Jacksonville, Oct. 20, 1862.

Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

[TELEGRAPHED TO YENKA FOR THE SENTINEL.]

Dates from October 14th to 18th.

St. Louis, Oct. 20th.—Gen. Schofield with his advance, has reached Elk Horn Tavern, Arkansas, and sends intelligence that the enemy is making for Boston Mountains. General Steele and Ostrhaus are at Pilot Knob, advancing against enemy under McBride, in vicinity of Pochontas.

Louisville, Oct. 20th.—In the recent raids on Lexington, rebels lost 5 killed and 15 wounded. Among the latter was Morgan, the guerilla. Morgan left Lawrenceburg yesterday with 1,200 men. Dumont's cavalry is in close pursuit. About one hundred rebels captured this morning. From three to four hundred of Morgan's at Cox Creek, six miles from Bardstown, captured and burned a Federal train of eighty wagons, 51 of which were loaded. Morgan then went towards Bardstown and captured another Federal train, within two miles of town, number of wagons unknown. He then proceeded in direction of Bardstown with supposed intention of burning the railroad bridge. Yesterday Dumont was but 40 miles behind Morgan.

New York, Oct. 21st.—The Herald's Washington special says the pressure for a forward movement is becoming about general, and it is urged with an earnestness that has never been equalled. The argument is used that the protraction of the present inaction will ruin the country.

The Times has a dispatch, giving an account from a refugee who brought a report from Culpeper county, Va., that a slave insurrection is anticipated, and says the inhabitants of the counties where insubordination exists, threaten to resist the conscription act; they acting on plea of self protection, and say it is necessary to defend themselves against the negroes. The Petersburg Express, of the 15th, fears much terrible and severe suffering from scarcity of coal at Richmond.

The Richmond Dispatch, of the 16th, says, we infer that the Federals will soon make a desperate effort to force their iron clad vessels up James river, past Drury Buff. Its account of the Perryville fight says it is one Kentucky will mourn for years. It also claims a victory at Perryville, and says the Federal killed and wounded was 20,000, while the Confederate loss was but 5,000.

Chicago, Oct. 21st.—A dispatch from Cincinnati says, advices from Gen. Cox at Gallipolis, Ohio, report that the rebels have evacuated Western Virginia and gone to Eastern Tennessee, taking with them all their trains. They have manufactured 200,000 bags of salt, in Kanawha Valley, and have destroyed all the salt works and other property.

Kansas City, 18th.—Reliable information states that Quantess, with 200 men, made a raid on Shawneetown, Kansas, last night, burning the greater portion of the town, killing nine citizens, and carrying off all the horses they can find. Considerable excitement prevails here.

Cairo, 18th.—Information from Cape Girardeau, Missouri, dated ten o'clock this morning, says intelligence has been received here that Col. J. Fries, with seven hundred men, was marching on Commerce. Four hundred men have been sent from Cape Girardeau to that place.

The War Eagle from Helena, Arkansas, brings no news of importance.—Skeinishing continues daily.

At three o'clock on Friday morning last, the rebels, numbering three or four hundred, under Col. Faulkner, attacked the Federals stationed on the Tennessee line, opposite Island No. 10. Owing to the darkness the rebels fired on each other, throwing them into confusion and causing them to retire. They were followed by our cavalry—the pursuit resulting, after a chase of fourteen miles, in the capture of Col. Faulkner, three Captains, one Adjutant and eleven men. Eight rebels were killed and twelve wounded. Our loss was three killed and two wounded.

New York, 20th.—The Herald's special dispatch from headquarters says: "A hundred and fifty of Stuart's cavalry have been captured. A large number of rebel sick at Shepardstown refused to be paroled, but took the oath of allegiance, and have gone North."

A letter dated Jacksonville, Florida, 12th, states that on the arrival of the Federal force there on the 6th, the town was found nearly deserted. The rebel steamer Milton was captured by the expedition up the river. Guns, ammunition and a number of contrabands who fled to our lines, have been sent to Hilton head. Our force has also returned, the gunboats being depended on to keep the river open.

