

UNION, A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDIS-PENSABLE."- Washington,

UNION STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR CONGRESS.

J. R. M'BRIDE.

FOR GOVERNOR.

A. C. GIBBS.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE, SAMUEL E. MAY.

FOR STATE PRINTER. HARVEY GORDON.

FOR STATE TREASURER,

E. N. COOK. FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

OF PIEST JUDICIAL DISTRICT. JAMES F. GAZLEY.

JACKSON COUNTY UNION TICKET.

For State Senator, JACOB WAGNER.

For Representatives, LINDSAY APPLEGATE.

1. D. HAINES. For County Judge, J. C. TOLLMAN

S. D. VANDYKE,

For County Clerk, WM. HOFFMAN.

For Sheriff, W. H. S. HYDE.

For Treasurer,

E. S. MORGAN. For Assessor,

P. H. LYNCH.

For Surveyor, B. F. MYER.

For Superintendent of Common Schools, M. A. WILLIAMS.

> For Coroner, L. S. THOMPSON

Public Administrator.

E. E. GORE.

Commissioners. ABRAM TENBROOK JOHN S. LOVE.

DOUGLAS COUNTY UNION TICKET.

For Representatives, RUFUS MALLORY. JAMES WATSON.

For County Judge, WILLIAM R. WILLIS.

For Superintendent of Common Schools, EDWIN LATHROP.

> For County Clerk, R. H. DEARBORN.

For Sheriff,

LEONARD HOWE. For Treasurer,

CRAWFORD GADDIS.

For County Commissioners, S. B. BRIGGS,

A. A. McGEE For Assessor, LEONARD BUELL

JOSEPHINE COUNTY UNION TICKET.

For Representative, J. V. R. WITT.

For County Judge, THOMAS CROXTON.

For Sheriff, BAMUEL R. SCOTT.

For Cierk,

WM. M. EVANS. For Treasurer,

AUGUSTUS TAYLOR. For Assessor.

SILAS DRAPER.

For County Commissioners, ISAAC THOMPSON, THOMAS F. FLOYD.

For Coroner,

WILLIAM SAWYER.

For Superintendent of Common Schools, R. J. FORBES.

FOR THE UNION .- Newell, of the Dulles. Mountaineer, who attended the Convention at Corvallis, called in the name of Democracy, repudiates the whole Secession ticket there nominated, by hoisting the names and advocating the election of the entire Union ticket. He is a true Democrat, and cheerfu'ly works with loyal men to kill Secession.

Henry Clay.

I am for ascertaining whether we have a Govment or not-practicable, efficient, capable who choose to raise the standard of disunion, not be conquered. The South is fighting in a and endeavor to prostrate the Government, good cause, for government and order, and And, sir, when that is done, so long as it pleases they cannut be conquered. " God to give me a voice to express my sentimay be by age, that voice and that arm will be coerce a State;" none of that mock humanity viz: 'Resurregard, or Benn Regard,' tribunals to the arbitrament of the sword-came in contact with our wenderful ex judge : and affinot further waith not." wept, unlinnored and unsung."

is it to be spilt?" He answers, " by the fault profound! waste of human life? Clay has given the an the South and are said to be doing well. swer. He has placed the responsibility where it belongs. Traitors and their abettors are my, to remain forever. In view of our present every sense of truth and honor.

horrors of disunion and disintegration.

The Evidence-

We present below a summary of the testimony showing the disloyalty of Senator Stark. State of Oregon. Stark is their Senator : forth as his champions and defenders. They by snubbing a non-resistant. justify and applaud him now, and claim that he is a good Union Democrat, standing fairly will be their candidate before the next Legisnow?-what can be do?-branded as he is, a land : . If there be any war between the North Government in existence : that the United States Government is broken up; that Jeff from any such course by intimations of the jamin Stark make use of the following lan- Duff," etc. from any such course by intimations of the guage: "The United States forces may ago: spilling of blood. If blood is to be spilt, by the South from one end of their government the South from one end of their government. whose fault is it to be spitt? Upon this suppo- to the other, but it will amount to nothing : sition. I maintain it will be the fault of those they will close up behind them, and I bey can-ments, or an an arm, weak and enfechled as it acquainted with Benjamin Stark, of the city these Dixie Democrats: of Portland, county and State aforesaid, and never prostituted his eloquence to gild the A. W. Sweet, being duly sworn, so a that black malignity of treason, or to whitewash be " Is personally nequalitied with B-njamin the henious wickedness of traiters. If they of the Southern Confederacy; that he knows rebelled against the Government—if they rethis from personal conversation with said fused to submit to its laws, and appealed from Stark, and that his language is full and extion of their oppressors, and in many inrebelled against the Government--if they re- this from personal conversation with said the decisions of its constitutionally appointed plicit and as tra literous as I ever heard any stances, their murderers. one utter, and without condition."

