All sorts of marketable Produce taken in exchange for goods. Jacksonville, Oct. 20, 1862.

Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

(TELEGRAPHED TO YREKA FOR THE SENTINEL.)

Dates to Dec. 9th.

St. Louis, Dec. 9th.—A dispatch from the battle-field near Fayetteville, (Ark.) dated the 8th, says: Gen. Herron's force en route to reinforce Gen. Blunt, met the enemy, yesterday, at Prairie Grove, and won a decisive victory over them. The enemy were 24,000 strong, divided into four divisions—under Marmaduke, Frost, Parsons, and Rains—all under General Hindman, and supported by eighteen pieces of artillery. The enemy had flanked Blunt's position at Cave Hill, and made a sudden dash on Herron, to prevent him from uniting with Blunt. Herron's force consisted of six regiments of infantry and two battalions of cavalry, in all about 7,000 men with twenty-four pieces of artillery. The battle raged from 10 a. m. till dark, and was desperately fought throughout. Our artillery drove the enemy from two strong positions, and kept their overwhelming numbers at bay. The 20th Wisconsin regiment captured one rebel battery of four heavy guns, but were forced to abandon it under a murderous fire. The 19th Iowa afterwards took the same battery, and fought desperately to retain it, but were also obliged to yield it. At 4 p. m., General Blunt arrived with 5,000 men and a strong force of artillery. He attacked the enemy in the rear; they made tremendous efforts to capture his batteries, but were repulsed with terrible slaughter. We held the whole field at dark, and before 9 o'clock the rebels were in full retreat over the Boston mountains. Our loss in killed and wounded is stated to be 600; that of the rebels 1,500, by their own admission.

Several rebel field officers were killed, among them Col. Stein, formerly of Missouri. But few prisoners were taken. We captured four caissons filled with ammunition. Lieut. Col. McFarlin of the 19th Iowa, was the only field officer on our side killed. Maj. Hubbard of First Missouri cavalry was taken prisoner.

New York, Dec. 9th.—The weather at Falmouth is intensely cold, with two to four inches of ice in Rappahannock, and Potomac rivers.

Fortress Monroe Dec. 7th.—Information from Newbern, N. C., dated Dec. 1st says it is discovered that it is intention of rebels to abandon immediately all that portion of North Carolina lying east of Weldon and Wilmington railroad.

Louisville, Dec. 8th.—We have but little in regard to Federal defeat mentioned in Philadelphia dispatch of to-day. It seems that one brigade, under General Dumont, was surprised at Hartsville by Colonel Morgan, commanding three regiments of infantry and two of cavalry. After an hour's desperate fighting, Federals were captured. Sixty killed and wounded on our side. Ammunition and stores in abundance were taken by enemy. A heavy force was sent in pursuit of Morgan, but he will probably make good his escape.

Dates to Dec. 10th.

Washington, 10th.—Information has been received that six pickets in the army of the Potomac were frozen to death on the night of the 8th. In the camp near Alexandria seven died from the effects of the cold.

Chicago, 10th.—The following extracts from the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, show the estimated receipts and expenditures for the year ending 30th of June, 1862—framed on the supposition of a continuance of the war:

Estimated expenditures, in round numbers, for the civil list, $25,000,000; interior department and pensions, $10,250,000; war department, $738,830,000; navy department, $68,250,000; interest of public debt, $19,400,000; to which appropriations made are estimated as remaining undrawn on 1st of July, 1863, $200,000,000; making an aggregate to the 1st of July, for which appropriations are made or asked, $1,095,000,000. Of this amount, it is estimated that $250,000,000 will remain undrawn on the 1st of July, 1863, making the true amount of the probable expenditures, during the fiscal year, $845,000,000.

Estimated receipts from custom, $70,000,000; for internal duties, $450,000,000; miscellaneous sources, $3,000,000. The whole amount to be provided by Congress, beyond resources available under existing laws, may, upon the supposition of a continuance of the war, be stated as follows: For fiscal year of 1863, $277,000,000; fiscal year 1864, $622,000,000. The public debt, on the 1st of July, 1863, is estimated at $1,122,250,000.

New York, 10th.—Dates to the 29th of November reported that the rebels were preparing to attack our gunboats at Galveston with five heavily armed steamers; also, that about five thousand troops intended coming down under cover of night to aid in the attack.

Washington, 10th.—We learn from Fairfax Court House that our scouts report general evacuation by the rebels of Thoroughfare Gap.

San Francisco, 10th.—Dispatches are received from New York stating that Commissioner Boutwell promises to forward a supply of stamps for California by the steamer of the 11th of December.

