Semi-Weekly Sentinel.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

New York, 23d.—The Times' letter from headquarters Army of the Potomac, Thursday evening, 20th, says the right and left wings of the army are in motion. We shall endeavor to cross the river ten miles above Falmouth. All operations below us are merely to deceive the enemy. One corps of infantry is to proceed down the river wading across at several places. Should any emergency arise, Majs. Spaulding and Magruder are to construct pontoons above. One train of pontoons is to be held in reserve directly opposite Fredericksburg.

The late great victory in the West has had an exhilerating effect on the army. The World's letter, same date, says Hooker and Franklin moved to-day at 1 o'clock; their men are marching in heavy order, with tents, knapsacks, blankets, etc. They took the road towards Hartford Church, which is directly north-east of United States Ford. Gen. Sigel moved at 4 P. M., in the same direction.

The Tribune's letter confirms the above and adds we are impatiently and anxiously awaiting the arrival of pontoons. The exciting and hazardous effort of building the bridges will be assisted by the crossing of a large number of men in boats, after the plan which proved so successful at Fredericksburg. Since writing the above, we learn that the head of the bridge train has arrived within half a mile of the river. Should fortune smile favorably on our undertaking, during the next twelve hours we hope to have driven the enemy before us, and have gained the rear of Fredericksburg.

Washington, 22d.—Gen. Burnside has issued the following proclamation, dated Jan. 20th:

"The Commanding General announces to the Army of the Potomac that we are about to meet the enemy once more. Our brilliant victories in North Carolina, Tennessee and Arkansas have divided and weakened the enemy on the Rappahannock, and the auspicious moment seems to have arrived to strike a great and mortal blow to the rebellion, and gain a decisive victory that is due to the country. Let the gallant soldiers of the many brilliant battle fields accomplish this achievement, and fame more glorious awaits them. The Commanding General calls for the firm and united action of officers and men, and under the providence of God, the Army of the Potomac will have taken a great step towards restoring peace to the country, and the Government to its rightful authority."

New York, 22d.—Washington dispatches announce the capture within our lines of J. W. Boyd and Charles Powell, of the rebel Stuart's command. They are liable to execution as spies.

Chicago, 22d.—Reports in regard to the Army of the Potamac are contradictory. Probably a movement has taken place, but how extensive we are yet unable to say. The New York Times' account of that battle cannot be true, as passengers who brought it to New York have left Washington, at latest, yesterday, and if there had been a battle it must have taken place Tuesday.

Sacramento, 24th.—The Senatorial caucus met last night, after taking two ballots adjourned till Tuesday night, to give Federal officers and wire pullers a chance to go to San Francisco. The vote stood—Phelps, 37; Sargent, 32; Conness, 24; Brown, 5.

AN IRISHMAN'S IDEA.—An Irishman left a demand with a lawyer, a friend of ours, for collection, with directions to have a letter sent before any suit commenced. "What shall I write about?" asked the lawyer. To which Pat replied: "Why, your honor will plaze begin a little moderate in the matter, jest calling him a divil of a spalpeen and nigligent puppy, and so coming on sharper till ye reach to the bottom of the chapter."

FORCIBLE.—The most forcible and truthful expression we have yet seen, relative to the emancipation proclamation of President Lincoln, is that used by the Pacific, a Presbyterian journal of San Francisco.

"The Government has now grappled with the flagship of Treason." The whole "situation" is summed up in that one sentence.

A western paper remarks, as "a curious fact," that newspaper correspondents are generally deeply in debt. There is nothing "curious" about it—newspaper correspondents are always selected on account of their immense lie-abilities.

SEE HERE.—If the emancipation proclamation is going to have no other effect than "to unite the whole South" in the rebellion and totally extirpate all Union sentiment in that quarters, why are not the secessionists rejoicing instead of sorrowing about it?

The next Legislature of Wisconsin will contain thirteen editors and ex-editors. What that body will not know of matters in general, won't be worth knowing.

That was a wise nigger, who in speaking of the happiness of the married people, said: "Dat depends altogedder how dey enjoy demselves."

WM. K. WILLIS, County Judge.
Roseburg, Dec. 2d, 1862. dec6w4d

Proclamation by the Governor.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, PORTLAND, O., January 6, A. D. 1863.

The President of the United States, through Brigadier General George Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific, and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord, commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies, required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry, Oregon Volunteers. They will be needed the coming spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for an expedition against the Snake Indians who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow-citizens. I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services, will in like manner respond to this call, thereby showing their loyalty to the Government, and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men, when mounted, will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted or not as shall be deemed advisable by the Government. Propositions to raise a whole company which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments may be entertained. The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments. Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States, to serve for three years unless sooner discharged. Recruiting offices will be immediately opened in Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps other places. By the Governor.