he was " for trying the strength of the Gov-a resident of the county and State af-result dissauded from any such course by intimations, bad some conversation with said Stark in relof the spilling of blood." How different this ern States; and the said Stark argued and language from Oregon's little judicial compro-maintained that any State had the right to sewhose clarion notes stirred a nation's patriot county or precinct or town had the right to inn! Thy reputation is seenre! Well is it second; that there were no Constitutional for Heavy Clay's reputation that he never tional right to correction into submission

"alarmed;" he must have been "dissunded." the Southern Confederacy as against the federate victories to develop its ten-colors. and he must have gone down to the grave "un. Union; and they recommended that he he arrested as a traitor and a spy as soon as he 3. "If blood is to be spilt, by whose fault reached Washington City. Unleaden how disunion, and endeavor to prostrate the Gov- by his ex Honor, which is lost amid the slum- pleasant village. The interest, which, in comerament." Who can gainsay this reasoning? bers of the night!! What a prolific night mon with all other loyal men. I take in the polls. It commends itself to every intelligent man as just and correct. If hattle-fields, then, are just and correct. If hattle-fields, then, are covered with heaps of slain, the mutilated and sudden! These whiskered babics seem to be the dying, who must meet the dread responsition that ill suited to the atmosphere as yet. They cral editorial friends, aware of this, have rebility?-who is accountable for this murderous are nursed by " Know Nothing" grannics in quested communications. The promise made the guilty authors. Malcontents in the South To have personal altereations with any one I had traveled this road before, and having raised the standard of rebellion, and compelled is exceedingly disagreeable to us. We never had some knowledge of those who were then a starving garrison within the walls of Fort court them-we always alon them. Still, we regarded as the leading men here, I have felt Sumter to lower the sacred ensign of the Re do not have that kind of virtue that enables considerable curlosity to learn their present public. They have inaugurated the robellion, its possessor to stand tamely and silently by political standing. On this topic, you may and on their guilty heads will the reverend while his personal reputation is being struck already be informed; and it is not improbable chroniclers of the dead affix the brand of infa- down by the vile vituperation of men lost to that I shall tell you nothing new. I must of the great orator of America : " So long as in this county, told the numience that we were tueste as to covertain you but very indifferit pleases God to give me a voice to express publicly known as an Abolitionist in Marion cutly, I am confident, sir, that you will parmy sentiments, or an arm, weak and enfectled county. His design was manifest-it was to don me; and, at least, accredit me for honas it may be by age, that voice and that arm direct against us the just resentment felt by esty of intention.

Personal.

in French Bar Wigwam of Know Nothings. public putronage. Wesley C. Hull testifies, that " in the month Siskiyou county, in 1855? Do, you invite. - Most of the road through the Canon was in ing for Wendell Phillips, the most notorious of February, 1861, he heard said Benjamin days you challenge, investigation on that sub-much better condition than we had presumed of Abolitionists.

Stark make use of the following language in ject? Were you put into the californal chair it to be. At Canonville, I was informed that substance at the l'ostoffice in the city of l'ort- to give a point to Mr. Vining's tirale, at this VandenBesch had so far committed political place, against that order? We hope to have saicide, as to suffer his name to be put on the people of a State, choose to place themselves in and South, all my property is for sale at fifty place, against that order? We hope to have saicide, as to suffer his name to be put on the array against the Government of the Union, I cents on the dollar, and I will go and help the a little light thrown on this subject in the Secession ticket—a strategic measure to obam for trying the strength of this Government: South fight. The Palmetto flag is my flag, next issue of your paper. If the records of tain the votes of the Germans, if any of them The Southern Confederacy is the only legal the past are to be searched, we are in. We can be invelgled into disloyalty. At Yokam's are not afraid of ours, and hope that others Ferry, I heard a child called by the name of f maintaining its authority and upholding the Davis is fighting in a good cause, and it will may be able to look on theirs with calmness. Jeff. Davis a lasting disgrace, which those powers and interests which belong to a Govern- be impossible to defeat him.' That efterwards, If private character is a fit subject for politi- who have inflicted it will doubtless regret. ment. Nor, sir, am I to be alarmed or dissuaded upon another occasion, affant heard said Bun cal discussion, we are in, also, "Lay on, Mac. An interview with Col. Martin, at Myrtle

The Dixie Democrats.

