

MAIL TO CONGRESS. That the people of Southern Oregon are most shamefully neglected by our delegation in Congress, is made most palpably evident by the neglect, either to secure an appropriation of money, or to see that a contract was let, for carrying the mail from Waldo, Josephine county, to Crescent City, California.

PARSON BROWNELL'S BOOK.—This long expected volume, containing sketches of the rise, progress and decline of Secession, with a narrative of personal adventures among the rebels, by the fighting Parson, has been issued from the press of George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, and is meeting with an unprecedented sale.

SEND ON FOR THE BOOK IMMEDIATELY. It is fully illustrated, contains four hundred and fifty pages, and the price is only $1.25. Ad dress G. W. Childs, 628 and 630 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

"MAX."—This is the non de plume of a Salem correspondent of the Democratic Register. He seems to be a running expectation of loose period gasconade, and as philosophers have demonstrated that there is a sym pathetic connection kept up between the physical and mental man, it might be necessary for him to take some stringent invigilating.

DRAFTING.—A good many seceders, in this county, are frightened very much for fear they may be drafted. The probability, or even the possibility, of their being compelled to fight for the maintenance of the Union, alarms them very much.

STOP THAT!—We notice that the State Republican is taking the Register through for bad spelling. Now, Mr. Republican, we want you to stop that, instantly.

THANKS.—Mr. Granville Sears has the thanks of this office for a water-melon weighing 26 1/2 pounds. Long may he live, and well may he prosper.

S. M. B.—Your communication has been received. It will appear in our next. Write again.

Interest. Petitions are extensively in circulation in this State asking the coming Legislature to pass a Law prohibiting any higher rate of interest than ten per cent.

1. Twenty four per cent. has become customary, while even sixty per cent. is sometimes charged. 2. Successful home production is therefore prevented; for few will invest their money in manufacturing when they can loan at those high rates; hence

3. We buy out of the country iron, rope, oils, &c., which otherwise would or might be manufactured at home; thereby making money scarce, interest higher, and the value of property less: witness the host of mortgages that to-day would not cancel half the indebtedness to secure which they were taken considered doubly ample.

4. Money is not worth more than ten per cent; (observe the Rothschilds absorbing the wealth of the world at less than five per cent.) and whatever more is authorized is something taken for nothing—essentially a kind of legal-lid robbery.

5. Even money lenders will be benefited by the law we ask. The better times induced will favor the collection of doubtful debts, increase the value of real estate, and reward them better so far as they engage in useful labor.

6. It is not enough to justify high interest to say that men agree to pay it; for others are involved in the consequences. The interest on money on successful speculation is paid by the laboring man and consumer.

7. Interest will not regulate itself consistent with the rights of the people. Demand and supply do not pertain to money as to the productions of labor. Proof: when wheat is two dollars per bushel, a single season will increase the supply and reduce the price; when interest goes up to two and three per cent. per month, will another season increase the crop of money and lessen the price?

8. We would have a law that would punish usury taken directly or indirectly.

VERY LATEST.

(From the Yreka Journal-Extra August 28th) New York, 26th.—The Tribune's Rappahannock correspondent says the greatest crisis of the war occurred between Thursday morning and Saturday night. It has passed, and the nation is safe.

How's THAT?—The jolly Oregonian says, a large number of watermen were brought from California, on the Pacific and sold very briskly for fifty cents and one dollar and twenty-five cents. Has the snow melted off round Portland yet?

TRAITORS.—Old Adair, for a long time a pensioner on the bounty of the United States Government, has become a British subject, and now expresses his gratitude by cursing our Government.
