

"TO THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION, A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDISPENSABLE."—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.
WEDNESDAY EVENING, - APRIL 1, 1863.

SPRING RACES.—See the advertisement of the Jackson County Jockey Club.

RETURNED.—J. Gaston, Esq., on Saturday last, returned from his trip to San Francisco, bringing with him his family.

DANCING.—Day after to-morrow a Ball is to be given at the house of Mr. P. W. Stowe, on Little Butte Creek. We have no doubt it will be a recherché affair.

HEAVY ON THE HURDLES.—Our city Fathers have passed an Ordinance declaring Hardy dance-houses subject to a tax of ten dollars per day, or night, or $200 per month. The tax is equivalent to a prohibition.

MILITARY.—Major Drew has received instructions from General Wright that the new company being raised here will be mounted, and attached to the command for Klamath Lake. Each private who furnishes his own horse and horse equipments will receive twelve dollars per month for their use and risk—making his total monthly pay $25. To this also will be added $100 bounty at the end of enlistment. This bounty will be paid, however, at any time when the soldier is mustered out of the service after the expiration of six months.

A SCRIMMAGE.—Last night a lively row occurred at Wetterer's Brewery, in which a couple of men were quite severely handled. The disturbance originated with a brawny, swaggering fellow, named Devenger. After the first scrimmage, in which Devenger was severely cut above the eye, by a blow from a revolver, in the hands of a Yrekanian, and was ejected from the saloon, Deputy Sheriff Sutton made his appearance. He warned Devenger that he would arrest him if he would not at once go quietly away. Devenger heeded not the caution, but threw a boulder through the saloon door at some one inside. Sutton called on the citizens to help arrest him, whereat Devenger broke and ran, and was only induced to stop by the persuasive powers of a couple of hefty boulders quickly and forcibly applied to his thick cranium. He was at once secured with ropes. On his promising to go quietly along with the officer he was untied and allowed to rise; but he had gone but a few steps, when he threw out his powerful arms and with a single effort broke from his captors; and again were the former restoratives of reason applied, which brought him groaning to the ground. His arms were then secured, and with little further trouble, he was lodged in the county jail. "This morning he was brought before the Recorder on the simple charge of "assault and battery," and fined $15 and costs. Devenger escaped too cheaply, as this was not his first offence, and he was plainly guilty in this case of assault and battery, disturbing the public peace, and resisting an officer, besides declaring that he would be willing to "stretch hemp" for revenge on some of the arresting posse.

FREIGHTING TO BOISE.—Ed. Sentinel: Harmony and good feeling pervaded the meeting of the R. R. Wagon Road Association, held at Phoenix, on Saturday last. All that was hoped for, was then and there accomplished. Without doubt, between the 1st and 15th of May, thirty ox teams, loaded with the products of our valley, will be on their way to the Boise River mines, with an advance party of a dozen or more persons to lead the way.

Mr. E. D. Foudray offers to load ten teams with flour, and give the teamsters two-thirds of the proceeds at Boise. This is a very liberal offer. A team that can take four thousand pounds of flour to Boise, is certain to realize twenty cents per pound for his flour there, making a total of $333 dollars. The time required in making the trip will not exceed two months. How does this compare with freighting on the Crescent City road? An ox team can make three trips to Crescent City in two months, freighting four thousand pounds each trip, at four cents per lb., making $160 at every trip. The trips added amount to $480. Deduct the necessary expenses, which amount to at least $60 per trip, and there will be $300. Now charge the Boise teamster with $100 to and from Boise, and he will have remaining a nett profit of $433 against $300 on the Crescent City road; an additional profit of $133 in the short space of two months. Another consideration for teamsters is, that the Boise road will not wear out and break down cattle, by twenty-five per cent., as fast as does the C. C. road, a portion of which, last season, was not fit to put a team on. Last and not least, while we are going to Boise, we are relieving our valley of a small portion of its surplus products, and opening up a road whereby the balance can be transported for years to come, and confer a great, lasting benefit on ourselves.

Wagon Road Meeting.

According to previous appointment a large number of the citizens of this valley met at the Methodist Church in Phoenix, in this county, on Saturday last. The meeting was called to order by the President, S. Colver, at one o'clock p. m. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary and approved. The committee, appointed at the previous meeting, to get signers to the constitution, reported progress. Report adopted and committee continued. The committee on correspondence, the same.

On motion, the committee appointed to explore the route between the upper portion of Bear Creek Valley and Klamath Lake Valley, were excused from reporting at that meeting. The vote was reconsidered, and the committee reported through their chairman, S. Colver, "That part of the committee had started on the exploration, and that the rest would start on Wednesday next." The following gentlemen were added to the committee of exploration: F. Smith, J. M. Anderson, G. Good, W. F. Danger, J. Raper, and G. Taylor.

By request of the association a communication from "W. H. A." of Fort Lapiwa, W. T., was read to the meeting, by the Secretary, after which the meeting was addressed in plain, practical, common-sense speeches, by Mr. Kilgore, Foudray, Gray, Kahler, Davidson, Colver and Humphries.

Mr. Smith, G. Good and J. M. Anderson each made interesting and valuable statements in regard to the character of the country east and northeast of the Klamath Lake basin, and gave their opinions as to the practicability of a wagon road over the same. All agreed as to the practicability of the Klamath Lake route. Mr. Smith held that if the object was to reach the John Day mines alone, the Rogue River route was far the shorter, and he had no doubts of its practicability.

The following resolution was presented by Mr. Kilgore, seconded by Mr. Foudray, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the OREGON SENTINEL is entitled to the thanks of this association, and of the community generally, for the interest taken, and the public spirit manifested, by it in its energetic advocacy of the wagon road enterprise.

Sec. 3d, of the constitution, as adopted at the former meeting, reads as follows: "The object of this association is to open and make a reasonably good wagon road from the upper end of this valley, to terminate at Canyon City, on the head waters of John Day River."

On motion of Mr. Foudray, it was amended so as to read as follows: "The object of this association is to open and make a reasonably good wagon road from the upper end of this valley, to terminate at the Boise mines, or at any intermediate point.

The meeting adjourned to meet on Saturday, the 18th day of April, 1863.

O. JACOBS, } Secretaries.

NOBLE LETTER.—The officers of the Fourteenth New Hampshire regiment transmitted home an earnest and eloquent appeal for maintaining the Government against the rebellion. The officers say:

Whatever of discouragement exists in our armies to-day is the result, not so much of unsuccessful battles and disastrous campaigns—for our soldiers are as ready to-day as ever to encounter the foe—as of the coldness and open hostility to our cause on the part of Northern sympathizers with secession. Those who profess themselves factious about the means of defeating the rebels justly create suspicion of their honesty in wishing them defeated at all. The primal object is the preservation of the Union. To accomplish this, let us accept the chosen plans of the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, and when the Union shall have become an accomplished fact, we can call our rulers to an account for any misuse of power. But so long as the great national peril impends—while war exists—while great armies are maintained in the field—and the Government is straining every nerve to avoid a final catastrophe, common sense teaches that the conduct of factious citizens at the North, whether confined in party organization or as individuals, giving utterance to a fault-finding spirit, is "monstrous treason."
