HEIMSTREET'S
Inimitable Hair Restorative.
IT IS NOT A DYE.
But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's inimitable coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a Luxuriant Beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates the dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original hair-coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of E. S. BARNES, Proprietor, New York.

THE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE OF Dr L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of Medical science, and they occupy with others an equally lofty position in the profession. Record is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapka who fully equalled him in this country, as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a diploma and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary Army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapka has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's office are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento st., corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

We ask the particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper.

Organization of the Union Party.

The members of both branches of the Legislative Assembly, and other citizens of the State, met in the Hall of the House of Representatives at Salem, on Saturday evening, October 11th, 1862, for the purpose of appointing a State Central Committee, and to transact any other business necessary to perfect such organization.
The meeting was called to order by E. L. Applegate.
On motion of Mr. Humason, of Wasco county, Mr. Hovey, of Benton, was called to the chair, and Mr. Gillette, of Clatsop, was elected Secretary.

By request of the chair, Mr. Humason stated the object of the meeting.
On motion of Mr. Wasserman, of Multnomah, a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Wasserman, Watson, and Kerns, was appointed to invite Hon. B. F. Harding to address the meeting.

Mr. Harding being introduced responded as follows:
Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly, and Fellow Citizens: I shall soon leave you, for a short time, to engage in the discharge of duties cast upon me by election to the highest position that can be conferred by the Legislature of a State of the Union—a position which I accept with no little distrust of my abilities to meet the grave requirements of a member of one of the most august assemblies in the world. The responsibilities of such position being much increased by the perils that have been rapidly gathering round our Government, threatening its overthrow, and the subversion of liberties which we have so long enjoyed.

Allow me, at this time, before taking that seat, lately occupied by one who was a master of eloquence, possessed of great learning—truly great in the council and in the field, who served you for a brief period with a degree of energy and fidelity to all your interests, that none could surpass, who gave his life for the cause of humanity, who had the power to command, while I can only ask, in whom Liberty lost one of her noblest champions, the nation a statesman and warrior, and Oregon a strong friend and faithful representative—in taking that seat allow me to say that my first efforts shall be in giving the Government all the support I can to preserve the Union, and subdue the darkest type of treason the world has ever witnessed, and, at the same time, to support the Constitution.

This monstrous rebellion must be crushed, or mankind's brightest hopes are forever blighted. We cannot, as it seems to me, hope for any considerable period of peace or prosperity on this continent, with two independent nationalities within the present limits of the United States. Certainly not, if they are to be separated only by an imaginary line running east and west, with the great valley of the Mississippi under the jurisdiction of one, and its outlet under that of the other, and one recognizing property in human beings, and the other morally and religiously opposed to such recognition. Each would be constantly irritating, and hostile to, the other. Let no such condition of affairs be established on the soil of America! Subdue this most wicked rebellion, gotten up by the most fanatical traitors, to gratify their unholy ambition, not from fear that their domestic institutions, rights or liberties, would be assailed, nor because they had suffered wrongs from the Government they seek to destroy. Let our flag proudly and freely wave over every foot of our widely extended country, and transmit the political institutions under which we have prospered so well, to posterity unimpaired!

To succeed in this, we must be united, determined, and cheerfully sacrifice something of luxury, and perhaps of comfort. And who would not willingly do so to secure such results. We have already yielded up our party organizations, and omitted making party platforms and drawing party lines. We have learned that we must be for the Government, or against it; that there is no middle ground, and that those who have attempted to find it, have very soon been found to be in sympathy with treason, or base enough to join in collusion with the enemies of our country.

The great and powerful political parties in this State, of two years ago, are disorganized, and the issues between them have been decided by great events, over which the parties themselves had no control. I do not see how those issues can be again raised, or the parties reorganized. They are past and gone, and may history do them justice. The great parties of the country to-day are, a Union party, and a disunion party. To the first I gave my support; to it I belong; to it I owe my present high position, and it will endeavor to truly and faithful represent; and I hope to see that party united, organized, and harmonious, that it may be efficient in its support of our Government which we believe to be better than any that can succeed it. When I arrive at Washington, I shall address myself to the business of my constituents, in Congress and in the Departments. And while there, I hope to be fully advised of their necessities and wishes, by letters.

