THE OREGON SENTINET

84 IN ADVANCE.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON, SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1862.

VOL. VII—NO. 26.

THE OREGON SENTINEL. HEXRY DENLINGER, Pub'r and Prop'r. Office over Clugage & Drum's Stables.

sementation-One year, in advance, Four plars Six months, Two Dollars and Fifty etc: three months, One Dollar and Fifty ats. Unless renewed, papers will be discon-used at the expiration of the time for which Accentists to One square (10 lines or less) iss lasertion. Three Pollars: each subsequent section. One Pollar. A discount of fifty per set will be made to those who advertise by the eirs you can learn that the Curcos Sestism. has by far a larger circulation in the counties Jackson, Josephine and Douglas, Oregon, ad Bel Norte, California, thun any other pa-This fact should commend the SENTINES. to you as a superior medium for advertising-the are nutherized to transact any business enterning this paper, in the name of the pub-

ADVERTISERS.

P. Fisher Bernegust Faxur. S. Duning Kerbyvill Kerbyville Emphart. Althouse M. Syans. Canyonville Safar Mallory M. Elisworth. W. Wakefield Benjamin Cook

L. P. FISHER'S Advertising Agency No. 539 Washington Street,

Nearly opposite Magnire's Opera House, SAN FRANCISCO.

Advertisements and subscriptions solicited for the Cartan SENTINE, and for the priscipal papers on the Partie coast. Advertisement-terearded to papers published in may portion of BUSINESS CARDS.

ORANGE JACOBS. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Jacksonville, Oregon.

II.I. attend to business in the Courts of WILL attend to business in the the First Judicial District, and in the Oct. 26:41. Supreme Court.

PYLE & MALLORY,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Resiming, Dongles County, Ogn.,

Julicial District of Oregon, and in the Sa-October 26:41

WAR SCRIP, WAR SCRIP. B. F. DOWELL,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Will practice in all the Courts of the Third Julicial District, the Supreme Court of Ore-gen, and in Yreke, Cal.

He has an agent at Washington, and expects to visit that city and the Atlantic this Summer and Fall, and any business will receive promp-

ED. W. 956

Barber Shop,

Rear of " New State Salonn," on Third St. SHAVING, Hair-cutting, Shampooing Cur-

Also, a genuine article of Fish's Hatz Resrearrys, and Gristadora's Eccinor Hair Due for rais. Jacksonville, Jan. 25, 29 PETER BRITT, PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTIST Jacksonville, Oregon. Is prepared to take Pictures in every style of the Act, with all the intest improvements. If 至于是在了"是"是"是是是已经

de not give satifaction, no charges will be made Call at Funk's Cigar Store, or at the Gallery on the Hill, and see his Pietures. 111f

P. H. LYNCH,

Wholesnie and Retail Dealer in LIQUORS, WINES, SYRUPS & CORDIALS, HAS recently received a large and diversi-- AT THE -

EXPRESS SALOON, Corner of California and Third Streets,

Next door to Beekman's Express. and All orders promptly filled.

INSURANCE AGENCY, JACKSONVILLE.

RISKS taken upon Mills, Hotels, Stores, Dwellings, etc., on the most favorable terms, in Hartford, Phoenix, Girard, Goodhue, and other well known and responsible compa-E. C. SESSIONS, Agent, j8:21

Agricultural Implements. warranted.

and constantly arriving, for sale on the most patch. All articles in his line manufactured

SAN FRANCISCO.

REDUCTION OF PRICES

- 1N -

Stoves & Tinware. G. B. DORRIS

Has now opened a

Stove and Tinware Shop On Third Street, near the Post Office,

Jacksonville, Oregon,

by application to Postmusters and Mall Car- Where he will keep on hand the best patterns COOKING STOVES.

PARLOR STOVES. SALOUN STOVES.

Tin. Iron and Copperware, List of Agents for the Oregon Sentinel, Besides a great variety of Culinary articles too numerous to mention Persons wishing anything in my line are re-spectfully invited to call and examine the quality and prices of my wares.

