

Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

THE ANGLO-REBEL NAVY.—Secretary Cameron's warning as to a rebel iron clad fleet fitting out in England, for a demonstration on some Northern port, would seem to be more than mere fancy, crediting the following extract from the London correspondence of the Boston Commercial Bulletin, under date of October 18th:

"It is well you are just about completing a fleet of 'Monitors.' You are likely to need them before long. Workmen are engaged night and day on the Mercy, on the Clyde and elsewhere, in building some twenty iron clads, which are to see service in American waters. They are intended to convey vessels into Southern ports. This I know to be a fact. My information is directly from those in confidence with the promoters. I can only see one way of preventing a good deal of mischief."

"Every port for which they are designed ought to be in the power of the American Government before these ugly monsters can cross the Atlantic. Then you might welcome them as effective aids in future operations. To disarm suspicion it is popularly given out that this iron fleet is being built for the Chinese Government; but I need hardly tell you that Mason and his friends form one of the chief contracting parties."

As if corroboratory of this we notice, in a recent English paper, that the Earl of Clarendon, ex-Viceroy of Ireland and ex-Foreign Secretary of England, lately visited the iron ship building yard of Messrs. Laird, at Birkenhead, the Camden of Liverpool. There he saw, not only some monster iron clad frigates for the Royal navy, but two iron clad shell proof rams, of very peculiar construction, rising into shape under the shed where the famous '290' was put together. In fact, that particular shed is called the American, and there can be no question that the shell proof war rams are intended for the South. Laird, who builds them, is a member of Parliament, and Lord Clarendon is a Privy Councillor.—New York Evening Post.

SIXTEEN loyal Kentuckians were hung by the rebels about October 20th, near Cumberland Gap. Most of them belonged to Lincoln county, and were captured by a Tennessee regiment under Kirby Smith. Their offense was their Unionism, and that they had banded together for mutual protection against rebel guerrillas.

The Marysville Appeal very cutely asks: "Shall not their murderers be coaxed back into the Union, and elected to the State and National Legislature?"

MAY STILL BE RELIED ON.—In the year 1867, John Randolph of Virginia, said to Josiah Quincy, of Massachusetts: "We slave owners of the South count upon the Democracy of the North as we do upon our negroes." The recent elections, in the absence of more than half a million voters in the army fighting against the slave owners' rebellion, prove that the Democracy are as reliable as ever in the interest of the nigger lords.

At a very learned discussion on strata, the other day, at the house of a learned professor, a Mr. B. asked if there were any strata of precious gems. "No, none whatever," replied Prof. —. "I've heard of one," said Mr. B. "Impossible!" was the rejoinder. "Oh, yes," said Mr. B., "and it was called a strata-gem."

A little five-year old girl, who has a brother in the army, was told that she must pray for her brother Jo. The next night on going to bed she said: "O, lord, let brother Jo shot the others, but don't let the others shot Jo."

Life is a beautiful night, in which, as some stars go down, others rise.
