SACHS BROS.

All sorts of marketable Produce taken in exchange for goods. Jacksonville, Oct. 20, 1862.

Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

[TELEGRAPHED TO YERKA FOR THE SENTINEL.]

Dates to November 28th.

Chicago, 37th.—The N. Y. papers say that Gen. Banks and staff are working industriously night and day, fitting out and organizing a great expedition, which will sail in a few days to strike a telling blow on some point of the Southern coast. If all the troops which are now quartered in the city and encamped on Long Island, as well as several regiments which are expected to arrive very soon, are to join the expedition, it will be far more formidable than any which the Government has yet sent out.

The President yesterday went by special steamboat to Acquia Creek, where he was met by General Burnside. He returned this morning.

Falmouth, Va., Nov. 27th.—Fredericksburg is not occupied by the enemy in force, but merely held by a picket guard. Business is totally suspended. The only flag flying is a British one, floating from a private residence.

Nashville, 26th.—Considerable bodies of cavalry have been hovering about our front. They were driven off by Col. Kennett's cavalry yesterday. The weight of military opinion continues favorable to the view that no great battle will be fought in this vicinity. A body of 1800 rebels who were at Nolinsville, retired to Murfreesboro last night. The rebels at that point are said to number 16,000, under Breckinridge, Cheatham and Withers. Buckner's corps is at and around Normandy. Hardee and Polk are posted from Tallahoma to Winchester. General Negly estimates the enemy in Middle Tennessee to be 50,000 strong. Other testimony fixes their number at 40,000.

New York, 28th.—The political prisoners at Fort Lafayette, including Pierre Soule, have been released.

New York, 28th.—The Falmouth (Va.) correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, under date of November 26th, says: "The presumption is that in a very few days we will have a battle in this vicinity that will eclipse all others of the war in regard to ferocity and fierceness. There is not the slightest doubt but that the enemy is in great force on the other side of the river. They are equal, if not superior, to our own in point of numbers. It is believed their army will not fall short of 125,000 men. Their camp-fires can be seen extending at least ten miles along the river, and five miles back into the country. They have been for a few days past working like beavers, throwing up fortifications. Their present position is on the brow of a range of high hills, some distance back from the river, with a heavy wood in their rear.

Louisville, 28th.—An order has been issued by General Boyle to the effect that all commanding officers of this department shall not permit negro slaves to enter their camps, and all officers and men are forbidden to interfere or intermeddle with slaves in any way. The order gives great satisfaction to conservative men in this section. The Buell Court of Inquiry assembled yesterday. The proceedings will be private.

Cairo, 27th.—Incendiaries are trying to burn the city of Memphis. Last Sunday night there were ten different fires, and on Monday night fourteen, showing that there is a concerted movement to destroy the city. Great alarm exists in consequence.

On Tuesday morning two hundred and fifty rebel cavalry took the town of Henderson, on the Mobile and Ohio Road, burned the station house and other property, and captured one company of Federal soldiers.

Washington, 28th.—Major General McDowell's Court of Inquiry promises to be of long continuance. Nearly all the documents called for by him have been furnished. General McClellan, as well as General Sigel, Ricketts, Hartsuff, Pope and others, whose presence here will not interfere with their military duties, will be summoned as witnesses.

CHICAGO, 28th.—A correspondent of the Boston Traveller, writing from on board the transport Baltic, in Hampton Roads, under date of November 20th, states that that vessel was under orders to sail on the following Monday. He says the steamers are taking on board stores and coal. The expedition is to be a large one, commanded either by Banks or Hunter. Fortress Monroe will be the starting point, and in less than a week the expedition will be under way. Banks have been put up in the steamers to accommodate 12,000 men.

New York, Nov. 28th.—Of the steamers which were recently built for the rebels on the river Clyde, one was lost on her trial trip, a second has just been wrecked near Havana, and third is supposed by the Charleston papers to be lost.

New York, 28th.—The Times' Washington dispatch says the President will, in his message, earnestly recommend the passage of a bankrupt law by Congress.

Trenton, (N. J.), 28th.—Gov. Olden has appointed Richard S. Field, of Princeton, United States Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Senator Thompson. The term expires on the fourth of March.

Dates to Nov. 30th.

New York, 29th.—The Times' Falmouth correspondent says, a reconnoissance, which left on the 26th, went a portion of the way and returned, having acquired valuable information.