Every kind of JOB WORK done to order. P. Fisher Yeeka Yeeka Every kind of JOB William Charg Ny own Ware Repaired Without Charg CHORGE B. DORRIS. GEORGE B. DORRIS. Jacksonville, Nov. 8, 1861.

育田、東京東京 第二四回

SADDLERY

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Jackson and adjoining counties that he has on hand and will manufac-

All Kinds of Saddlery & Harness

(double and single) Spanish Saddles, trees and rigging complete; Ladies Saddles, Jockey Saddles, Saddle logs, Healles, Surengies, Halters, Spurs, Currycombs

And all other articles usually found first-clast stock of SADDLERY.

Whips. Whip-lether.

ALL WORK WARRANTED. Store in "Sentinel" Building, California HENRY JUDGE. Jacksonville, Dec. 21, 1861.

I. D. HAINES & BRO. Are now Closing Out Will attend to any business confided to Goods, Groceries & seems of revolutionary times. Liquors, at the Very Lowest Rates.

FOR CASH!

To. Give us a call, at the Post Office Building, corner of California and Oregon streets, April 19, 1862.

Wanted in Exchange! -AT THE - 重日 地 日日 四 日 四 四 - AND -

BOOT & SHOE MANUFACTORY At Phoenix,

Harness, Bridles and Saddles, grateful countrymen.

Of all kinds, and all kinds of Saddle rigging. manner. Inquire of E. E. CHAPIN.

Phoenix, Feb. 14. Foreign and Domestic NEWSTOCK!

J. NEUBER

SPRING AND WEIGHT DIAMOND JEWELRY, SILVER WATCHES. PEARL EMERALD, and CAMEO SETS.

Together with a splendid lot of other

THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF TH Brenst-Pins, Brooches, Ear-Rings, Finger Rings, Lockets, Buckles, Clasps, Bracelets, Siceve Buttons, Necklaces. Watch-Chains.

Chatelains and Scale All of which will be sold at Low PRICES and WATCHES, JEWELRY and CLOCKS. cultural Implements of all kinds, on hand as heretofore, in the best manner and with disfavorable terms and at the lowest city prices. promptly and with neutress. Call and see his

BY O. JACOUS. Carrespondence.

Asmlann, July 5th, 1862. O. Jacons, Esq. - Dear Sir :- By the unani-mous vote of the large audience, that listened to your address, delivered at Ashland on the Fourth of July, it is made our pleasing duty, as the Committee of Arrangements, to request you to publish the same in the SENTISEL. We pe you will gratify the wishes of you numerous

Yours for the Union, E. EMERY, A. D. HELMAN, A. V. GILLETTE.

Jacusonvilla, July 7th, 1862. strengthening the determination of the patriotic and loyal to maintain the Union at all hazards. I remain, yours, O. JACOBS.

To E. Euser. A. It. HELMAN, A. V. GILLETTE,

PELLOW CHIZENET

rejoice, and traitors may develop their of the world for a parallel. mad schemes of disintegration and death : It was urged on the one hand by the timid and Independence. ive, and flourish, and triumph forecer.

densing to every American the reflection, guarantees of their ultimate rights. that while everywhere else, all over the fare It was answered on the other, that England swered. of God's curth, the clauk of the oppressor, would sooner treat with them on the basis of But the most trying and dangerous period tions with the Government of the United still the American Union will be restored in Washington and Hamilton, Adams and Jefferson, Franklin and Hancock, Green and Knex. Huery and Ames, with a bost of others, leap from their graves upon this bullowed day and pass in swift review before us, demanding a passing notice and our eternal gratitude. They passed through the fencial baptlem of fire and blood, and stood in Terror's awful hour the unwavering advocates and the dauntless defenders of the rights of man. They have passed from the scenes of mortality-but still they live; live to day in the affections of their loyal countrymen, and ever will live in the memory of the oppressed and down-trodden all over the face of God's green earth. Not till advancing time shall have offaced from the memory of man the recollecfoundation for earthly honor and immortality hour !! OATS, WHEAT & BACON The soldier who falls amid the roar of battle.