REBEL ALLIES.—It has been stated, we think that the Indian outbreak and massacre of women and children in Minnesota was the indirect, if not the positive work of the rebel leaders. Monstrous as this assertion is, it is true by their own confession. The proof is in the following paragraph, which we cut from the Richmond Dispatch of September 24th:

As we expected.—The Yankees are about to send their army captured at Harper's Ferry against the Indians. Has the Government no means of retaliating for such a breach of faith?

FOR WASHINGTON.—Senator Harding and J. R. McBride, Congressman, go East on the next steamer.

THE NEWS.—Now is the time to subscribe for the semi-weekly—decidedly the best and cheapest newspaper in the State. Our friends down in Josephine county will receive it at every mail. We have no doubt but that a semi-weekly mail will soon be established between Wald and Crescent City, in which case the semi-weekly SENTINEL ought to have a club at the latter place. Send in your names, gentlemen.

OMITTED.—The name of Lewellyn Colver, was unintentionally omitted, in the list of the names of those contributing to the Sanitary Fund, at Phoenix, in this county.

GENERAL HOOKER.—At the Convention of Governors of loyal States, held at Altoona, Pennsylvania, many of the Governors, in the course of conversation, spoke of General Hooker as the officer who has shown the most skill and capacity since the rebellion broke out. General Hooker is reported to have said since the late fights, but he would rather lead volunteers to battle than regulars.

Chess Problem.—John and Julia's Problem, by Amator, to move and mate in two moves:

John moves his arm round Julia's neck, She moves one square and whispers check; He, nothing daunted, moves right straight His lips to hers, and calls out mate!

POOR JULIA YIELDS TO LOVE'S CONSTRAINTS; Sighs, blushes, palpitates and faints.

It appears that wives were even more expensive luxuries in ancient times than they are now-a-days. The following is an authentic list of the most famous jewels of Roman ladies: Faustina's finger-ring, $200,000; Domitia's ring, $200,000; Cassiana's bracelet, $400,000; Poppaea; (Caesar's wife) ear rings, above suspicion, $1,200,000; Dabin's diadem, $1,200,000.

KILLED BY INDIANS.—Two men were killed by Indians last week—one on Sweet Water, by a son of Pe-Pon-Mox-Mox, the former Walla Walla Chief; the other by a Nez Percés, near the Lapwin. The cause of the shooting and the names of the murdered men we have not learned. The Nez Percés Indian has been arrested.—Washington Statesman.

OVERLAND IMMIGRATION.—Mr. J. M. Pyle, connected with the Oregon Escort, in a communication to the Walla Walla Statesman, estimates the number of immigrants to Oregon and Washington this year, at about 10,000; to California, 8,000; and about 8,000 Mormons for Salt Lake. Brigham young sent out four hundred wagons to assist the latter.

THE surest way to prevail on a young couple to get married, is to oppose them. Tell them you would rather see them in their graves, and twelve months after, their baby will pass you twice a day in a willow wagon.

Kossuth.—A Scottish paper states that "poor Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot, is in the final stage of consumption, and that probably before many weeks pass away, a noble country will have to weep for the loss of one of her noblest and most gifted men."

THE Post office at Fairfield, Marion county, Ogn., is discontinued.

Married.

In Jacksonville, at the residence of A. E. Rogers, Esq., on the evening of October 24th, 1862, by the Rev. M. M. Stearns, B. F. Dow, Esq., to Miss N. A. CAMPBELL; all of Jacksonville.

"One more unfortunate, Lonely and troubled, Rashly imprudent, Went and got doubled."

So our friend is gone—lost forever to the bachelor fraternity! We noticed the door of his law-office, as well as the veranda to the same, was heavily draped in mourning on the day following his emigration to the State of Matrimony. Honored as a citizen, generous as a friend, successful as a lawyer, he has won his great case, and long may he live to enjoy the fruits of his success.

County Commissioners will hold an adjourned session on Monday, the 3d day of November ensuing. By order of the Board of Commissioners.

WM. HOFFMAN, Clerk.

October 16, 1862. 40td

A LOST WIFE.—On Wednesday night, October 22d, four Chinamen stole the wife of OU YU AP, from his home in Jacksonville. Said wife is about 22 years of age. Any person who will return the fair Celestial to the disconsolate Ou Yu Ap, or will give any information that will lead to her recovery, will be liberally rewarded by him. Address Town Marshal, Jacksonville, Oregon. Oct. 25, 1862. 42a