Refugees represent the rebel army as very large, and say Gen. Bragg has, without doubt, united his army with that of Lee's; they also state Gen. Jackson will remain in the rear and continue to menace Washington during winter.

More entrenchments, on Fredericksburg Heights, are being brought to light to-day by the Signal Corps; they now number nearly fifty; many of them, however, are quite small and protected by only one gun.

Port Royal advices give an account of an expedition, by a colored regiment, to Derby Sound. The negroes are said to have behaved very commendably. The expedition brought back two hundred thousand feet of lumber. It was rumored at Port Royal, that Beauregard had pronounced Charleston indefensible, and that the inhabitants were removing their property from that city.

Quite a spirited but brief engagement took place at Zane, on Blackwater, between two battalions mounted rifles, under Col. Dodge, and the rebels. Dodge drove them back from the river, but having no orders to cross, could not pursue the advantage. They had no artillery, and our grape and canister troubled them considerably. They lost several men.

Washington telegrams says Secretary Seward looks upon the proposed mediation of the French Government as an act of a friendly power, simply to secure an interview between the belligerents, without prejudice to what they do afterwards. That to prevent the continuance of the war, or to exercise the least pressure upon either party, directly or indirectly, is in no manner expressed or hinted at in this document.

The army correspondent of the Philadelphia Examiner says, "Daily, hourly, and in fact momentarily, we expect to hear the first gun fired that will inaugurate the grand battle of this campaign."

Steamer Cambria, from New Orleans, the 20th, has arrived. There were still a few cases of yellow fever at Houston, Texas, but the disease was not epidemic. Gen. Butler is about to place overseers on the confiscated plantations to save the cotton and sugar. A large number of river boats have been armed, as guerrillas infest the river banks below the city; one naval vessel had been fired into by them. No vessels, unless well armed, now leave the city.

Cairo, 29th.—The Grand Army South is in motion. Gen. Sherman, with his forces, left Memphis Wednesday. Gen. Grant's army struck their last tents yesterday, and started off on the Holly Springs road; seven days rations were prepared, and only one tent to twenty men, and one to the officers of each company, with but six wagons to each regiment.

Prisoners taken confess to the utter hopelessness of their cause in the West.

Washington, 29th.—A dispatch from Sigel's headquarters, says Jackson had passed through Salem, White Plains and Warrenton, probably on his way to join Gen. Lee. Burnside arrived at Washington, and spent this morning in consultation with the President and Halleck. He returned to headquarters this evening. Early yesterday, some rebel cavalry crossed river some distance from here, evading our pickets, and made a descent on two companies of 3rd Pennsylvania cavalry, capturing nearly all of them.

New York, 30th.—A Harper's Ferry dispatch states, Jackson moved towards Thoroughfare Gap on Thursday.

New Orleans advices give glowing accounts of Union meeting held there, Nov. 5th. Resolutions were adopted endorsing Butler's rule and sustaining Lincoln's administration, and expressing hope of speedy opening of the Mississippi.

St. Louis, 29th.—A train of 47 wagons containing commissary stores, was attacked by a party of rebels on its way from Rolla to Hartsville. Five of the escort were killed and some wounded, but not without a spirited defense. The escort brought off 25 wagons; the balance were burned by the assailing party.

Dates to Dec. 1st.

New York, Dec. 1st.—The frigate Vanderbilt has returned from search for the pirate Alabama—having steamed four thousand miles, cruising from Great Banks southward to Bermuda.

Washington, Dec. 1st.—Gen. Stahl attacked a superior force of the enemy's cavalry at Sicker's Gap, on Saturday, and drove them within four miles of Winchester. Fifty rebels were killed, and forty taken prisoners. The Federal loss was fifteen. A large amount of commissary stores and ordinance, 160 head of horses and cattle, three stands of colors, with other rebel property, was captured.

The Navy Department has information that the pirate Alabama is expected to visit the Azores early in November, to receive supplies of ammunition and men from Bahama.

Gen. Blunt, with 500 Federals, attacked and routed 800 rebels, under Marmaduke, at Canehill, Ark., Nov. 20th, killing 60, and driving the balance some twelve miles.

Falmouth, 30th.—Five of our gunboats are reported to have advanced up the Rappahannock, opposite King George Court House.

REMO.—It is rumored that William Ish, formerly of this town, but lately a gold hunter in the northern mines, has been killed by Indians. We don't believe a word of it.