and mourns over the graves of Freedom's mar- most eventful and fearful hour. looking proudly to heaven from a death-bed and prophetic sone.

of fame.

is at hand ! There is a sitent eloquence speaking with the revolutionary sires. J. NEUBER still continues REPAIR cent benefactions, should disregard the warnings of the patriot dead and strike a deadly blow at the liberties of their country!

the history of free governments. It was a tion! power of centralized despotism, whose benifi- country have I wondered at the sublimity of assemblage of envoys or ministers from sover- plough every ocean and our commerce visits til the wreck of matter and the crash of rounded by savage foes, destitute of arms and sembly. worlds."

patriots have ever looked with feelings of exult- aid of Heaven, in the defense of the inalienaant hope, and tyrants with fear and trembling. ble and Heaven-conferred rights of man, boldly act upon individuals. This was the grand de-The Colonial Congress is in session. The quest defying the power of the strongest and proud- feet of the whole system. tion of Independence is before them. Those est Government of earth! It required moral With all the light that we possess on the flaunted by American during farther north, carnest and patriotic men feel their momen courage and moral heroism of the highest science of Government, it is very palpable to and has been fluttered in the storm breezes tuous responsibility, and move with becoming order; but the Colonists, taught in the severe us that such a system of Government as that farther south, than the flag of any other na-Graffers - Your polite note to me of the 5th deliberation. Fall well they know that on the way received on the same day on which it was written. After some hesitation, I have concluded to comply with the request of the good pougle of Ashiand and vicinity. Hoping that the address may have some small effect in the utimate consequences of that the address may have some small effect in the utimate consequences of that the major and the consequences of the particular of the consequences o roll on. If they made the Declaration and fore the proud millions of Xerxes should roll and to form a Government too weak in its sevown doon, but they effectually scaled the doom over their lifeless bodies.

tion of the eighty-sixth anniversary of American and matter and subjugation and conquest—but were striking Washington and his compatriots clearly saw sires, shall that Union, torn by the violences can Independence. We have met under circ navy, a standing army, and all the menitions in vindication of the sacred rights of man, and the breakers shead, and warned them of their and madness of faction, go down amid the constances different from those that ever sure of war; and, above all, she was backed by a their trophies, if they wen any, would be higher danger. A Convention was called, and our proudest monuments of its past triumphs, and rounded us before. While we commemorate population of thirty millions of loyal subjects, and nobler than desolated countries, wasted present Constitution adopted. It originated ere it has accomplished its proud mission? the patriot virtues of our forefathers, we The colonies were weak, fivile and dependent empires and smouldering cities. mourn the degeneracy of a portion of their States. They had no mational How they labored and tolled and suffered, and is a Government by the people. Its lan- liberty falls with it. If it perishes, our nadescendants. Eighty-six years ago our nation credit, no navy, no standing army, and were for seven long years, in the cause of Liberty guage is : "We, the People of the United tional prosperity and glory will be buried was born-and to day it is being redeemed by destitute of nearly all the munitions of war, and Independence, under the leadership of the States, in order to form a more perfect Union. amid its ruins. If it goes down, the darkness forefathers stood shoulder to shoulder on the Under these circumstances, they were about mournfully, yet exultingly, tells. No sacrifices provide for the common defense, promote the light of hope will be extinguished in the bosom battle fields of the Revolution, pouring out to defy the power of the strongest and proud-were too great, no labors too arduous, and no general welfare, and secure the blessings of of the oppressed, and Freedom will bid the their blood as the purchase price of the liber. est Government on earth. To those who are insurmountable, to those energetic and conscilliberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain world farewell. ties which we are permitted to enjoy; while governed by no higher motive than experience of the inalienable and establish this Constitution for the United The path that led to the Union was stained to-day those liberties are being defeased with diency, the action of those conscientions men rights of man, they boldly west forth and States of America." It is not a compact be Heavy Draught Harness Hong and short tug?