Henry Law deposed that " He is personally of the hypocrisy of the late-born Unionism of success; that the statements about victories

"To the erricacy and premanency or your the general authority, and for the maintenance the 19th of December, 1861, I heard Stark constitutional and outrageous acts of despothe general authority, and for the maintenance of the powers of the Union."

Such is the language of this cloquent and patriotic man. Such the result at which he had arrived, after a most searching and prohad arrived, after a most searching and pro-bad arrived, after a most searching and pro-go South, and in a subsequent conversation in unheard of since the days of the French term. Whom the bystanders called Rose. He was found investigation of the Constitution of his the latter part of April, 1861, I asked said latton. They have passed have under which becturing an politics, using the Corvallis Cocountry. Such the particular of the Constitution of the Constitution of the Country. Such the particular determination of this property and go this noble man, when he contemplated the probable disasters of the future. Let us analyze this language a little, and draw a few lessons of wisdom from its noble and patrictic.

Such why he did not sell his property and go they have forced men of all ages to enter the time as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing its univergence that a fine is a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting and paraphrasing they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting they have forced men of all ages to enter the ion as a text-book; quoting out a shadow of law, property of Union in a Canon whisky. He spoke, in substance, as 1. He says, " if any one State, or any portion of the people of any State, choose to piace the reception of the reverse of the applied to the use of the redefarmy. Citithemselves in array against the Government at the time standing in the about of the Union, I am for trying the strength of Portland, county and loyal to the Civernment under which they both State and county offers my cordial supthe Generalization of the State aforesaid, did then and there distinctly were born. The local portion of the Southlate-born sympathy for treason in this, which exhibits itself in the assertion that the Govern-States, druk a treat in company with a real large horn lattine for the section of the Seath State to the Congress of the United lave been plumbered in the name of the rebal want in give your neighbor a note for five dolexhibits itself in the assertion that the Govern-States, draik a teast in company with a well bon, hundresis of citizens driven interestle, who hars, by Galal, you've got to buy a stampt ment of the United States has no right to known secessionist, to the following effect, refused to swear allegiance to the robel govern-note of some Ab-ab-lee-tionist abflicer, by ment. But these despotic encroschments upon Galid! Feller Dimmerats, you must all vote that presents traiters as the only objects for the corrected of our benevolence and elements:

A. M. Starr made oath that " He has heard the exercise of our benevolence and elements:

A. M. Starr made oath that " He has heard the rights, liberties and property of the South for Hardy; and we'l have this cussed walar field it is to make good bread, and we therefore the role; but there is a clear and emphatic councilation of the sold of bellion by armed force, or, in other words, by the exercise of its military power. Henry Clay was no apologist for treason—no sympathiser in the mad designs of traitors. He suits them; they access him of trampling on would inevitably prevent Rose from obtaining the constitutional rights of whom? Why, the rebels in arms and resisting the natherity of the Government of the United States, payment of his war bonds; that it may not men of the rebel States they have not a word him to know this; that he would not proba-

Unionism is too transparent to decrive any ple. Several leading men of his party were

Letter From Douglas County.

OARLAND, May 18, 1862.