Promising to serve the State loyally and faithfully, to the best of my abilities, and with warm thanks to the members of the Legislative Assembly for the high honor conferred on me, I close by thanking you all for your kindness and attention.

Mr. Mitchell, of Multnomah county, moved the following resolution:
Resolved, That a State Central Committee be appointed to serve till the meeting of the next State Union Convention, and that such committee be composed of one member from each county in this State.

After discussion, the resolution was unanimously adopted.
On motion of Mr. Reed, of Marion county, the members of the Legislative Assembly of each county nominated the members of the committee for the several counties, who were duly elected by the meeting, as follows:

Josephine county—N. Witt, of Kerbyville; Jackson—E. F. Russell, of Jacksonville; Douglas—Geo. E. Briggs, of Roseburg; Curry—H. E. Baker, of Ellensburg; Coos—T. D. Winchester, of Empire City; Lane—B. J. P. Ingraham, of Eugene City; Benton—A. G. Hovey, of Corvallis; Umpqua—W. H. Wilson, of Yoncalla; Linn—Thos. Monteith, of Albany; Marion—Jno. H. Moore, of Salem; Polk—Isaac H. Butler, of Dallas; Yamhill—Geo. H. Steward, of Lafayette; Clackamas—D. P. Thompson, of Oregon City; Multnomah—Thos. H. Pearce, of Portland; Wasco—Wm. Logan, of Dallas; Umatilla—R. C. Combs, of Independence; Baker—J. M. Kirkpatrick, of Auburn; Washington—T. R. Cornelius, of Hillsboro; Columbia—John Watts, of St. Helens; Clatsop—Jas. Taylor, of Astoria; Tillamook—C. H. Davidson, of Tillamook.

Mr. Harding moved the following resolution:
Resolved, That each member of the Central Committee residing in counties where there is no Union organization, be requested to act as county committee man, to call precinct meetings and county conventions, until the meeting of a Union County Convention.

On motion of Mr. Applegate, proceeded to elect a chairman of the Central Committee, which resulted in the choice of John H. Moore, of Marion county.

Mr. Applegate offered the following resolution, which was adopted.
Resolved, That we, as members of the Union organization, re-endorse the resolutions adopted by the Union Convention held at Eugene City, April 7th, 1862.

Mr. Wasserman offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That we endorse the administration of President Lincoln in his efforts to crush out the rebellion, and that we have full confidence in its ability to conduct the war to a successful issue.

Messrs. E. L. Applegate, A. G. Gibbs, R. P. Boise and J. R. McBride, being called, addressed the meeting.
On motion of Mr. Haines, of Jackson county, the Union papers of the State were requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting. On motion, adjourned.
A. G. HOVEY, Ch'n.
P. W. GILLETTE, Sec'y.

I'LL TELL PA WHEN HE COMES HOME.
A friend of ours, who had taken pride for several years in cultivating a full crop of hair on his face, was called away from home on business some time since. While absent, an inexperienced barber spoiled his whiskers in trimming them, which so chagrined him that he directed the barber to make a clean job of it by shaving his whiskers and moustache both off. The barber obeyed and our friend's face was as smooth and as delicate as when in his teens. He returned home in the night. Next morning his little girl did not recognize him on waking up. Looking over her mother, and seeing as she supposed a stranger in the bed, she remarked in her childish simplicity, "Mist'r, you get out of here; I'll tell my Pa when he comes home."—Pittsburg Post.

An exchange truthfully remarks: "Here is an illustration of what can be done under the laws of neutrality, according to the interpretation which our British Majesty's Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Earl Russell, has been pleased to put upon that elastic code. It has for months been notorious that this vessel was being fitted up and also armed for the rebel service. Every skipper in the Mersey knew it, and her Majesty's Ministers knew it.

Every produced last year 200,000 bales of cotton, and Algeria has begun the culture of the same staple.