Concord Harness Buggy Harness

His not a compact be with martyre of patriots.

This not a compact be with martyre of patriots.

The same spirit and with all of must ever appear as an act of unpardonable faced undanoted the booming cannon, or their resistless valor. Eighty six years ago rashness and folly. But when we remember breasted the bayonet recking with the blood the People, the only legitimate fountain of their resistless valor. their resistless valor. Eighty-six years ago rashness and folly. But when we remember breasted the bayonet recking with the blood the People, the only legitimate fountain of It can never be destroyed without a desthe tree of liberty was planted by patriot the trust that they were accustomed to repose of their slaughtered countrymen. Often were political power. It acts upon individuals, and perate struggle. "Its fall will demand a field hamls, in the congenial soil of America, and in the ultimate tramph of the right, and their they so destitute of the necessaries of life, that not upon States, in all its legislative, executive of blood, and a million lives to give proper to-day, a serried legion of 600,000 warriors are reliant confidence in the intervention of the they could have been tracked by the blood and judicial departments. It corrected all of dignity and solemnity" to the funeral observations are reliant confidence in the intervention of the ready to water it with their blood. Grow it Supreme Euler of the Universe in their be that cozed from their unshed feet, as they, few the defects in the Articles of Confederationwill-flourish it must-or a million of putriot half, the act looses its attribute of apparent and faint, but steadfast still, tred over the made Congress a legislative power, provided The past history of our Government shows warriors will sleep their last sleep beneath its rashness, and rises in religious grandeur and frozen ground, in retreat from a well furnished for an independent judiciary, and wisely limscared and blasted branches. Despots may moral sublimity until it challenges the history and victorious army, or moved to the dread ited the unrestrained sovereignty of the States, invasion, and the present flery struggle > log Eurland was murchalling her forces to of that long and bloody struggle. Every sta was assumed by the General Government, vation. The mad infatnation of armed trait-How hallowed are the historic associations crush out their constitutional rights as Eng- dent of American history is familiar with its connected with this day! How thrilling are instructions the colonial Union, Scarful trials and knows its glorious results. England—proud, selfish, arrogant and domithe memories that it awakens! How promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and promity that concellection and consenses were the survey and the survey are survey as a survey and the survey and the survey are survey as a survey as a survey as a survey as a survey are survey as a survey as a survey are survey as a surve > > principles of humanity.

ceptible, and, to use the language of one of lions of earth, would be extinguished forever. ments, just in its provisions, benificent in all free and the home of the brave," a terror to their own number, " Sink or swim, survive or perials, they were for the Declaration."

The immortal document was before them. It of their wrongs, and an eloquent statement of of their cause.

In fact it was the first solemn and carnest of man the world had ever heard.

The final vote was about to be taken. my God! what an hour! How many of the dearest interests and most sucred rights of tory? tion of the crucky of mitered depots, will humanity were all concentered in that eventthey resp their full reward of glory, as the po- ful hour !! How many thrones would be War had desolated their country and banklitical saviors of the world. Heroic actions shaken, how many Governments overthrown, rapted their finances-impoverished their reand noble deeds constitute the most enduring by the ultimate consequences of that solemn

There was a pause. Amid the silence a goes down in the prime of life to an honorable member arese, and proposed, before they regist and felt the necessity of one. Delegates were grave, and, will ever be remembered by his tered their names to what seemed to be their death-warrant, that they all should kneel in Government was speedily imaggirated, denomi-Connected with this day are the battle fields silent prayer. The proposition was seconded of the Revolution. A halo of historic glory with one accord; and those carnest and con-Boots and Shoes made and restill gathers around these bright and glarious scientious men knelt in prayer, and sought the spots. Patriotic affection still flogers around protecting aid of Heaven, in their Country's tyrs. To freemen how dear, to despots how What a slight was that, my countrymen terrible. Here freedom's martyrs fell, fell as History is banked for a parallel, and words heroes and patriots ought to fall, " with their are inadequate to give anything of a just conbacks to the field and their feet to the for, ception of the moral grandeur of that solemn the Declaration of Independence.

