BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

[TELEGRAPHED TO YREKA FOR THE SENTINEL.]

First Dispatch.
Washington, 15th.—The Navy Department have advices of the re-capture of three blockade runners on the coast of Bermuda.

New York, 15th.—A report is current in English circles, that Secretary Seward sent, April 2d, a dispatch to the British Government, in which he said, more emphatically than in previous dispatches, that unless Government prevented the sailing of rebel vessels of war now constructing in British ports, it would be a breach of faith and friendly relations existing in Great Britain and the United States, of which this country could hardly fail to take notice.

A Suffolk letter of April 12th says: At daylight this morning we abandoned the South Quay Road, tore up the bridges, and prepared more effectually to meet an attack from the enemy. Torpedoes are under all the bridges not destroyed leading to the town. A messenger arrived this morning, bringing information that the enemy is advancing on the Semington road.
With this intelligence came information that four of our men were captured five miles from here, on the Providence Road.
The enemy now occupy our picket stations in the latter direction.

Intelligence received from Fortress Monroe states that the enemy retired four miles from Washington, and that the gun-boats sent to Foster's assistance had succeeded in running the blockade on the river.

Washington, 15th.—Private advices from Newburn say that a communication had been received from Foster to the effect that he had plenty of supplies, and believed that he could withstand all the forces the rebels could bring against him for three weeks if necessary.

The following rebel dispatches are published: Charleston, 12th.—Last night the steamer Stonewall Jackson while attempting to run into this harbor, was hotly chased by the blockaders. She received several shots through her hull. The Captain ran her ashore and burned her. Passengers escaped in small boats. The steamer was burned to the waters edge. The cargo consisted of sail, shot and merchandise.

The Flag says that in the fight on the 8th, at Williamsburg, between our forces and the Yankees, our troops drove in their pickets and occupied the town. The enemy retreated to Fort Magruder, from which they shelled the place. We took a position and replied to their fire. Our casualties are slight.

Headquarters army of the Potomac, 15.
The following are rebel dispatches: Jackson, 10th.—One Yankee gunboat was abandoned at the mouth of the An-nife, in the retreat down the Cold water.

Charleston, 10th.—The steamer Emma and Annie arrived this morning from Nassau.

The Times' New Orleans Letter says Gen.
Banks is fortifying all the approaches to the city. The enemy is believed to have 75,000 men who can be concentrated near the city at twelve hours' notice. There are some apprehensions of a raid from Mobile to Ship Island.

Second Dispatch.
New York, 15th.—Sterling dull and lower—nominal at 162½-167; Gold irregular, closing dull at 53½-53¾; Government Stocks unchanged; Pacific Mail, 186¾.

New York, 16th.—Washington special dispatches say the case of the Anglo-rebel steamer Peterhoff continues to engage the attention of the Administration, as well as diplomatic circles here. It is understood that Lord Lyons requested that the British mail found on board should be returned to him unopened, and that the State Department is ready to accede to his wishes. Secretary Welles, however, is of opinion that whatever the abstract right or wrong of the question may be, the District Court, which has the case before it for adjudication, can alone decide—the statute being peremptory that all papers and writings found on board captured vessels shall be transmitted unopened to the Court before which such vessels are proceeded against. Judge Betts, last week, invited Archibald, the British Consul, to be present while the mail was being opened, but he did not appear.

A rebel telegram, dated Mobile, April 10th, says: Official dispatches say the enemy, four hundred in number, mostly contributed troops, landed at Pascagoula yesterday and were attacked by our cavalry.

The enemy lost fifteen killed. Our loss was one Lieutenant and private wounded.
The Yankee gunboats put back to Ship Island with their wounded.

A late Charleston Mercury, speaking of the Government powder works at Augusta (Ga.), says that when completed they will be the largest in the world. They are now superior to any known, and the powder fully equals the best Yankee and European standard.

Fortress Monroe, 14th.—In regard to affairs at Williamsburg the Chamber of today says: General Wise has commenced intrenching on the other side of Williamsburg. He has orders to take Fort Magruder at all hazards, and he is afraid to make the assault. He has resorted to digging. Our troops are in fine spirits. Gen.
Dix left here to-day for Suffolk. The enemy there is in force in close proximity to our lines, but no general engagement is anticipated unless an attack be made by the Union forces, which is more than probable.
Rebel prisoners say there was to have been a simultaneous attack upon Washington (North Carolina), Suffolk, Gloucester Point and Williamsburg. This plan, however, was interfered with by the recent recognition of the Fourth Delaware regiment and the gunboats up York river.

