

"TO THE EFFICACY AND PERMANENCY OF YOUR UNION, A GOVERNMENT FOR THE WHOLE IS INDISPENSABLE."—Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON.

SATURDAY EVENING, - - APRIL 11, 1863.

IN TOWN.—Mr. John Anderson, of San Francisco, is now on a visit to this place.

The bombardment of Fort Sumter commenced on the 12th of April, 1861, and evacuated by the Federal on the 14th.

COURT.—The April term of the Circuit Court for Josephine county commences on Monday next, Judge Prim presiding. That gentleman left this place for Kerbyville, today.

RECRUITING.—Lieut. Hand went to Camp Baker today, with three recruits. He expected to be joined by two more on the way.

REMOVED.—R. B. Morford, Esq., and lady, have removed from this place to Kerbyville, where, we understand, he intends to permanently locate, to practice law. May success be his.

"I say, Bill, I've just found out what Gen. Wright established a post out at Klamath Lake for."

"Ah! what is it?"

"For the immigrants to hitch their horses to."

RESURRECTED.—"T'Vault's Intelligence." The Colonel is as tenacious of life as a mud turtle, and may live to attain a "high position," but not in his "Pacific Republic." The paper contains Saulsbury's speech, and an "underground" dispatch from Yreka, that "Charleston has not fallen."

MILITARY.—A large number of deserters from the regular and volunteer forces of the U. S. Army have availed themselves of the privilege offered by the proclamation of the President, returning them to the service without punishment, on condition that they would report themselves to a proper military officer before the 15th of April, 1863. Six or eight have reported to Capt. Kelly, at Camp Baker. Read the "circular" in another column.

"WORMING" TOBACCO.—A writer in the Chicago Peace Farmer, in making suggestions in regard to the cultivation of tobacco, says:

In the first place it must be wormed for many weeks, and until a person gets used to it, it is not very pleasant to spend half one's time "squashing" big lazy worms between one's fingers. A person of "refined sensibility" might take a basket along till the lady in Shelby's "Sensitive Plant" put every worm in it, and then carry them off to some pleasant place and then pour them out. It is perhaps a question whether one does not acquire a cruel disposition by taking away the lives of so many creatures, when he has no power to give life.

From information received from one who has, for two successive years, raised experimental crops of tobacco, in our own valley, we can assure growers of the "weed" in Southern Oregon, that they need have no fears of having their refined sensibilities corrupted by "squashing" the repulsive grub. While the plant grows large and rank, it is free from worms and insects.

Crayon writes in the Oregonian, from Boise river:

There is no doubt on my mind, that the Indians intend giving us a show to fight this summer. They are making great preparations for some purpose. Last week they ran off a band of 180 horses and mules from a ranch near Fort Boise, and hardly a day passes but some unlucky wight meets with a loss by these devils in human form. The game is in their favor at present, but it will not last long. Already they are marked as game for the hunter, and their color will be their death warrant. There will be no "friendly Indians" here. I assure you, as that dodge has been practical too often by the cunning savages.

The telegraph brings to us cheering political news from the Atlantic States. Connecticut has rolled up good majorities for the Administration ticket; in Ohio the Union ticket is ahead, so far as heard from; the returns from Indiana show large Union gains; and in St. Louis and Jefferson City, the radical emancipationists have won decisive triumphs. The people of the Northwest have discovered their mistake in voting, last fall, for Democrats who, while they preached for a more vigorous prosecution of the war, were secretly plotting for the disruption of the Union, and using all means at their command to weaken and paralyze the efforts of the Government to maintain its authority against their rebellious brethren of the South. Saulsbury, Cox, Richardson & Co., in the last session of Congress, throw off the mask that concealed their hideous deformity, and we see the result: the people, appalled at the terrible vortex of treason into which their standard bearers would have led them, have indignantly discarded the double-dealing demagogues, and chosen men whom they know will faithfully represent them. We wonder how Jeff. Davis will relish this "gleam of peace from the North-west."

RAILROAD FROM SAN FRANCISCO TO PORTLAND.—Mr. S. G. Elliot, Civil Engineer, was in our town yesterday, on his way through from Marysville, Cal., to Portland. The purpose of his journey is to enlist the interests of various towns on the route in the project of a railroad from Marysville to Portland, and to assist him by their subscriptions and influence, to make a survey and maps of the proposed route. The cost of the survey and maps will not exceed $15,000. Of this sum the citizens of Marysville have contributed $3,000, and lists have been opened in Red Bluff, Shasta, Yreka and other principal towns through which the road is expected to pass. Our citizens should read the circular addressed to them, and take the matter under consideration. Who knows but that united action would, in five years, send the iron-horse screaming over the whole length of the proposed route? Stranger things have happened. And is not the matter worthy of a trifling risk.