It is said that an old and venerable man, resistless pathos to every American's heart, ad- whose head had been bleached by the frosts of juring him by the sufferings of the past, and many winters, was placed in the old church, consider the fearful price paid for his liberties. to ring the near whenever it was announced protection and safety. It was in no sense an calculate the progressive energy of free the fast developing glories of the future, to to ring the bell whenever it was announced and to remain firm and devoted to the Governthe eventful act was done, a boy, employed as mout, purchased with the sufferings, cemented messenger on the occasion, ran to the old no common head, and lacked the power to enwith the blood, and formed by the wisdom of church shouting, with all the enthusiasm of O, my God! that Americans, born amid the is passed!" And the old bellman did ring. sacred monuments of the Revolution, and The prophetic echoes of that bell, proclaiming reared amid its benignant glories, participants in its blessings and the objects of its munification and independence to man, are to-day sounding with hope and joy, not only to the speaking powers of the Confederation, strictly thousand miles from the seat of Government and the objects of its munification of the country. And here, to-day, near three closes of the Confederation, strictly thousand miles from the seat of Government and the objects of its munification. loyal millions of America, but to the suffering speaking, possessed no legislative power. They and the spots rendered immortal by the blood Intimately connected with this day, and an dangeons of the Old World, or famishing amid dignity of laws; in fact, they had no force Capital, or duel amid the monuments of the cal list of Senators and Representatives, says whatever without the sanction of the State promptly and with neutross. Call and see his stock at the old stand, corner of Third and content of American Independence—that remarks. California streets. Jacksonville.

California streets. Jacksonville.

Capital, or dwell amid the monuments of the Old World, or famishing amid aristocratical pomp and regal power. May its echors sound on, until the embless of Lib.

Capital, or dwell amid the monuments of the Bevolution.

The silent influences of our institutions, its echors sound on, until the embless of Lib. The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received able document, so eloquently read in your heart and society, "How's your asterisk?" being to-day, and which has ever been the work of the largest and proudest managed of the silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received their sanction, it went to the State Legislation.

The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received the society, "How's your asterisk?" being to-day, and which has ever been the work of the largest and proudest managed of the silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received their sanction, it went to the State Legislation.

The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received the society, "How's your asterisk?" being their sanction, it went to the State Legislation.

The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received the society, "How's your asterisk?" being their sanction, it went to the State Legislation.

The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received their sanction, it went to the State Legislation.

The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received the unaided by war and conquest, have secured the tool society, "How's your asterisk?" being their sanction, it went to the State Legislation.

The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received their sanction, it went to the State Legislation.

The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received their sanction, it is chosen with the silent influences of our institutions. The silent influences of our institutions, a general appropriation bill. After it received their sanction of the silent influences of our institutions. The silent influences of our institutions in the silent influences of our institu

We have convened to-day for the colebra- England was a strong arrogant, and pow- waging no unjust war-no war of plunder, were fast drifting to anarchy and confusion. mented by the blood of the revolutionary and the prayers of the devout pilgrims an- ber chain of military posts in the west, and, sages of the Revolution. They may drench chain is heard, and the iron heel of the despot entire Independence than to stullify herself in in the history of our country was just at hand. States. the face of the world by the humiliating ac Would the Americans be able to retain and When our present Constitution came from The sacred energy of the noble republic, knowledgement that her course had been ty- perpetuate the liberties which they had purtheir entire stock of to the past, thirteer let us go, and refresh our ranged and oppressive—that she had violated chased at so fearful a cost. One false step in despite of the mad scheme of tables of the past, thirteer let us go, and refresh our ranged and oppressive—that she had violated chased at so fearful a cost. One false step in despite of the mad scheme of tables of the past, thirteer let us go, and refresh our ranged and oppressive—that she had violated chased at so fearful a cost. to me past, moment not us go, and rearest our by the resistless valor of the laws of nations, and outraged the common here and all is lost. The blood of the Revolu-The time for speaking bad past—the time Liberty, now irradiating the world with its to future ages as a monument of their wisdom nificent Government on earth, it has already > contained a nervous and pungent conmerction fresh and cruel stroke of arbitrary power, rising in the might of their latent energies, and their grievanees, and closed by a manly appeal harling the bloody despot from the throne he to the civilized world in favor of the justness disgraced; but ere the thirsty earth had drank up the ensanguined flood, and ere the shouts of the giddy multitude had died away, another assertion of the absolute and inclienable rights despot trampled on their dear-bought rights. as recklessly and as heedlessly as ever. Would such be the result in America? Would the history of ancient republies become her his-

