary dash of this gubernatorial aspirant would knock the whole race of California scribblers into "pi." Look out, gentlemen!

The Governor of Oregon is ex officio Superintendent of Public Instruction. Of course, the friends of education will vote J. F. Miller, regardless of the momentous issue!

AMITY, May 24th 1861
Editor Sentinel
Sir, I have been a subscriber to the Oregon Sentinel from its first issue up to the present time, and have been pleased with its politics up to the present time. But from the present tone of the paper I think it would suit some few Negro in Massachusetts better than my self so if you are willing to risk him for the pay you can do as you please about sending it to him, but do not send it to me again.
Yours in haste
JOHN F. MILLER

Not less than fifty steamers are engaged in transporting the balance of the army to that point.
On Monday last the enemy took one Pennsylvania battery, having first killed all the horses. The battery had but a small infantry support, who were overpowered and compelled to surrender. Before the close of the day this battery, with one of the enemy's, was recaptured.
We have just learned that the enemy have destroyed all the bridges across the Chickahominy river. McClellan is resting his army this side of the river. The Chickahominy runs parallel with the James river, into which it flows.
CHICAGO, May 10th.
The city of Norfolk and Portsmouth Navy Yard are ours. The steamer Merrimack was blown up by the rebels. A naval engagement lasting one hour and a half, took place at Fort Wright. On Saturday one rebel boat was sunk and two blown up, only two of our boats were engaged.
FORTRESS MONROE, May 10th.
Norfolk is ours, also Portsmouth and the Navy Yard.
Gen. Wool with a force of 5,000 men, went to Willoughby Point, opposite and south of Fortress Monroe, Friday night, and effected a landing this morning. He commenced his march to Norfolk five miles from the landing. A rebel battery was stationed on the opposite side of Lander's creek. After a few shots the rebels retreated, after burning the bridge, which compelled our troops to march around 5 miles further. At 5 P. M. they were within a short distance of Norfolk and were met by citizens who formally surrendered the city. Our troops marched into, and now hold possession of it. Gen. Hagar, commanding the rebel forces, withdrew without a fight. Gen. Vint commands our Military Government, and neither city or Navy Yard were burned.
FORTRESS MONROE, May 11th.
The Merrimack was blown up by the rebels at five o'clock this morning. The Monitor and the Naugantuck gunboat have gone to Norfolk.
CAIRO, May 11th.
News from Pittsburg up to Saturday noon, received, say a reconnaissance of four companies Illinois cavalry fell into a rebel ambush on Thursday, but cut their way through, leaving a Major killed and six wounded. A deserter since arrived says the rebels lost 30 killed and wounded.

On Friday a superior force attacked Gen. Payne's division on the left wing and the engagement lasted one hour, when the rebels, receiving reinforcements, Gen. Payne retreated to Farmington. Our loss is 130 killed, wounded and missing.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 10th.
Deserters from Louisiana regiments in the fight on Friday just arrived, state that the rebel forces making the attack on the left wing Friday night, was 30,000, with 30 pieces of artillery, under Gen. Van Dorn, Harding and Price, their object being to overwhelm and drive our left wing into the river. Their loss in officers and men was very heavy; ours, so far as ascertained, is 30 killed and 70 wounded. All quiet in front.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 10th.
At the election held in this place on Monday, for City Officers for the ensuing year, the Secesh were most beautifully cleaned out, by a majority ranging from fifteen to twenty-one. The Union men went into the work with great zeal, and the result of their labors astonished the most sanguine.
On the Saturday evening previous, the Union men held a meeting at the Court House, and unanimously nominated the following ticket, on the platform "The Union Forever": Great enthusiasm was manifested, and stirring patriotic speeches were made by Jos. D. Love, Dr. Steele and Gen. Levey.
For Mayor—A. H. Steele, Recorder—J. E. Harford; Council—W. W. Buck, D. H. Glend, D. P. Thompson, A. L. Levey, John D. Demott, F. Barclay and F. Charman; Treasurer—E. Milwain; Assessor and Collector—J. E. Harford; City Attorney—W. C. Johnson; Street Commissioner—Joshua Bowman; Marshal—C. M. Kester; School Supt.—F. Barclay.
This Union triumph may be regarded as but a foretaste of what the people will settle next June, that disaffection and the expression of treasonable sentiments, entitles no one to public position, but, on the contrary, damns, and should damn, the man who holds such ideas, to obscurity and contempt. The instincts of the party opposed to the Union, may very readily be recognized by the polite remark of an old seceder who stood near the polls, when a naturalized citizen, and a quiet gentlemanly man, came to exercise a freeman's privilege by casting his vote. Seeing him drop a red, or Union ticket, seceder cried out in a loud tone to some one across the street, "Come over here and kill this d—d Jew, he's voting the abolitionists ticket!" The same impulse that led Joe Lane with his more aristocratic or more prosing secession friends, to vote against free homestead bills, and thus to discourage the emigration of an industrious class of foreigners, who, fleeing from oppression and intolerance in over-crowded Europe, would find homes and independence throughout our prairies and pleasant valleys, is strikingly illustrated, and is shown to be equally shared by the one-hour aristocrats of the peace secession party in Oregon.—Argus.

