

Semi-Weekly Sentinel

New York January 16th.—The steamer Illinois, from New Orleans January 8th, has arrived. The rebels are encroaching on the Union lines in the neighborhood of Donelsonville, but no danger is apprehended. The affair at Galveston caused a general gloom among the army and navy. Admiral Farragut had sent the Brooklyn, Scotia, and half a dozen of his best vessels to recapture the Harriet Lane at all hazards, and if possible, to destroy the rebel gunboats on the Bayou Buff. Nothing has been heard from the expedition.

Up to the time the Illinois left nothing of Banks' plans had transpired. Most of his troops had gone to Baton Rouge.

SENSIBLE QUERIES.—The self-examining society has proposed the following queries, to which we would direct the attention of our delinquent subscribers:

Does it cost anything to print a paper? How long can a printer afford to furnish a paper for nothing? Do printers eat, drink, and wear clothing?

If so, how do they get it? Do I owe for my paper? Is not this particular period a first rate time to pay up?

A Senator said the other day, when the army boys come home from the wars they would fill up such a vote that the peace party would be sent to browse upon the pale buds of non-existence.

It has been supposed Adam was either lame or lazy, because his wife presented him with a Cain. The truth is he was not able to walk with out one. That is Eve's sin!

Why is a man with a scolding wife like London in the seventeenth century? He is afflicted with a great plague.

Since the demand for lint became so great, many of the very best ladies in the nation have got themselves into a scrape.

It is too bad. Folks are getting to call the Confederates armies the Confederate armies.