New York, 16th.—Jeff Davis has issued another address to the people of the Southern Confederacy, urging them to devote their agricultural labor to the production of food. He says that though the soldier are on half rations of meat, there is plenty in the Confederacy, but that a difficulty exists in transportation which is now about to be remedied. The address contains the following: To oppose the invading forces composed of slaves which already exceed 1,300,000 men, we had no resources but the union and valor of a people determined to be free, and were so destitute of military supplies that tens of thousands of our citizens were reluctantly refused admission into the service from inability to furnish arms, while for many months some of our strongholds owed their safety chiefly to the careful concealment of the fact that we were without supplies of powder for our cannon. Your devotion and patriotism triumphed over all these obstacles and called into existence munitions of war, clothing and sustenance which enabled our soldiers to illustrate their valor on numerous battlefields, and to inflict crushing blows on successive armies, each of which our arrogant infidelity imagined to be invincible. The contrast between our past and present condition is well calculated to inspire full confidence in the triumph of our arms. At no previous period of the war have our forces been so numerous, so well organized and so thoroughly disciplined, armed and equipped as at present. The season of high water, on which the enemy relied to enable their fleet of gunboats to penetrate into our country and devastate our homes, is fast passing away, yet our strongholds on the Mississippi river still bid defiance to the foe. Months of costly preparation for their reduction have been spent in vain.
Disaster has been the result of their effort to reduce the strongholds of the Mississippi. Within a few weeks the falling waters and the increasing heat of Summer will complete their discomfiture and compel their baffled and defeated forces to the abandonment of the expedition on which is based their chief hope of success in effecting our subjugation. We must not forget, however, that the war is not yet ended; that we are still confronted by powerful armies and threatened by numerous fleets; that the Government that controls these fleets and armies is driven to the most desperate efforts to effect its unholy purpose, in which it has thus far been defeated. It will use its utmost energy to avert this impending doom, so fully merited by the atrocities it has committed and the savage barbarities which it has encouraged, and the crowning attempt to execute a servile population to the massacre of our wives, daughters and helpless children.
With such a contest before us, there is but one danger which the Government of your choice regards with apprehension.
To avert this danger it appeals to the never-failing patriotism which you have exhibited since the beginning of the war.

Washington, April 13th.—Charleston papers of a late date are reviewing the naval attack, they say their casualties were as follows: At Sumpter one man mortally wounded, three severely and three slightly.
At Moultrie one was killed by falling from a flag staff, one gun in Sumpter was dismounted. On Sullivan Island two houses were demolished. At Battery Magruder six artillery men were wounded.

Halifax, April 16th.—The steamer Arabia from Liverpool has arrived. The London Times expatiates on the increasing in-ignation against England, on account of fitting out Confederate vessels, and the probable adoption of retaliatory measures.

The Times sees something to hope for in America, from the Union troops in the North, and the increasing demand of Republicans for the restoration of the Union at any price. The Times says sympathy has been withheld, because it was perceived that the whole southern people were in earnest about independence, while it was not apparent that any considerable portion of the northern people were in earnest about emancipation.

Polish affairs are again threatening.
The insurrectionists of the peasants, nobility and middle classes, have joined.

The British man-of-war Orpheus was wrecked on the coast of New Zealand; 8 officers and men were drowned and 70 were saved.

New York, 17th.—Sterling limited, and in demand at 167½, gold dull at 52.

New York, 17th.—A letter to the Commercial intimates that the President is not pleased at the culmination of six months preparatory to the reduction of Charleston after two hours' fighting. It is not correct that the reconnaissance which accomplished so little, is to be followed by a bona fide attack, which is to continue as long as the iron-clads can fire a gun.

Washington, 17th.—During the last two months 15,000 soldiers have been sent to the Army of the Potomac, from the convalescent camp.

The rebel Congress has passed a law abolishing flogging in the rebel army and substituted the death penalty, and imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Charleston, 16th.—The entire fleet departed at 4 o'clock for the South. The impression prevails here, however, that they will return and renew the attack.

California.
San Francisco, 15.—The following private telegram was received here to-day: N. Y., 14th.—Our relations with England are unsatisfactory. Policies not covering foreign war risks not to be taken.
We recommend caution and moderate shipments. Gold 56. Produce unsettled.

San Francisco, 17th.—The schooner Kate L. Herron caught fire this evening, and had to be scuttled at Market St. wharf.
The lower California emigrant brig Island was stopped by an armed force from Alcatraz Island in search of a deserter from the U. S. army. The Provost Marshal has already captured the fugitive.

San Francisco, 17th.—General Wright last evening received a dispatch saying that Col. Evans fought the Indians at Spanish Fork cañon. Lieut. Peck killed, and two Sergeants wounded. Thirty Indians killed.

San Francisco, 18th.—Steamer Sonora, from Panama, with New York mails and passengers, March 21st, arrived about 7 o'clock this p. m. The great two mile race between the California Damsel and the Pacific, to-day, was won by Damsel in 3:13½. Pacific was badly distanced first heat. Over $30,000 changed hands on the race.

San Francisco, 18th.—In the U. S. District Court, yesterday, a libel was entered against the schooner P. M. Chapman, by the Government, pursuant to which Collector Rankin seized the craft, and now has the same in custody as forfeit to the United States. 2d, that the schooner was purchased and fitted out and held for the purpose of being employed in piratical aggression against the shipping and commerce of the United States, whereby said vessel became forfeit to the United States Government. The Attorney General declares said premises true, proof of which being made, he prays motion of Court in his behalf.

The schooner Kate L. Herron took fire last night, from bilge water coming in contact with unlashed line. Through the assistance of the sloop-of-war Cyane and the fire department she was flooded and sunk, but will be raised with little expense.
The whole loss will not exceed 500 dollars.

San Francisco, 19th.—In consequence of a breakage in the overland line late last night, we have no Eastern news.

A dispatch read last night says that P.
M. Osborn was instantly killed, near Oakland, at five p. m., by a man named W.
Britton, who was in his employ. The murderer is in custody.

By steamer we have Panama dates to the 2d. Nicaragua has broken off official connection with San Salvador. The Guatemalians acknowledge their defeat by the San Salvador troops, and seem disgusted with the war.