THE BATTLE OF SHILOH.—Soon after the battle of Shiloh, the telegraph announced the losses of the belligerent armies as 15,000 on the Federal side and 35,000 on the side of the rebels. The exact loss of the Federal army, as stated in the official report, was 13,575 of which number nearly 4,000 were killed or wounded. This is a close approach to the first rough estimate. But the rebels certainly did not lose 35,000 men. A correspondent who was made prisoner by the enemy, but subsequently liberated, reports that they estimated their loss at 4,000 killed and 12,000 wounded or 16,000 in all. As nearly 3,000 of them were found dead on the field, this correspondent's statement must be an approximation to the truth. The forces engaged on both sides numbered 140,000 men. Exclusive of prisoners, the aggregate loss in killed and wounded was over 25,000 men—or more than one-sixth of the number engaged.

THE "PEACE DEMOCRACY."—The character of the peace party is well illustrated in an incident that is said to have occurred lately at Eugene City. An old whiskey soaked disciple of Jeff Davis, who lives in Lons Tom, was putting into his wagon at Eugene City a keg of powder, when a bystander asked him what he intended to do with so much ammunition. Seemingly replied, "Gwine to take it home—that's what I'm gwine to do with it; and if any of these d—n L'kinites comes round there, I'll show 'em what I'll do with powder and lead. I'm a peace demmycrat—I am."—Argus.
At Lyon, the other day, a Sunday School teacher asked a little girl who the first man was. She answered that she didn't know. The question was then put to an Irish child, who answered, "Adam, sir," with apparent satisfaction. "La!" said the first scholar, "you needn't feel so grand about it—he wasn't an Irishman!"
REX EVERY BODY.—It is said one company on Salmon river took out three puts of gold dust in one day, and it was not a very good day for mining either.
POWDER RIVER.—Some miners have returned from Powder river cursin; the whole as a humbug, so say the Northern papers.

Platform of the Union Party of Oregon.
The following resolutions were adopted by the Union State Convention, held at Eugene City, April 9th, 1862.
Resolved, That we will ever support the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administrators of their domestic concerns, and the surest bulwarks against anti-republican tendencies, and preserve the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our peace at home and safety abroad.
Resolved, That we are in favor of the suppression of the present wicked rebellion; of a vigorous prosecution of the war, so long as necessary to frustrate the schemes of armed traitors.
Resolved, That we are opposed to any peace other than the honorable and sure one to come when rebels and their sympathizers submit to constitutionally elected authorities of the Republic.
Resolved, That the General Government should exert its utmost energy to defend the Constitution, execute the laws and preserve the Union—and that in accordance with these resolutions, we pledge ourselves to support the nominees of this Convention.
State Executive Committee—HENRY FALLING, B. F. HARDING, HIRAM SMITH, GEORGE H. WILLIAMS and S. HEULET.

Every Housekeeper experiences how difficult it is to make good bread, and we therefore take pleasure in calling attention to the fact that, to insure uniformly light, sweet and nutritious bread, it is only necessary to use Redington & Co's Yeast Powder, which, in every respect, excels all similar preparations ever offered to the public. See the advertisement in another column.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The stomach is the fountain-head of sources of disease which infest the human system. Indigestion, bad enfeebled bowels, generative diarrhoea, dysentery, faintness, vertigo, palpitation of the heart, general debility, etc. Get rid of it at once, then, by going through a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. A palatable and refreshing preparation, which as surely relieves all complaints of the stomach and its dependencies, as the sunshine melts the snow. A course of the medicine may not, perhaps, be necessary. One bottle frequently accomplishes a complete cure. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. 12

THE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL PRACTICE OF L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., which places it as well as above the usual of the practice. In the schools of the prizes are often awarded to this department of Medical science. Dr. Czapkay occupies with others an equally lofty position in the profession. He is a Hungarian emigrant, a shining light among the philosophers of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully qualified him in this country, as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a diploma and the honorary ad eundem. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary Army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento st., corner of Liederholl, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.
We ask the particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. 16cm
