

The chaplain of an Indiana regiment is said to have prayed as follows: "I pray God that I may be one of the men who will pull the rope to hang Jeff Davis; and that the spirit of Washington Jefferson Jackson and Adams, may look down upon the bleaching carcass, as the flesh drops from the bones, and listen to the wind whistling Hail Columbia and Yankee Doodle through the decaying ribs which once encased his corrupt and traitorous heart. Amen."

"Can you draw, young man?" inquired Quilp of an applicant for a private tutorship. "Certainly replied the candidate; 'at ten years of age I could draw cider; at twelve, a picture; at fifteen, a handkerchief with cabbage; at sixteen, an inference; at twenty, a bill of exchange. If I was an actor, I believe I could draw the largest kind of a horse; but being a teacher, I am content to draw a salary, and the bigger the better.' 'You'll do,' said Quilp. 'Consider yourself engaged.'

Macklin the player, once going to one of the fire offices to insure some property, was asked by the clerk how he would please to have his name entered.

"Entered," replied the veteran, "why I am on my plan Charles Macklin, a vagabond by act of Parliament; but, in compliment to the times you may set me down Charles Macklin, Esq., as they are now synonymous terms."

Old Guzz-funsten having drunk nine mugs of beer at a neighbor's house, one evening, observed upon rising to leave, "I believe, neighbor T. I'll take a little more of your cider. I have good cider as well as anybody; but as for swilling it down as some people do, I never could."

It is said that the young people of some of the Northern cities do their courting on skates. But there are quite enough slips when the courting is done in the old way.

Proclamation by the Governor.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, PORTLAND, O., January 6, A. D. 1863. The President of the United States, through Brigadier General George Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific, and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord, commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies, required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry, Oregon Volunteers. They will be needed the coming spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for an expedition against the Snake Indians who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow citizens. I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services, will in like manner respond to this call, thereby showing their loyalty to the Government, and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men, when mounted, will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted or not as shall be deemed advisable by the Government. Propositions to raise a whole company which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments may be entertained. The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments. Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States, to serve for three years unless sooner discharged. Recruiting offices will be immediately opened in Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps other places. By the Governor, ADDISON C. GIBBS, CYRUS A. REED, Adj. Gen. 1-4w
