TOWN AND COUNTY.

MAN SHOT.—A man by the name of Reese was shot, on Butte Creek, in this county, on the 29th day of December last—it is not known by whom. Indeed, the whole affair is enveloped in mystery. The following is, briefly, the story told us: A stranger was seen driving off some horses. Mr. Reese went up to him, when he (the stranger) asked Reese whose horses those were; Reese answered, "some of them are mine, and the rest are my neighbors." The stranger remarked, "you are a d—n liar, sir, and have been stealing horses long enough, and I am going to put a stop to it." Suiting the action to the word, he deliberately leveled his rifle and fired. The ball, which was a small one, grazed the chin and passed through the neck of Reese. Reese was alive at the latest accounts, but it is thought he cannot recover. Reese is every way a worthy and honorable man. It is supposed that a crazy man, known as "Dutch Henry," is the person who did the shooting. He has not been arrested.

NEW YEAR.—Nothing is more distinct than the different tastes of men. This axiom received a fine illustration in the various manner in which the closing hours of the old, as well as the beginning moments of the new year were celebrated by the different classes of persons in the community. Some passed these eventful moments amid the enchantments of the ball-room, others in oft filling and often draining the flowing bowl, while others still repaired to the house of God, and spent these thrilling moments in supplication and prayer. All were alike joyous and happy. We are glad to say that order and sobriety prevailed. There was not a single case of drunkenness in our town. We doubt whether this can be ascertained of many more towns of the size of Jacksonville in this State. May we become celebrated for our love of law and order, peace and sobriety.

MARRIAGES AND DIVORCES IN 1862.—There has been twenty-eight marriages in this county during the last year. The county was organized in 1853, since which time there have been one hundred and eighty-eight marriages recorded; or, in other words, there has been, since the organization of the county, one hundred and eighty-eight offers made that were accepted. The number of unaccepted offers made are variously estimated at from 2,000 to 5,000. There have been only six divorces granted by the Courts during the year. There are other cases pending, however.

R. A. M. ELECTION.—The following named persons were duly elected officers of Oregon Chapter No. 4, Royal Arch Masons, on the evening of the 6th Dec., and were installed on the 29th: G. W. Greer, M. E. H. P.; A. M. Berry, E. K.; G. M. Harris, E. S.; Wm. Bryce, P. S.; A. Martin, C. H.; H. Bloom, R. A. S.; F. B. Sprague, M. J. V.; O. Saltmarsh, M. J. V.; Wm. Hess, M. J. V.; L. Sachs, Sec'y; J. T. Glenn, Treas.; J. E. Ross, Guard.

THE WEATHER.—The face of the honest miner beams with radiant joy. His oft repeated prayers have been copiously answered. There is water above, water below, water all around. For the last few days it has not rained, but it poured down. This (Saturday) morning the ground is covered with snow, and still the storm god lowers portentously in the southern sky.

R. BENEDICT.—The ball given by mine host, on New Year's eve, at his house on Applegate, was a very fine, pleasant, and agreeable affair. We had a representative there, who jubilantly declares his intention to "lay off" hereafter for balls at Benedict's.

LOUIS HORNE.—The ball on New Year's eve, at the Union Hotel, Jacksonville, was a brilliant and magnificent affair. All who participated were highly pleased, and speak in glowing encomiums of the catering ability of mine host.

HE TOOK IT.—The scotch lately arrested at Phoenix, in this county, after laying in the guard house a day or two, concluded to take the oath of allegiance. After the wholesome physic had fairly settled on his stomach, he was released.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The Stages are now five days in coming from Sacramento to Jacksonville.

Died.

On Applegate, Jackson county, Oregon, December 31st, ROBERT LEE, infant son of JOHN W. and SARAH A. MCKAY.

"Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

This morning, Jan. 3d, in Jacksonville precinct, of consumption, Mrs. ANN JANE, wife of W. C. RANSON.

The funeral procession will start from the house at 12 o'clock to-morrow (Sunday), and will pass through town about 1 p. m. Funeral services will be had at the grave. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.