Their prospects were, indeed, discouraging, sources, and left them with a heavy national ganized system of Government. They saw power is so short a time. Rome, the wonder chosen by the several States, and a system of nated the Confederation of Colonies.

As there seems to be a fatal misunderstanding among many as to the provisions of the Federal Constitution, and as that grew out of old Confederation:

hence no tribunal could be appealed to in the arise between the citizens of the different tyrrany, and an ardent love for the institutions lar; added to which the tax for national pur-cont effects can never be fully estimated "un- the spectacle-to see a few Colonists, sur- eign powers more than it did a legislative as- every port.

eventful hour, bung the destiny of the down-themselves into the Pass of Thermopola, and weight of centralized Governments, and it was foundation of our prosperity at home and of trod and oppressed millions for ages yet to called the immortal gods to witness, that, be-very natural for them to err on the other hand. one consideration abroad—the Union, with all failed to support it, they not only scaled their over their beloved native land, they must pass ereign energies to accomplish the end had in triumphs in the past and all the glories that view.

encounter under the obsering cry of Liberty Its beneficial effects were immediately seen and through which we are passing is fast demonbut liberty and constitutional freedom will and wavering among them, that, notwithstand- But why need I attempt a description in the prosecution of the Revolutionary War gies are sufficiently potential for self-preser-> for action had come. The subject had been splendors, would go down in darkness and and statesmanship, and as the wonder and heard the resurrection trump, and come for presented in every light of which it was sus- gloom, and the last hope of the oppressed mil- glory of the world. It is simple in its arrange- "And long may it wave o'er the land of the Revolutions had not been unfrequent in the its operations, and grand in all its results. It despots and a solemn memento of power to annals of the world. History is repicts with is the foundation of our Union, the bulwark traitors. The martyrs of the Revolution. examples of nations, smarting under some of our liberties, and the sheet-anchor of all our who poured out their blood like water to es-> > forever. tution, America has increased from five to over go successfully began by them. erful States, and more knocking at the door of traitors, and live on until the Union. Her increase in wealth, power. and national greatness, is unparalled in the history of the world.

The light of the past, as it comes streaming down the pathway of history, throws out no such miracle of national greatness and of 1812 extending from June 1812 to Marcis mistress of the world, three hundred years But America, eighty-six years from its birthday, spreads over the goodly portion of a con- 85. At the battle of New Orleans these were tinent and is filled with teeming millions of freemen. "Westward the star of empire takes the radical defects in the Articles of Confed its way," and westward the surges of Eastern eration, pardon me for briefly calling your population still roll. Eighty six years ago. attention to the leading characteristics of the the castern base of the Allegheny mountains was the western boundary of the American 1st. The Articles of Confederation were settlements. Since then, emigration has rolled adopted by Sovereign States, acting as distinct over the Allegheny mountains, spread itself There is a voice heard from these consecra- and as their names were announced, walked and independent political corporations, and throughout the great Mississippi Valley, beat ted spots crying-O ! Despot, thy day of doom forward, and, with unfaltering hands, signed not by the people of the Colonies, acting as for awhile against the eternal base of the friendship-a compact among sovereign pow- parts, and is fust occupying the gold fields of ers. It resembled the league now existing California and the fertile valleys and gold-proamong the little Germanic sovereignties, en- ducing mountains of Oregon. Indeed, who tered into by them for the double purpose of can set bounds to the expansive power, who of his country. And here, to-day, near three years ago, to day, that wonderful state paper | Having made the Declaration, they freely others hesitated and debated long, but finally Old World. And, if we remain united, this leaved on the accusion of the Otheration of the received the unanimous sanction of the Colopledged "their lives, their fortunes, and their passed it; while others still, after long debate influence will still continue to act with accumnial Congress. The hear of its adoption will nial Congress. The hear of its adoption will sacred honor, to support it;" and how nobly and delay, attached some amendment to it, ulative force and grandeur, until the last ever be considered the most eventful hour in was that piedge seconded by an indignant na- which effectually defeated the whole scheme, bloody despot of earth shall shake like Beland remitted it back to Congress again. The shazzar on his crumbling and toppling throne. manly blow, struck by an infant nation at the Often as I have reviewed the history of my Congress of the Confederation resembled an Our sails whiten every ses, our steamers

