

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

from Charleston, dated April 8th, 10 p. m. All is quiet. The people and troops are in high spirits at the result of yesterday's fight. The Keokuk is certainly sunk, about 1,000 yards from Merceers Island, pieces of her furniture has been washed ashore. These articles are covered with clotted blood, creating the impression that the slaughter on her was terrible. The fighting between iron-clads and forts was at a distance of 3,000 yards. Monitors cannot pass Sumpter without coming within 300 yards of her batteries. Seven monitors and iron-clads are off the harbor, and two have gone south. The Federals have been repairing damages all day.

Cincinnati, April 11th.—A Rebel dispatch, dated Fort Pemberton the 8th, says the enemy commenced to re-embark last night and rapidly left. We shelled their camp and transports.

New York, 12th.—Rebel dispatches say that in the engagement at Charleston all the monitors were frightfully cut up, but with what result is not known. But one gun was dismounted in Fort Sumpter, and one man wounded.

The anniversary of the attack on Fort Sumpter was celebrated yesterday afternoon by an immense mass meeting at Union Square. It is estimated that 20,000 people were present. Speeches were made by Fremont, Sigel, Postmaster General, Dickinson and others.

Murfreesboro, April 12.—Vandorn attacked Gen. Granger at Franklin yesterday with a force estimated at 15,000. They fought most of the day. They were repulsed with a loss of 400 killed. Our loss was about 100 killed, wounded and missing. Gen. Granger's cavalry, led by himself, charged and captured a battery with 200 prisoners, but being unsupported, was compelled to relinquish the battery and all but 22 prisoners.

Washington, 12th.—Official despatches in regard to the fight between Vandorn and Granger at Franklin, say the engagement commenced at one o'clock on Monday morning. The infantry kept the enemy at bay until the ammunition was exhausted and reinforcements under Gen. Stanley arrived. The fire from our siege guns and light artillery literally strewed the ground with rebels.

Cairo, April 12th.—The despatches received from Vicksburg say that the iron-clads Louisville, Mound City, Benton, and three others, are preparing to run the blockade on Saturday night. The entire Tallahatchie river fleet, consisting of divisions under Gen. Ross and Quincy, with numerous gunboats, arrived at Helena April 8th. The expedition had been absent forty-three days. They left the fort at Greenwood on Sunday. As soon as the bustle of preparations incident to departure was discovered by the enemy, they opened a brisk fire of shot and shell, which continued until the last boat steamed up the river. On the passage up the Tallahatchie and Coldwater river, the boats were fired on by guerillas concealed in the cane-brakes; 25 or 30 on the transports were killed.

San Francisco, 10th.—The following persons have been appointed postmasters: Levi Kent, Elkton, Umpqua county, O'g'n; Wm. F. Dunbar, Port Orford. Commissions have been received for Geo. C. Gitchell, Amity, and Samuel F. Combs, Seattle, W. T. New offices have been established at Ellensburg, John Devey postmaster, and at Chelo, Aug. F. Miller postmaster.

San Francisco, 11th.—A private telegram states that passengers for New York via Nicaragua, reached New York April 11th, having crossed with some detention, and that the Moses Taylor is not due here until the 17th.

The trial of Jas. T. Hoff is fixed for the 18th. He pleads not guilty.

Greenbacks, 68 and 70.

The Imported French Draught-Horse

LION HEART, will stand for maters the ensuing season at Samuel Colvers, Gasburg, the season to commence on the first day of April and ending on the first day of July, 1863.
Terms, Ten dollars for single leap; $20 for season; $30 to insure.
Description.—Lion Heart is a beautiful dark brown, 13 1/2 hands high, and weighs 1200 pounds. He combines in a remarkable degree those great essentials of a good horse, size, power, speed and bottom, with a docility of temper peculiar to this noble race of horses.
Pedigree.—Lion Heart was sired by imported Lion Heart; his dam by Bashaw, owned and bred by R. Bruce, of Montreal.
Lion-Heart took the first premium at the principal Fair of Lower Canada, in 1857, a light draught. We confidently recommend him as the best roadster in the State; his superiority as a stock-horse has been thoroughly established in this State, one of his colts taking the first premium at the Oregon State Fair last year, as award to Daniel Goff, of Polk county; but we have other proofs of his superiority as a stock horse in this county, in the superiority of his colts, bred by J. Pinkham, F. H. Gray, J. Wrisley, J. C. Tolman, J. Hill, A. Rockefeller, H. Arnerman, W. Benson, and in fact all who have bred.
Stock-raisers are invited to call and see for themselves.
Pasture will be furnished on reasonable terms to mares from a distance.
SAMUEL COLVER.
Phoenix, March 18, 1863.

The Fine, Imported English Draught Horse, COBERG, will be kept at the stable of the subscriber, at the Mount Vernon Ranch, near Eagle Mills, from date to September 1st.

Description.—COBERG will be six years old this spring; is a beautiful bay, without natural white; 17 1/2 hands high by fair measurement (would measure 18); the way some persons measure stallions; weighs 2,500 lbs.; girth seven feet four inches; has a good coat, is well formed, and has good action.
COBERG was brought across the plains in 1861; was sired by a horse in Illinois, imported from England. Persons wishing to raise horses suitable for the plow and wagon would do well to take a look at him and his colts. By noticing his weight, it will be seen that he is heavy for his height, as most horses weigh about 75 to 77 lbs. to the hand, while he weighs over 131.
Terms.—$10 in coin for any time but May and June; in May and June, $15. If not paid till the end of the season, $15 for any time but in May or June; in May or June, $20.

CIRCULAR

HEAD-QUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF PACIFIC, PROSVOT-MARSHAL'S OFFICE, San Francisco, April 2, 1863.
SOLDIERS—regulars or volunteers—who have deserted, or absented themselves from the companies or regiments without leave; The opportunity is now afforded you to wipe out the stain attached to yourselves, and from your families and friends the shame and reproach consequent upon your desertion or unauthorized absence from your regiments.
The President of the United States, by his proclamation, dated March 10th, 1863, offers to restore you to the service without punishment, except forfeiture of pay during your absence, provided you report yourselves on or before the 15th inst. It is known that many of you in times past, were induced to desert the service, with the vain hope of making your fortunes speedily in the mines, and have often since desired to return to duty in the army.
It is believed that since treason and rebellion have involved our once happy country in all the horrors of civil war, and drenched the land in blood, evil disposed persons—traitors in the guise of friends—have enticed you to desert the noble FLAG, your fathers and you once revered. Rally again around that Flag—assist your country in maintaining the supremacy of its Constitution and laws—nay, even its national existence, and show by your zealous devotion that the enemies of your country are your bitterest foes.
Report yourselves in person at once to the commanding officer of the nearest military post, or to any recruiting officer; or by addressing a letter to the undersigned, you will be instructed to whom you may report.
