Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

[TELEGRAPHED TO YREKA FOR THE SENTINEL.]

Dates to the 23d.

Washington, Nov. 21st.—We have reports from army to-night. Nothing important has transpired.

New York, Nov. 21st.—The Times dispatch from Falmouth, dated 20th, says rebel pickets made their appearance on opposite bank of river.

Chicago, Nov. 21st.—Senator Iatham passed through Quincy, Ills. on 18th, bound for Washington.

New York, Nov. 21st.—A Newbern letter of 14th, says the recent expedition under Gen. Foster, left Washington North Carolina, on 3d, 5,000 strong, to make reconnaissance in force towards Weldon, with the purpose of taking Williamston and Hamilton, and destroying the strong and extensive rebel fortifications in that vicinity, and also to interrupt the reported construction of iron clad vessels at these points on Roanoke river. 2,000 rebels attempted to prevent his march at Little Creek, but were driven off. The expedition pushed on to Williamston and Hamilton, which were found to be strongly fortified. The rebel force was successfully flanked but escaped being "bagged" by a hasty retreat. Our total loss six killed and eight wounded.

Boston, Nov. 21st.—The draw of the Charleston bridge was open this morning when the way passenger train went through. The engine, tender and smoking car were plunged into the river. Many passengers escaped by jumping from windows and swimming. Four bodies have been recovered.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 17th.—A gentleman from Albemarle Sound, says there are no Yankee gunboats on the Sound—they have gone to James river.

San Francisco, Nov. 22d.—The Sanitary Committee forwarded $30,000 on the Constitution to-day.

Washington, 17th.—The bids for thirteen and a half millions of seven and three tenths three year bonds were announced by the Secretary of the Treasury this afternoon. There was an unusually large number of bidders and other persons present. The minimum successful offers were a fraction over a hundred and three per cent. The maximum offers were from a hundred and three and sixty-two hundredths to a hundred and four per cent. Only about two millions were awarded at the minimum rate. This fact demonstrates the continued high confidence reposed in the public credit, and leaves no doubt of the Government to command ample means for the prosecution of the war.

Cairo, 20th.—A forage train of two hundred wagons, guarded by three hundred infantry, was attacked by a much superior force of guerrillas, fifteen miles from Helena, Arkansas, last Friday. After a short fight the rebels were driven off.

The Marine Hospital of Paducah, Kentucky, was burned on Monday night. The patients escaped and the furniture was saved. The building was valued at a hundred thousand dollars, which is the Government loss.

A fire at Memphis on Saturday night destroyed six dwellings and three manufacturing establishments. The loss is heavy. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

The Grenada Appeal has the following: Chattanooga, 13th.—Forrest's cavalry had a skirmish with the Federals on the Franklin road on Thursday, and killed 20 and wounded 50 or 60. The Federals being reinforced, Forrest's forces were withdrawn.

Memphis, 19th.—Great anxiety is felt among the Secesh sympathizers here, about Mobile. Report says that the people there are leaving as fast as possible.

The Savannah Republican of November 13th, says: Two Yankee gunboats have entirely destroyed the town of St. Mary's, Georgia. On Sunday last, the Federals attempted to land, and were repulsed, when the gunboats opened on the town.

The Wilmington, N. C., Journal, of Nov. 5th, gives the particulars of the sinking of an English bark, off port, by the blockading fleet. The vessel and cargo were a total loss.

Washington, 19th.—The condition of our army is such as to give its General great confidence in the result of the next battle.

A report from Richmond says there are nearly one hundred thousand (?) patients in the hospitals there.

The Navy Department yesterday received news of the capture of the rebel schooner Emma, with a cargo of cotton from Velasco, Texas, bound for Jamaica.

Washington, 21st.—Governor Yates of Illinois had an interview with the President yesterday, and urged upon him the necessity of standing by his recent proclamation if he hoped for the speedy suppression of the rebellion. The President replied that he was as much determined in his course as ever.

Philadelphia, Nov. 21st.—Last evening's Washington Star says the Navy Department has information of the recent capture of the steamer California, from Mobile, bound for Havana, loaded with a thousand bales of cotton. She was captured by the Montgomery.

