"TO THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION, A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDISPENSABLE."—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 10, 1863.

The News.

The dispatches received last night are intensely interesting to every loyal American. As confidently expected, the President did, on the first of January, issue his Emancipation Proclamation.

A great battle has been fought at or near Murfreesboro, Tenn. The final result is not fully known. On the 26th ult. the Federal forces moved from Nashville, in three columns, towards the rebel stronghold. McCook had command of the right, Crittenden of the left, and Thomas of the center.

The tidings from Vicksburg are cheering. Fighting commenced on the 24th, and had continued for five days—Federal slowly but surely gaining.

The Monitor is said to have foundered at sea. The clipper ship Noonday, having on board the wire for the Oregon Telegraph, has been wrecked, eight miles from Farrallone, and sunk in forty fathoms of water.

PUNGE.—All persons indebted to the firm of Miller & Owen are notified to make immediate payment to Reed & Gaston.

PREACHING.—The Rev. D. L. Hopkins will preach at the Court House, to-morrow, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Major-General Porter.

We condense the following statement from a long article in the Sacramento Union, of Jan. 3d:

There are two charges of a serious nature preferred against this General by B. S. Roberts, Brigadier General of U. S. Volunteers, and Inspector General of Maj. General Pope's army. The first charge is for a disobedience of orders, or a violation of the ninth article of war.

The second charge is for disobedience of orders, in neglecting and refusing to attack the enemy when ordered, or a violation of fifty-second article of war.

If these charges are true, Gen. Porter is either an imbecile or a traitor. The evidence, so far as it has been published, is damaging to the patriotism and loyalty of the Major General.

He related the conversation with Gen. Porter on the afternoon before Friday's battle at Bull Run. From Porter's expression, and from his tone, and look, and manners, he became convinced that it was his purpose to fail to co-operate with Gen. Pope.

In the cross-examination, Col. Smith was asked to give his reason for this belief. His reasons were that the enemy, consisting of several divisions of the rebel army, became detached from the main force, which was beyond and toward Thoroughfare Gap.

If such be the true state of the case, it is no wonder that Pope was defeated in the memorable struggle at Bull Run. No wonder that he was compelled to seek protection behind the entrenchments about Washington.

THE ARMY.—We collate the following interesting facts from the Report of the Secretary of War: On the 29th of November, there were 775,336 men in the army of the United States.

There are 151 hospitals, and 58,175 patients in them. There are under treatment about 90,000 soldiers. The expense of the Surgical Department during the year has been $2,445,894, exclusive of the Sanitary Fund.

The Secretary gives a cheering account of the results of the last year, and holds that, notwithstanding the occasional defeats of the Union forces at different points, that more territory has been conquered or redeemed, by the Union army, than was ever witnessed upon so large a theater, in the same brief period, against so formidable an enemy.

The Secretary asserts positively that the contrabands have been of great service to the Union army. They have not been an expense over and above the value of their services to the Government. He recommends that they be used in fatigue duty and in every other service where they can relieve Union soldiers.

The Report is long, but full of pregnant suggestions and interesting matter.

ANOTHER INSANE PERSON.—"Dutch Henry," alias Henry Blecher, the person who shot Mr. Reese, on Butte Creek, a short time since, is in custody, awaiting the completion of the arrangements to send him to the Insane Asylum at Portland.

CONTRIBUTION TO SANITARY FUND.—S. A. Heilner, Esq., of Browtown, has forwarded $251 50 to C. C. Beckman, Esq., of this place, being the amount contributed by the good and patriotic people of Althouse Creek to the U. S. Sanitary Relief Commission.

Belt Lodge No. 26, A. F. & A. M., $50; A. H. Platter, $20; S. A. Heilner, $17; Wm. Robinson, $10; Joel Lewis, $10; Oscar Ganiard, $8 40; Peter Ganiard, $5; Levina Ganiard, $3 50; Levi F. Watkins, $10; L. W. Mulvany, $10; L. M. Lyman, $5; C. H. Beach, $5; J. Johnson, $5; Henry Schultz, $5; McCollins, $4; Jos. Trimby, $5; James Randall, $5; Wm. R. Campbell, $5; Wm. THE CHAMPION'S BELT.—On the 27th of November last, Mace and King contended for the Champion's Belt of England. The fight took place at Thames Haven, a station twenty miles from London. King drew the first blood, but up to the eighteenth round he had the worst of the battle.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Mr. H. Bloom extends a general invitation to the public to call at his large store and secure bargains in winter dry goods, which he is selling off at cost.

SEWING SOCIETY.—The Jacksonville Sewing Society will hold its next meeting Tuesday, January 13th, at 1 o'clock P. M., at Rev. Mr. Star's.

ALL SET.—The poles for the Oregon Telegraph are all set between Portland and Yreka. They are large, sawed poles, calculated for double wires.

MR. REESE, the gentleman who was shot by "Dutch Henry," on Butte Creek, on the 29th ult., is still in a dangerous condition, but strong hopes are entertained of his recovery.

What is the difference between a church organist and the influenza? One stops the nose and the other knows the stops.

How THEY FIRE IN BATTLE.—An army correspondent says:

You wonder whether the regiments fire regularly in volleys, or whether each man loads and fires as fast as he can. That depends on circumstances; but usually, except when the enemy is near at hand, the regiments fire only at the command of their officers.