MODERN DEMOCRACY.—Calvin B. McDonald is now editing the American Flag, a bold spoken Union paper at Sonora. In the following extract he addresses himself to the Northern sympathizers with the rebellion—they who are known as the "Peace Democracy. It is full of truth. "There was a time when, to be called a Democrat, was a proud distinction. Democracy was the politics of the people. It was the first word that the fugitives from despotism learned by heart. It was graven close to 'Liberty and Union' on the shield of American Freedom. It rang from the arches of the capital, and its votaries swarmed about the citadel when invasion threatened or when our national flag, in its wanderings on the high seas, encountered the slightest insult. "But oh, how fallen! how degenerate! how doubly dead, and thrice damned, that which was so exultant and imperious, and which now lies rotting in the putrescent marshes of the Valley of Humiliation! The swooping eagle, whose swift wings would cleave the topmost cloud—whose unshrinking eye would confront the blazing sun—now lies stricken, bedraggled and despised in the stagnant pool of secession, the companion of lurking reptiles, that feed on slime, and rise to the pure atmosphere only when they rot. "Democracy has become another Cain, branded and driven forth from Paradise—another Judas, outcast from the Last Supper—with the traitor's kiss, putrifying on his lips. "A peace party, when the lightnings of war are painting hell on the sky; fugitives from the recruiting officer, with not a name on the muster-roll of the Union's defenders; with not a representative in the field or camp overshadowed by the national flag; with not an atom of dust in a soldier's honorable grave, over which the nation will ever shed the baptism of grateful tears. Such is the debased, demoralized, depreciated organization which, under the name of Democracy, we shall have to encounter this year at the ballot box."

HEAVY ON THE COPPERHEADS.—In noticing the efforts of the Peace Copperhead Democrats in Illinois and Indiana to the up a Peace Convention at Louisville, get Richmond (Va.) Enquirer sneeringly said: "If they repudiate the debt they have contracted; and abandon the Government they have established; and recant the oaths; and break pledges; and eat dirt—it is well; we shall be charmed; the movement will suit us perfectly; and, although we shall not exactly respect the actors in that affair, yet we shall not be unwilling to trade with them—holding our noses a little—and to show them all suitable civilities, but at a proper distance."

THE OLD FELLOWS OF YREKA intend celebrating the forty-fourth anniversary of the I. O. O. F. on Monday the 4th inst. The day ceremonies, will be held at the Odd Fellows Hall at half-past 2 o'clock, to-wit: 1. Music. 2. Opening Ode. 3. Prayer by Chaplain. 4. Reading dispensation. 5. Oration by E. Steel. 6. Music. 7. Poem, by J. W. Whalley. 8. Music. 9. Benediction. A ball will be given in the evening by John Corley, of the Union Hotel. A general invitation is extended to all. A delegation from Jacksonville Lodge will be present on the occasion.

CONNECTICUT COPPERHEADS.—The Hartford Press says the following toast was drunk at a bar in that city by some attendants upon the State Democratic Convention which nominated Seymour for Governor: "Here's to the Southern Confederacy! May Jeff. Davis be our next President! May the Potomac be dried up, and its channel filled to the brim with the blood of Abolitionists!" That was the spirit of the Convention.

H. B. Parker, of Astoria, has been appointed Deputy U. S. Collector, in the following districts: 1st, Clatsop, Columbia and Tillamook counties; 6th, Linn and Lane counties; 7th, Douglas and Umpqua; 8th, Coos and Curry, and 9th, Jackson and Josephine counties.

Pedagogue.—"Grammar class stand up and recite. Tom, parse girls." Pupil.—"Girls is a particular noun of the lovely gender, lively persons, and for double number, kissing mood, in the immediate tense, and in the expectation case to matrimony, according to the general rule."

Judge Terry, who is said to have gone into the "Confederate" service, with the rank of Brigadier General, is a member of the Democratic Central Committee of this State. He probably left his "proxy"—Red Bluff Independent.

A democratic convention to nominate a Delegate to Congress from the new Territory of Idaho, is called to meet at Lewiston in May.

Mr. G. T. Waller's residence, in Eola, Polk county, was burned to the ground, on 29th ult. Loss $1,200.

NEW TO-DAY.

HORSE STOLEN.—A valuable saddle-horse was stolen on Sunday night last, from William Taylor, living in the upper end of the Valley. No clue is yet had as to who is the thief. He is a fine black horse, fifteen hands high, and has a scar on the left side of the head, from the nostril to the eye—hair very thin on the scar. A liberal reward will be paid by Mr. Taylor for the recovery of the horse, and the apprehension of the thief or thieves. Phoenix, April 10, 1863.
