Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

(TELEGRAPHED TO YUKKA FOR THE SENTINEL.)

Dates to the 25th October.

Louisville, 23d.—Trains are running regularly to Lebanon and Bowling Green. St. Louis, 23d.—General Morrill telegraphs from North Missouri, that about 60 guerrillas surrendered their arms to the Provost Marshal of Monroe county.

Colonel Chapman, chief of General Curtis' staff, who has just arrived from a council of over 10,000 Indians, in Southern Kansas, says they are anxious to fight the rebel Indian regiments in their own way.

New York, 23d.—The Cambria with dates from New Orleans to the 12th, has arrived. The Delta, of the 9th, states that the transport Cores exploded off St. Joseph Island. Twelve of the passengers and crew were killed, and 21 injured—some severely.

Galveston (Texas) papers received at New Orleans, state that several attacks had been made upon Corpus Christi by our gunboats and nearly every house hit by shot or shell. The gunboats were repelled by batteries, and hauled off.

A dispatch from Mount Vernon, Ky., of the 21st, says that Smith's division of Crittenden's corps, pursued the enemy to within 40 miles of Cumberland Gap; the enemy flying in the utmost precipitation, and leaving broken down men at every mile of the march. Complete devastation marks the enemy's trail. They have robbed the mountaineers of everything, so that their immense train may not be drawn upon until the last moment.

Washington, 23d.—A reconnaissance from the Army of the Potomac to Hedgeville, seven miles northwest of Martinsburg, was made yesterday, by two squadrons of Pennsylvania cavalry. Our force drove in the rebel pickets, and then charged the body of rebels; they took 19 prisoners, including two officers. Our loss nothing.

The rebels left Martinsburg on Tuesday. It is believed that a portion of them went to Williamsport, and a part to Sheperdstown.

New York, 23d.—The schooner Eleanor was burned on the Hudson river last night, four persons perished.

Fortress Monroe, 23d.—All the machinists at Portsmouth, Va., thirty in number, have suddenly disappeared with all their tools. They are supposed to be skeddaddling for rebel-dom.

Cairo, 23d.—In consequence of information that 2,000 rebels were advancing for the purpose of attacking our forces on main land opposite Island No. 10, all property was removed to a place of safety. It is reported that Generals Van Dorn and Lovell have been charged with incompetence, and ordered to report to Richmond. There is no confirmation of report that Van Dorn was shot by one of Price's staff.

Washington, 23d.—The Intelligencer publishes a long paper prepared by Gen. Scott, dated March 30, 1861, describing the course he pursued in the early stages of rebellion, and the difficulties to contend with during Buchanan's administration. The paper throws a flood of light on the history of the rebellion in its incipient stages. It establishes the patriotic anxiety and wise watchfulness of the General in Chief to prepare for the coming storm, and his earnest repeated efforts to prevail on Government to march on and secure Southern forts against attack. The causes of this failure, which is now evident, resulted from the indecision of the executive, if not the members of Cabinet in whom the President reposed misplaced and abused confidence. The paper offsets the abuse of journals regulated only by party tests.

San Francisco, 25th.—On Sept. 15, Collector Rabin wrote to Governor Andrew of Massachusetts, tendering a cavalry company commanded by Captain Reed, First Light Dragoons of this city, the company furnishing everything but horses and passage east. A telegram was received today stating that Secretary of War has authorized Massachusetts to accept this company, and the Mayor of Boston agrees to pay $200 per man to cover transportation. Captain Reed commences enlisting and expects to sail by November 21st. Every man must be a first class rider, and pass a strict military examination. Colonel Kewen has been released from Alcatraz on taking the oath.

San Jose, 24th.—F. Hernandez, sentenced to be hung here today, broke jail and murdered the jailer last night, and escaped. The Sheriff offers a reward of $3,000 for his arrest.

Pasent Valley, Oct. 24.—Orders have been received in Barnsides' camp to issue no more clothing than the soldiers can carry comfortably in a forced march. Hooker rejoins the army on Monday.