Ed. Seatinel: On my way to the Salmon aspect around me, wherever 1 am; and sev to you was, that I would give you the result of observation in passing through Douglas however, evines the sincerity with which I difficulties, how heroic the eloquent language | Judge Wait, in his answer to us at Phonix | pledged my word; and should I be so unfor-

will be on the side of my country, for the sup- the patriotic against that character, and thus At Cow Creek, I met a man, with whom I port of the general authority, and for the to destroy whatever effect our remarks there had conversation, a few minutes and found maintenance of the powers of the Union." might have had. After having offered to prove him to be a Secsasionist. Wishing to learn There is no hope of compremise for traitors by gentlemen present who were well acquainted the prespects of his party. I asked, " Are these, add but few words more. When near the with arms in their hands in that noble declara- with us in Marion county, and gentlemen, too. abominable, Lincoln, Black Republicans likely tion; no whining sentimentality, no sickly who will vote for his ex-honor at the coming to carry this county in the next election?" benevolence throwing its mantle over bloody election, that the charge was false, we told the "No sir, e ! they don't do it ;" replied be; wertion that he would raise ten thousand crimes, but the glowing atterances of patriot lymphatic old granny to his face that he was and (sulting the action to the word), brought troops, to fight in behalf of the cause of Seism looking to the enforcement of law, and the a "base calumnistor and a villian," and, in ad-down his fist with a vengeance; (circumstances reasion. Floyd had already taken care to vindication of the principles of constitutional dition, that he was an "infamous liar;" and he preventing him from slapping two fists to send out arms for them. Narrow, ludged, has government, in opposition to the dictates of a took the language with all the cowardly indif- gether). " Good !" said I 2 " which are your lawless military despotism, and the bloody ferance that characteriz we man when he knows strongest precincts ?" He answered, "Wall. he utters an untruth. Driven to the wall in I reckon that Uncle-Billy, at Myrtle Creek, argument, and frantic with the desperation of and Aaron, at Roscharg will make suce of his circumstances, judicial stupidity suggested them places." To my inquiry relative to a no mode of extrication but a personal calum- good house at which to spend the night, his niation of us. From the air of personal defi- rendy response was, "The Jeff Pavia house. the patron saint of the Dixie-Democracy of the unce with which he made the charge, we mis- at this end of the Caron. Hardy Ettiff will took him for a "chiv," Had we known what take good keer of your loss, and you. When they claim him as theirs and he represents we now know about his plastic benevolence, he heard how that old Linkin's men get whiptheir principles in the Senate of the United we should have simply told him, you are mis- ped at Bull's Ron, you may bet he give an States. Knowing of the evidence against taken, ser; for, while we make no boast of per almighty loud hurrals for Jeff. Davis. He's States. Knowing of the evidence against him, they clamored for his admission, and stood sonal courage, we desire to win no notoriety gwine to be lected to the Legislatur. I spect fable. he'l take his family rite down to Salem and We did not allude to this disagreeable oc board the Dimmeeratic members. He says carrence at all in our subsequent issue, and he'l nomernate and leet Col. Martin for Sin and squarely on their State platform. He would not do so now had we not seen an allunator in Congriss." "Uncle Billy must be a THE CIVILLAX.—This is the title of a new sion to it in the Civilian, of this place. The man of some talents and brains." "I'm sar- paper printed in this town, in the office of the lature for election to the U. S. Senate, and blundering editor of that paper says, after tin be can write his name fast rate; I've seed defunct Gazette. S. H. Jenner is publisher. nothing is more certain than that, if the nom. stating the charge of Judge Wait, that he him do it darned well; and he helped keep and D. Wm. Douthitt temporary editor. It inces of the Dixic-Democracy in this county does "not profess to know anything about the Land Office. Agree nomernated Hardy hoists the Dixic-Democracy in this county diseases, together with the chronic results of are elected, they will support him. Voters of Southern Oregon, read the subjoined evidence.

Southern Oregon, read the subjoined evidence. and then answer at the ballot box whether will also receive especial care. you want such a man to represent you in the whether this loose-period man intends to father cuss old Linkin for stoppin our newspapers. loose-communion principle. Mr. Jenner is a Senate of the United States. What do you the charge or not. Suffice it to say, at this the Albany Dimmeral and Jucksonville Ga- Union man, of course, for he was a delegate tached.