Advices from Kanagwa says that while three Englishmen and a lady were out riding they met the retinue of a Chief, when they were attacked. Mr. Richardson, one of the number, was killed and his body mutilated. The two other men were wounded and the lady slightly. On word reaching Kanagwa, the English and French residents there armed themselves and were proceeding to clean out the perpetrators, when the English minister would not permit his citizens to go. The French, however, went and rescued the wounded men. A meeting was held, and an account of the affair was signed by all present, which reflected severely on the British minister, Col. Neale.

Latest --- Fredericksburg Burned --- Great Battle Progressing.

Washington, Dec. 11th.—At 6 o'clock this morning, 143 Federal guns opened on Fredericksburg. Up to latest accounts, the fire continued uninterrupted. The destruction of the city is certain. The enemy opened fire at 7 o'clock, which, thus far, has been of no serious damage. Franklin's division is crossing three miles below the city, having constructed bridges with but little opposition. Our gunboats are shelling the enemy fifteen miles down the river. Dispatches from headquarters of Potomac say that there has been considerable change in the position of the army corps within the past few days. It is stated that the enemy had 180 guns in position on the south side of the Rappahannock.

The steamer Eagle, with Havana dates to the 6th, has arrived. The position of the French at Vera Cruz and Orizaba is represented as very critical. They have no fodder for their cattle, and no fresh feed for the troops, who suffer from dysentery. The force at Jalapa is cut off from supplies from Vera Cruz. The Mexicans are actively fortifying Puebla and the city of Mexico, and the roads between them, and they also intend flooding the valley, rendering the city inaccessible.

Washington, Dec. 11.—In the House, yesterday, the Senate bill for the admission of Western Virginia into the Union, was passed by 96 to 55. It provides for submitting a constitution to the people for ratification.

Nashville, 9th.—Gov. Johnson has issued a proclamation for the election of Representatives to the 9th and 10th Congressional districts.

Head-quarters of Army on Potomac, Dec. 11th, 9 a. m.—Everything last night was confusion. To-day was the time fixed for crossing the Rappahannock. During the night pontoons were conveyed to the river, and artillery placed in front of Fredericksburg. At three this morning the construction of three bridges commenced in front of the city, and when they were about half completed, the enemy opened a murderous infantry fire from houses on the river bank, driving the engineers from the bridges; several were killed and wounded. At six o'clock Gen. Burnside ordered all guns to open on the city. The cannonading which has continued to the present time is terrible. The city is on fire and its destruction certain. At seven o'clock the enemy opened with their heavy guns from their works, but no serious damage has been done yet. Gen. Franklin's division crossed the river three miles below. The concentrated fire of our guns on the city, has the effect of driving back the enemy from their batteries, and the work on the bridges commenced again.

The troops are all under arms near the river, prepared to rush over as soon as the bridges are completed. On an attempt being made to finish bridges the rebel infantry again opened fire, as also their artillery, which fired the bridges in several places. Burnside ordered the concentrated fire of every gun upon the city, under cover of which it is believed that bridges can be finished. Our killed and wounded do not exceed fifty.

Philadelphia, 11th.—Nashville dispatches say that the rebels under Johnson, Bragg, Cheatham, Forrest and Morgan, advanced and appeared in front in great force. A battle is expected near Harpeth, 20 miles southwest of Nashville. Reinforcements are being hurried forward. Every point will be strengthened. The recent rebel victory at Hartsville seems to have emboldened them.

Cairo, 11th.—General Grant is encamped at Oxford, waiting supply train from Holly Springs. Reports are contradictory as to whether the rebels re-occupy Grenada or not.

St. Louis, 11th.—Gen. Blunt telegraphs that the rebels have crossed the Arkansas river. The enemy's loss is 2,000, among whom are five Colonels; our loss was 700.

New York, 11th.—The pirate Alabama was a Martinique Nov. 17th. The Federal gunboat San Jacinto arrived there same forenoon, and went outside to wait for her; but she escaped the next night.

San Francisco, 12th.—The Golden Age took 625 passengers and $1,595,599 in treasure. The Moses Taylor took 553 passengers.

JACKSONVILLE SEWING SOCIETY.—This sewing circle will meet at George Brown's, Esq., on Tuesday, the 16th, at one o'clock in the afternoon. Our numbers are increasing; our prospects brightening. Mrs. J. H. WALROD, Pres. Mrs. L. SMITH, Sec.

WONDERS.—"Shelden's great Museum of Wonders, and Scenes in the Magic World," will be exhibited at Jacksonville on Monday night next, 15th Dec.