Cairo, 21st.—The Grenada Appeal has a Charleston dispatch, dated the 13th, saying that important movements of the Army of Virginia were in progress, and active hostilities are probable very near Richmond. This seems a confirmation of the report already telegraphed, that the rebel army had retreated to Richmond.

A special dispatch states that in accordance with the late order of General Halleck, one hundred officers absent from their commands without leave have been stricken from the rolls of the army. Nearly a thousand more are to be treated in like manner.

Washington, 22d.—A dispatch from Headquarters of the Army, dated yesterday, says that our artillery opened fire upon the enemy while they were removing their stores from Fredericksburg, disabling a locomotive, and damaging the track. It is not believed they have a large force in that vicinity.

New York, 22d.—A Falmouth dispatch to the Tribune says, the rebels planted two Rodman guns on the hill back of Fredericksburg, but our batteries on this side silenced them.

A dispatch from Headquarters, dated 11 o'clock last night, says General Sumner had demanded the surrender of Fredericksburg from the Mayor and Common Council. If refused, sixteen hours would be given for the removal of non-combatants from the city, at the end of which time the city would be shelled. The message was conveyed to Gen. Longstreet, whose troops are said to be encamped a short distance from the city. As the demand was made on the civil authorities, the Mayor sent a reply, which was evidently written at the dictation of Longstreet, to the effect that the Confederates would dispute the Federal occupation of the city. He complained of the short time allowed for moving the women and children. The giving of more time for this purpose is now under consideration. Permission has been given the citizens to run one train from the city, but only for the conveyance of women and children.

Advices from Port Royal say the yellow fever had entirely disappeared.

A Washington letter, dated Nov. 21st, says some apprehension has been entertained for the forces under General Sigel, but to-day it is believed they have fallen back in good order, and that they can resist any attack made on them.

The Potomac river is now so high as to render it impossible to ford it.

Washington, 22d.—Advices from our Mexican minister by last arrival are favorable. Congress met Oct. 20th. Representatives from all the States were present, and a law was passed giving the Government extraordinary powers to resist the invasion, making Juarez Director, and almost Dictator, for six months or the war, with powers such as were conferred on Deblado at last session.

Washington, 23d.—Last night was a busy time at Fredericksburg in removing the inhabitants. Military authorities also not idle, as daylight this morning revealed a line of earthworks to the right and rear of the town, as a result of night's labor. Our artillery is now being placed in most favorable positions, while the encampments which are in range of the enemy's guns, are being removed further back from river. There are very strong reasons for our not opening on city to-day, unless forced by rebels.

Philadelphia, 23d.—A Harper's Ferry letter says it is rumored that Jackson is still near Winchester with 40,000 men.

San Francisco, 23d.—Sierra Nevada arrived from Victoria. Almost a riot occurred in Victoria on the 10th on the occasion of celebration of majority of Prince of Wales. A secessionist named Shepard hoisted rebel flag, and refused to take it down. Loyal Americans protested, and our Consul addressed an official note to Governor Douglas, saying, that if he permitted the secession flag to be displayed, loyal citizens would be deterred from participating in celebration. The Governor did not interfere, and the rebel rag was kept aloft until after the last salute had been fired—it was guarded by police. At 1 o'clock, p. m., Shepard took his flag down.

Thereupon the American Consul displayed the stars and stripes, and the American residents and vessels in the port did the same. Two days after, the Governor, through his Secretary, replied to the American Consul's note. His Excellency had no knowledge of the flag alluded to, and specifying the foreign flags recognized by his Government, said that it had been usual not to deprive citizens of foreign nations from displaying any flags or banners which their fancy might lead them to adopt for anniversary reasons.

There has been lately felled at Jackson, Amador county, an oak tree from whose branches thirteen men were, in lynch law [49] times, swung into eternity for crimes against society. That tree will bear no more such fruit; and if hanging is the worst use a man can be put to, we hope no other ever will.

RISE IN PAPER.—All kinds of paper printing, wrapping and letter, has gone up 25 per cent. The war tax cannot possibly make so large an advance. Perhaps the ladies' lint societies, all over the Union, have devoured all the rags, thus creating a scarcity of the manufacturing material.

MAINE, with a total population of 628,000, has sent 40,000 volunteers to the war. Four thousand of these are seamen. She sends no drafted men to the war, and claims to be the banner State in raising volunteers.