The mo
capeet to gain by sending such a man to rep time, that we not only court investigation, but zelle. He says we shall be lowed none but to the Dixie Convention, in this county, and WARM. resent you in the Congress of the nation? we challenge it. Marion county is not over a Abolition papers." My traveling companion, has several times since been heard hurraling Will be have any influence there? Will be thousand miles from this place; get your proof who had been for a short time in the rear, came for Jeff. Davis. The publisher of this paper not be a stench in the nostrils of the loyal and and produce it, or stand libelled before the up, and we went onward. I mentioned the knows that Mr. Jenner, previous to the assempatriotic? What good is he doing for us public as culumniators of private character. "Jefl. Davis house," but, not liking the name, bling of the Chicago Convention, was an "ir-Now, one word to the editor of the Civil- we decided to lodge at Leven's Hotel; which repressible" Sewardite-believes he voted for Creek, was prevented by his absence. He had left the flour mill, I suppose, for his long accustomed work of electioneering. I am told We clip the following from the Sacramento that he carried out the spirit of the avowal Union of a late date, and commend it to our which he has habitually made, that Jeff Davis readers for its nervous and seathing exhibition is his President; that he heartily wishes him gained by the Federal troops, are false. But It is, however, worthy of note that the rebel I must be brief; with the mere passing men may be by age, that voice and that arm will be has been for five years, and has heard the said sympathisers—the Dixie D mocrats—have tion of Col. Burnett, an F. F. V., of old Jeems the general authority, and for the maintenance, the Duke of December 1961. I heard Stark need the following language: That on never a word of condomnation of the un-nearly on this wise : " Jest look ere, feller citizens, by Gahd! see what the ab-ab-lection, a patent for the land which he claims, and the For the suffering, oppossed and enined loyal be amiss for those who have bought land of ance, and were he to take it, the additional All right, Mr. Union. This class of a Dom charge of perjury would rise against him; ocrats" in Oregon claim now to be pure, ex and that the secesh candidate for county Judge and that he is personally acquainted with the cellent Union men. They were rapturous ex-r was giving an echo to the misrepresentations 2. Nor, says he, "am I to be plarmed or said Benjamin Stark; and that affiant has the defeat of the Federals at the battles of which Rose makes a business of circulating. Bull Run, Ball's Bluff, and Blg Bethel, but whenever he finds a person ignorant enough their ardor has cooled a little now. At first to give rise to the presumption that the decepthe South was right, and the North all wrong; tion may be successfully practiced on him. miser! Rest in peace, then man elequent code from the rest of the Union, and that a but these progressives have now come to the Mr. Rose has rendered the political reputation conclusion that "it is all wrong." But their of this village rather uniaviting to loyal peo-body. It comes at too late an bour. It is a mentioned to me; and I have a confused regrambling fault-finding querulous kind. There collection of the sames, of Hulse and Van came in contact with our wenderful ex Judge: and affined further suith not."

that he never listened to his honor's mouroful In addition to the above, thirty of Starks is a good deal of latent bate in it. It embodies Dusco; one of them, I think, was stage agent, Opening Display description of the fearful wickedness of spill- neighbors testify that he is well known and an indefinite quantity of Seccusion sympathy, and the other, driver; (by the by, the fact ing human blood. He would have been generally reputed to be an avowed friend of and needs but the effect of spirits, or of Con that a stage agent should be a prominent Secossionist, reflects no credit on the California Stage Company) : but which of the two had bean nominated for sheriff, I have forgotten; yet Rose is constantly on the alert, and no doubt the services of a few men of education of those who choose to raise the standard of It certainly must be of that kind described River mines, I have progressed as far as this will be seenred to see that tickets, having the approved names on them, are used at the > peat them as well as the original author-But, as every loyal State, by its ready compliance with the Presidents requirements-its troops in the field and more waiting at instant call if needed-its approbating legislative action, and continued encouragement afforded to the vigorous prosecution of the war-hagiven a perfect sanction to the conduct of Mr. Lincoln in the case of unprecedented and most moscentous necessity; and as there are among us traitors who would rejoice to see Davis or Beauregard apply the torch to our National Capital, I prefer that they should publicly censure the President for preventing the devastason, especially when self-conceit or desire for office, will not allow the guilt of their SPRING hearts to be veiled in concealment, but discloses the cloven foot,

Feeling much chaggined, in consequence of having trespassed so largely on your patience. I at andon the idea of connected narrative, and farm of Gen. Lane, who is now politically defunet, I could not avoid reflecting on his a been our escape from the horrors of civil war. Yet Rose and other Secessionists make the men who would gladly have brought this ruin upon us, their political bosom friends, and seek to place them over us as rulers. Their lasting record will be extremely unwelcome to their descendants. The large estate of Fendal Sutherlin is suggestive of far different thoughs. He wisely spurns the disgrace of receiving an office at the bands of traitors. My impression; of the village of Oakland, are favorable. The Messrs. Lord and the keepers of the two hotels, I have found to be courteons and at

Yours, with much respect and friendship,

Secessionist, before the grand inquest of the ian. Do you deny that you were Conductor I take pleasure in recommending as worthy of Lincoln for President, and would not be surprised, in a year hence, to hear him hurrahCARD.