> Our vessels, our telegraphs, our railroads without the munitions of war, relying implicitly Thirdly and lastly: The Congress of the and agricultural improvements, all the result Let us call up the historic scene upon which on the justice of their cause and the protecting Confederation could only act upon States in of American ingenuity, are the envy and adfreeman's right and a freeman's home, has been await it in the future-the Union, purchased The Colonists felt and knew that they were Under the old Confederation, the Colonies by the valor, formed by the wisdom and cewith the people, was adopted by the people. Forbid it, Heaven! If it falls, constitutional patriot's blood. Eighty-six years ago and our and only numbered some five millions in all. great Washington, the history of our country felt. The debt incurred by the several States strating to the world that its inherent enerfor the first time, entered into treaty stipula- all this fair land with fraternal blood, but hopes. It has worked admirably in the past, tablish the American Union, speak to as from is fitted for the present, will survive the mad- the grave, and adjure us by the remembrance ness of factions, and, under God, will remain of the sufferings they endured, to maintain and perpetuate it and to carry on the glorious Under the benign influences of this Consti- demonstration of the problem of self-government, thirty millions of inhabitants-from thirteen | The Union must not, will not, be a failure. feeble Colonies, desolated by the war of the Like the rock mid the dashing billows of old Revolution, to thirty-four sovereign and pow- ocean, it will bid deflunce to the violence of

> "Wrapt in flames the realms of other glow, And Heaven's last thunders shake the world below."

THE WAS OF 1812 .- The whole number of Americans killed and wounded during the war 1815, was 7,738; of these 2,816 were killed this includes both naval and land forces. The largest number in the naval forces was at the engagement" between the Chesapeake and Shannon, where the number of Americans killed and wounded was 146, and the British 52 Americans and 2,074 British killed and wounded. The Americans appear to have suffered most at the buttle of Bridgewater, where they had 743 killed and wounded, and the British 643. In the various skirmishes among the Indian the Americans had 1,000 killed and wounded. In the engagement between the Constitution and Java, the Americans had 34 and the British 161 killed and which number 2.560 were among the killed. How NEW YORK STANDS THE WAR .- The great Empire State has furnished 106,000 men to the Union army; yet despite the withone-fourth than it was in 1861, and the pub-Wherever an American treads the soil, he lie debt is steadily decreasing. The tax for poses-to meet the Federal War tax-is two wounded. During the whole war the number killed and wounded is put down at 8,774, of mills. How's Your ASTREISE ?- The " Congress loyal millions of America, but to the suffering could only act by requisition and advisement, of the Revolution, we feel the same love of How's York Astrona ?—The "Congress-could only act by requisition and advisement, of the Revolution, we feel the same love of How's York Astrona ?—The "Congress-could only act by requisition and advisement, of the Revolution, we feel the same love of liberty and Union as those who live near the local Directory," at the head of its alphabetiwhose wives accompany them." This has given rise to the new slang word in Washing-