Lebanon, Oct. 23.—Information has been received that a body of 500 rebels encamped last night 25 miles west of this place. A Federal force was sent against them this morning. Nothing has yet been heard as to what they have done. Guerrillas fell in with mail coach yesterday, capturing five passengers with everything.

Cairo, 25.—The contrabands here are suffering intensely from want of clothing. From 800 to 1,000 quartered in open buildings, many naked and nearly destitute of bedding. Two died from exposure last night.

Washington, 25.—The following is official to General Halleck, from St. Louis:

"Our armies are again successful in Northwestern Arkansas, Gen. Schofield finding that the enemy had encamped at Pea Ridge, sent Gen. Bunt with 1st division westward, and moved towards Huntville with his reserve, Gen. Blunt, by making a hard night's march, overtook and attacked the rebels at Maysville, near the Northwest corner of Arkansas, at one o'clock on the morning of the 22d.

The enemy were estimated at 700 strong. Engagement lasted an hour, resulting in the total rout of the enemy, and loss of all his artillery. A battery of six pounders, a large number of horses and a portion of their transportation and garrison equipments were captured, and our cavalry were still in pursuit of the scattered forces. Gen. Schofield pursued Hindman beyond Huntsville, when his force fled precipitately beyond Boston Mountain.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—Mr. Kelly, who was severely injured by flying splinters and being scalded by the explosion of the boiler of the National flour mills, died last evening. This makes four who have been killed besides a number wounded. The cause of this dreadful calamity is not explained and probably never will be, as both engineers are killed, one being about to relieve the other. The remains of Mr. Rowan, the jailer who was inhumanly butchered at San Jose by F. Hernandez, were brought here yesterday, and buried today. The steamer Golden Age arrived this evening with 450 passengers.

Washington, 24th.—General Baell has been relieved from the command of the Union army in Kentucky. General Rosecrans is ordered to that position.

One Day Later.

Cincinnati, 25.—The official returns of the Ohio election show a democratic majority for Supreme Judge, of 8,540. The democratic vote has increased 35,000 over last year. The republican vote has decreased 28,000. The total vote of the State has fallen off 7,800.

Cairo, 26th.—A Federal force, numbering 200 men, with one piece of artillery, stationed at Waverly, Tenn., was attacked Thursday last by 800 rebels. The latter were repulsed, with loss of 24 killed, 25 captured and a large number wounded. Our loss is two killed and two wounded.

Memphis, 25th.—There is an alarming report here this evening, that a force of one thousand rebel cavalry has stationed itself nine miles from here, on Memphis and Charleston Railroad, and taken possession of the line. They refuse to let any one come here from headquarters, in vicinity of Newcomer, Fayette county, Tennessee.

This is supposed to be the advance guard of a large force having designs on the city.

The reported abandonment of the ship Erie, of Boston, off Cape Horn, is confirmed. The sails had blown away. No boats were alongside, and all hands probably perished. The Captain of the ship, reporter and 32 of the crew are known to be lost. She was abandoned Aug. 18th.

Private New York advices quote gold today, at 32 per cent premium.

FEMINE ADVISERS.—It is a wonderful advantage to a man, in every pursuit or avocation, to secure an adviser in a sensible woman. In women there is at once a subtle delicacy of tact, and a plain soundness of judgment, which are rarely combined to an equal degree in man. A woman, if she be really your friend, will have a sensitive regard for your character, honor, and reputation. She will seldom counsel you to do a shabby thing, for a woman friend always desires to be proud of you. At the same time her constitutional timidity makes her more cautious than your male friend. She, therefore, seldom counsels you to do an imprudent thing. By female friendship—I mean pure friendship—that in which there is no admixture of the passion of love, except in the married state. A man's best female friend is a wife of good sense and good heart, whom he loves and who loves him. If he have that he need not seek elsewhere. But supposing the man to be without such a helpmate, female friendships he must have, or his intellect will be without a garden, and there will be many an unheeded gap even in its strongest fence. Better and safer, of course, such friendships where disparities of years or circumstances put the idea of love out of the question. Middle life has rarely this advantage, youth and old age have. We may have female friendships with those much older and those much younger than ourselves. Moliere's old housekeeper was a great help to his genius; and Montaigne's philosophy takes both a gentler and a loftier character of wisdom from the date in which he finds, in Maria de Gournay, an adopted daughter, "certainly beloved by me," says the Horace of essayists, "with more than paternal love, and involved in my solitude and my retirement, as one of the best parts of my being." Female friendship, indeed, is to man, "presidium et dulce decus"—bulwark, sweetener, ornament of his existence. To his mental culture it is invaluable; without it all his knowledge of books will never give him knowledge of the world.—Robert Lytton.