Ma. Entron: - Pieuse permit me through your columns to set myself aright before the BRADBURY & WADE great mistake made somewhere in regard to v political sentiments.

Having been busily engaged away from home, for the last few weeks, I did not know home, for the last few weeks, I did not know how things stood here until I came home last Saturday, when I learned, for the first time, that the so-called "Union Democracy" had taken the liberty of using my name as their candidate for County Surveyor, without my knowledge or consent. Now, as I have also have a straightont. The shortest possible date, and the shortest possible date and the shortest possible date and the shortest possible date. knowledge or consent. Now, as I have al-or note, at the shortest possible date, and ways prided myself upon being a straightont debtors of long standing are urged to have Union man, it was extremely mortifying to payment, as the business must be closed up creditors will please present their claims for adjustment at their earliest convenience. any connection where my loyalty to the Government or country might reasonably be doubted; for at such a time as this, no man ins any business to be found astride the feace; he must stand unmistakably on one side or the other; and, in accordance with the above considerations, I take this first opportunity to demand that my name be forthwith scratched off from the so-called "Union Democratic Ticket."

This is no time for parties, and every loyal Uregen, under the name and style of BRAD.

itizen will not besitate to unite himself with BURY & WADE. izen will not besitate to unite himself with BURY & WADE.

They assume all the liabilities of the late unanimous Union organization, which ignores all parties, and goes in unequivocally for thorized to collect all demands due that house supporting the Government in its efforts to Debtors will please take due notice and settle put down the present rebellion.

up without delay.

LEWIS L. BRADBURY.

JAMES R. WADE. The Union party of this State, being such an organization, I shall give its candidates for Yours, for the Union, JAMES S. Howard.

Jacksonville, May 21st, 1862.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MISTAKE

Reduction!

Great

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Dissolution.

EDWARD S. MORGAN.

LEWIS L. BRADBURY, Jacksonville, Ogu., April 12th, 1862. 14q

Copartnership.

TO MAKE ROOM FOR

SPRING ARRIVALS,

WE WILL SELL

STAPLE GOODS

REDUCED RATES:

For Cash or Produce

CLOTHING.

BOOTS AND SHOES

Very Small Profits,

To Correspond with the Times

GOODS.

DRY

TUESDAY, the 27th of May,

-AT-

-ON-

GRAND

Cheap Cash Store,

-OF THE-

Largest and Most Fashionable

- STOCK OF -

SUMMER

Ever brought to this Market

Goods!

We respectfully solicit the patronage of th public, and guarantee satisfaction to all who may favor us with a call. SACHS BROS. Jacksonville, May 23, 1862.

PRIVATE HOSPITAL,

DR. G. W. GREER

especially those laboring under Chronic Dis-cases, such as Consumption. Rheumatism. Diar-

The most ample means for BATHING at

STEAM, COLD, and

BANKE,

OFFICE AT CITY DRUG STORE.

Jacksonville, Oregon, May 23, 1862.

G. W. GREER, M. D.

SHOWER

S now prepared with ample Hospital arrange-ments to accommodate the sick and affected,

BRADBURY & WADE.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PHENIX AND VICINITY.

HAVING bought the Stocks and Mercantile Business of Mesers, REDLICH & GOLD-SMITH and P. F. McMANUS, E-q., at the point, and leased the Brick Building lately occupied by the first named parties, we not offer inducements to the Public to favor w with their patronage.

We pledge ourselves to keep GOOD ARTI-CLES, and to sell them at the LOWEST JACK-SONVILLE PRICES, which are last coming down to Summer rates. Call and see.

We will take all descriptions of Produce that can be disposed of without a loss.

BRADBURY & WADE. PHCENIX, April 25, 1862.

EWIS L. BRADBURY,

BRADBURY & WADE,

Messrs. JANSON, BOND & CO.,

SAN FRANCISCO.

ORDERS for Goods and consignments of Oregon Produce solicited.