ELOQUENCE AT A DISCOUNT.—"May it please the court," said a Yankee lawyer before a Dutch Judge, the other day, "this is a case of the greatest importance; while the American eagle, whose sleepless eye watches the welfare of this mighty Republic, and whose wings extend from the Alleghenies to the rocky chain of the West, was rejoicing in pride of place—" "Shop, dare! shop, I say; 't is not his duty to do mit eagles? It has nothing to do mit the wild bird; it is von sheep!" exclaimed the justice.

"True, your honor, but my client has rights—" "Your client has no right to do eagle." "Of course not; but the laws of language—" "You cares I for the laws of language, eh? I understand de laws of the State and dat ish enough for me. Confine your talk to de case."

"Well, then, my client, the defendant in this case, is charged with stealing a sheep, and—" "Dat will do! dat will do! Your client is charged mit stealing a sheep, shust nine shillins. De court will adjourn."

THE MARCH TO THE GRAVE.—What a mighty procession has been marching to ward the grave during the year! At the usual estimate, since the 1st of October, 1861, more than 31,500,000 of the world's population have gone down to earth again! Place them in a long array, and they will give a moving column of more than thirteen hundred to every mile of the globe's circumference. Only think of it; ponder and look upon these astounding computations. What a spectacle, as they move on, tramp, tramp, forward upon this stupendous dead march!

"Life is short, and time is fleeting, And our hearts, though strong and brave, Still like muffled drums are beating Funeral marches to the grave."

AN INCIDENT IN BATTLE.—A story is told of the veteran Sumner at the battle of Antietam. His son, young Captain Sumner, a youth of 21, was on his staff. The old man calmly stood, amidst a storm of shot and shells, and turned to send him through a doubly raging fire, upon a mission of duty. He might never see his boy again, but his country claimed his life, and as he looked upon his young brow, he grasped his hand, encircled him in his arms, and fondly kissed him. "Good-bye, Sammy," "Good-bye, father," and the youth mounting his horse, rode gallantly on the mission of duty. He returned unhurt, and again his hand was grasped with a cordial "How do you do, Sammy?" answered by a grasp of equal affection. The scene was touching to those around.

GENERAL HOOKER.—A Washington correspondent of a New York paper, under date of October 2d, says:

General Hooker rode into the city today in a carriage. He appears to be full of nervous energy. He is reported as having said that Richmond might have been immediately taken after the battle of Williamsburg, and that Lee's army might have been destroyed at Antietam.

A Dutelman thus describes an accident: "Once a long while ago, I went into mine apple orchard, to climb a bear tree, to get some peaches to make mine vrow a blum budding mit; and ven I got on the toibermost branch I fall down from the lowermost limb, mit one leg on both sides of defence, and like to stove mine outside in."

"WELL, what next?" said Mrs. Partington, as she interrupted Ike, who was reading the war news—"The pickets were driven in five mile! Press my poor soul, but that will make a strong fence. I suppose they had to be driven in deep, to keep the Secessionists from digging out under them."

The following is suggested as a suitable epitaph for John Bell's tombstone: "Here lies John Bell, This marble under, He's gone to—well I shouldn't wonder!"
